SENATE'S DAY PROVES SHORT

Session Only and That Devoted Largely to Routine Work and Succelles.

LINCOLN, Jan. 25 .- (Special.)-The members of both houses of the legislature scored a victory over the faction which would adjourn from Friday until Monday today by voting to adopt the report of a joint committee recommending that a session of both houses be held tomorrow. There was considerable opposition to a Saturday session by members who desired to go to their homes, and in the senate even after the recommendation of the committee had been adopted, a motion was made to reconsider, but it was voted down and both houses will meet tomorrow.

The business of the senate this morning was principally of a routine nature, with Lieutenant Governor Savage, Acting Presi-
