

AMUSEMENTS.

Nothing at the local theaters during the last week calls for comment further than already given. It is not in discussions of the last week's doings, anyway, that theater-goers will find interest, but in what is to come this week—the engagement of Mme. Bernhardt and M. Coquelin, who are to give us "La Tosca". Bernhardt is considered very generally to be the greatest living tragedienne, while Coquelin is France's leading exponent of the dramatic art.

to put new stars into old plays? Certainly there is nothing in the one mentioned—merely as an example—to entitle it to immortality, and what is true of it is equally true of a host of others that are being paraded nightly before the American people, while play writers are looking for a chance to give us new things. To be sure, people will go to hear the old plays, just like they stop to hear the old songs, but there is no satisfaction, either for the actor or the auditor. For the one cannot help feeling the comment of contrast the other is sure to make, and thus both suffer through the comparison. The moral to it all is that an actor should be too ambitious to allow himself to wear second-hand another man's character. He should as lief wear the other's cast-off clothing.

It seems that Omaha theater-goers are not the only ones who have to put up with the muddy advertising pamphlets that are handed out to patrons of the different local playhouses and that by common courtesy only are called programs. New York, Boston and others of the large eastern cities seem to be compelled to suffer the same nuisance, judging from some of the caustic articles sent this subject which have recently found their way into the press of that section. Says the New York Times:

A collection of programs of this sort, and the great actor, she appeared before an audience limited in size only by the capacity of Boyd's theater.

There is not a little disappointment in Omaha that Bernhardt is to play "La Tosca" here. People wanted to see "L'Aiglon". We are off with a plea that the syndicate under whose direction the local theater is intended to bring Maclure Adams here with the English version of the Rostand play and that were Bernhardt to produce the play here now it would destroy the business of the syndicate.

The Council Bluffs Dramatic club will present "The Charity Ball" at the Bohannon theater in Council Bluffs Friday evening, February 15. The piece, which is one of Charles Frohman's successes of a few years ago, has been staged and rehearsed under the direction of Miss Lillian Pich of this city and the performance will be watched with interest by this young woman's local friends and admirers, as it is practically her effort of this kind. The proceeds of the performance will go to a Council Bluffs hospital.

Why, though, should there be any relation to the germ which cause Catarrh and Bronchitis and the Grip prepare the way for those which cause Pneumonia and Consumption.

DR. GEO. LEININGER'S For-mal-do-hydro KIDNEY TABLETS. It has been using your formaldehyde inhaler for Catarrh, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and other Nose and Throat and Lung diseases. I have found it superior to any remedy ever discovered.

There is a vast amount of truth in what is said in this article concerning "methods." The word "method" is responsible for many of the failures in the study of music. As Mr. Perabo so aptly says: "Students are not to become 'fads' which belittle both the pupil and the teacher, leading more to business and 'standing' than to the truth and understanding. Modern practice, which is lavishly but thoughtlessly applied of from six to twelve hours a day, as some late teachers are advocating. As the first and gentle pressure gives the richest results, so the highest instruction is most deeply rooted when acquired for sitting, standing, straining or fatigue. The groove of a correct habit is a graceful, poetic mold, gradually and lovingly shaped, not like a hole, to be dug and hammered out mechanically. It is not well to put pupils back, owing to differing with previous advisors. When valuable information has already been gained let us rather be grateful to those who have thus facilitated our labors."

Why, though, should there be any relation to the germ which cause Catarrh and Bronchitis and the Grip prepare the way for those which cause Pneumonia and Consumption.

end of her present tour in this country to present "When Knighthood Was in Flower." Dan Daily may star next season in a comedy, "The Stage Manager," by Hugh Morley, and in "A Man About Town," by Abel Herman.

Mrs. W. E. Hittler, who has just played the banner role at the Bohannon theater in New Orleans, will appear here on the 10th of the month. She is the first actress to have been introduced to Omaha through the receipts were nearly $500.

Teachers are to a nation what roots are to the trees. No more serious task confronts a teacher than the placing of important information accurately and wisely upon the tender, gentle, grateful and sensitive Divine tablet, that silently directs decisions and events. The development of the mind requires slow growth, assisted by the warm sun of affection and guided by conservative teachers with honest and ideal conceptions, who understand how to load its precious cargo that it may not shift during life's tempestuous vicissitudes.

There is a vast amount of truth in what is said in this article concerning "methods." The word "method" is responsible for many of the failures in the study of music. As Mr. Perabo so aptly says: "Students are not to become 'fads' which belittle both the pupil and the teacher, leading more to business and 'standing' than to the truth and understanding. Modern practice, which is lavishly but thoughtlessly applied of from six to twelve hours a day, as some late teachers are advocating. As the first and gentle pressure gives the richest results, so the highest instruction is most deeply rooted when acquired for sitting, standing, straining or fatigue. The groove of a correct habit is a graceful, poetic mold, gradually and lovingly shaped, not like a hole, to be dug and hammered out mechanically. It is not well to put pupils back, owing to differing with previous advisors. When valuable information has already been gained let us rather be grateful to those who have thus facilitated our labors."

