May Wheat Takes a Tumble from Its Early Closing Price

CORN AND OATS BOTH FALL WITH IT

Former Closes One-Fourth and Latter a Shade Down—Provisions Recover and Ascend a Shade to Fifteen Cents.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Weak cables, heavy receipts and generally bearish sentiment depressed wheat today. May closing at 78c, down from 80c on Saturday. Corn closed at 40c and oat a shade down. Provisions at the close were a shade to five higher.

May wheat opened 81/4 lower at 79c. Heavy offerings were in demand, which came in the shape of advices here Saturday, world's shipments, which, with Australia to bear in mind, aggregated 2,500,000 bushels of wheat in the amount of wheat and flour on ocean passage. Following the opening the market recovered to 77c on Monday morning, but did not last long and selling by long caused a drop during the forenoon to 76c. Heavy primary receipts being the chief factor. A decrease in the visible supply of 60,000 bu. was reported, and May went down again to 75c and closed weak.

ST. PAUL IS THE DAY'S STAR PLAYER ON THE STREET.
NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The huge dealings in St. Paul made it the star player in today's market. Its influence was most marked in stocks, nearly all of which advanced and the general upraging tendency, both on the upward and downward side, being the greater part of the day's work. The market was active during the early dealings and later in the day a level, but not showing any tendency to rise or fall.
