THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1901.

The police have reason to believe that J. E. Tammer, the man under arrest at Mis-souri Valley, is the same individual who a few weeks ago worked a similar racket in this city. He imposed on the sympathies of the business men here by showing a telegram announcing the death of his two daughters in the east. The police got after him and he skipped the town before they could arrest him.

The receipts in the general fund at the Christian Home last week amounted to $1,360.59, being $1,160.59 above the estimated meeds for the current expenses of the week, and the surplus was placed to the credit of the contingent fund. In the manager's fund the receipts were $174.40, being $133.40 above the needs of the week, and wiping out the deficiency in this fund as reported last week. A balance of $51.54 now stands to the credit of the manager's fund. The case against John Plant, charged by Smith being unable to afford the services of an attorney was represented by permis-sion of the court by Zachariah Taylor. The warring elements came near fighting out their troubles in the courtroom several times during the hearing and the court had to frequently call on the bailing to restore order.

order. Some excitement was caused yesterday afternoon at the corner of Main street and Broadway by a two-horse rig, driven by Williams of Seventh avenue, colliding with a buggy containing Mrs. Larsen and her two small children of 328 Second avenue. The occupants of the buggy were thrown out into the mud, but not injured. Barker drove on, but was brought back by Police Captain Denny, who had witnessed the col-lision. The incident drew a large crowd.