There is a vast amount of truth in what is said in this article concerning "methods." The word "method" is responsible for many of the failures in the study of music. As Mr. Perabo so aptly says: "Students are not to become 'fads' which belittle both the pupil and the teacher, leading more to business and 'standing' than to the truth and understanding. Modern practice, which is lavishly but thoughtlessly applied of from six to twelve hours a day, as some late teachers are advocating. As the first and gentle pressure gives the richest results, so the highest instruction is most deeply rooted when acquired for sitting, standing, straining or fatigue. The groove of a correct habit is a graceful, poetic mold, gradually and lovingly shaped, not like a hole, to be dug and hammered out mechanically. It is not well to put pupils back, owing to differing with previous advisors. When valuable information has already been gained let us rather be grateful to those who have thus facilitated our labors."

There is a vast amount of truth in what is said in this article concerning "methods." The word "method" is responsible for many of the failures in the study of music. As Mr. Perabo so aptly says: "Students are not to become 'fads' which belittle both the pupil and the teacher, leading more to business and 'standing' than to the truth and understanding. Modern practice, which is lavishly but thoughtlessly applied of from six to twelve hours a day, as some late teachers are advocating. As the first and gentle pressure gives the richest results, so the highest instruction is most deeply rooted when acquired for sitting, standing, straining or fatigue. The groove of a correct habit is a graceful, poetic mold, gradually and lovingly shaped, not like a hole, to be dug and hammered out mechanically. It is not well to put pupils back, owing to differing with previous advisors. When valuable information has already been gained let us rather be grateful to those who have thus facilitated our labors."

in the subsequent issue of The Bee, it is unnecessary to comment on anything at this time except the general excellence of the program and the two numbers particularly attractive, which were the Ballet Suite of Marie Costa and the Dervish Chorus of Sebek. The truly beautiful accompaniments for the soloists exhibited unusual delicacy for a band and, in fact, I have heard orchestras whose pianists were not as distinctly subdued.

The first Chopin program of the musical department, Omaha Women's club, will be given on Friday, February 8, at 10:30 a. m. Characterizations: Miss Teresa Little, Chopin in D major, Op. 25, No. 12; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in E-flat major, Op. 10, No. 3; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in A-flat major, Op. 10, No. 4; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in G major, Op. 10, No. 5; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in F major, Op. 10, No. 6; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in C major, Op. 10, No. 7; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in D-flat major, Op. 10, No. 8; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in E-flat major, Op. 10, No. 9; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in F major, Op. 10, No. 10; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in G major, Op. 10, No. 11; Miss Maud Johnson, Chopin in A-flat major, Op. 10, No. 12.

Teachers are to a nation what roots are to the trees. No more serious task confronts a teacher than the placing of important information accurately and wisely upon the tender, gentle, grateful and sensitive Divine tablet, that silently directs decisions and events. The development of the mind requires slow growth, assisted by the warm sun of affection and guided by conservative teachers with honest and ideal conceptions, who understand how to load its precious cargo that it may not shift during life's tempestuous vicissitudes.

Teachers are to a nation what roots are to the trees. No more serious task confronts a teacher than the placing of important information accurately and wisely upon the tender, gentle, grateful and sensitive Divine tablet, that silently directs decisions and events. The development of the mind requires slow growth, assisted by the warm sun of affection and guided by conservative teachers with honest and ideal conceptions, who understand how to load its precious cargo that it may not shift during life's tempestuous vicissitudes.

Teachers are to a nation what roots are to the trees. No more serious task confronts a teacher than the placing of important information accurately and wisely upon the tender, gentle, grateful and sensitive Divine tablet, that silently directs decisions and events. The development of the mind requires slow growth, assisted by the warm sun of affection and guided by conservative teachers with honest and ideal conceptions, who understand how to load its precious cargo that it may not shift during life's tempestuous vicissitudes.

Teachers are to a nation what roots are to the trees. No more serious task confronts a teacher than the placing of important information accurately and wisely upon the tender, gentle, grateful and sensitive Divine tablet, that silently directs decisions and events. The development of the mind requires slow growth, assisted by the warm sun of affection and guided by conservative teachers with honest and ideal conceptions, who understand how to load its precious cargo that it may not shift during life's tempestuous vicissitudes.

CONFIDE IN A WOMAN

When it is evident that women need competent advice about their health, is it not well for them to know how to secure it? Tell your story without reservation to Mrs. Pinkham; she never breaks confidence, and her advice is the best in the world. Miss Mecum's two letters show how helpful it is.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I have read so much about your great kindness to suffering women that I thought I would write and tell you of my troubles. In the first place, I have a blood disease which the doctors call dry leucorrhoea. I have taken a great deal of medicine but received no permanent benefit, so thought I would try your medicine. Meneses are irregular, and I am troubled with leucorrhoea. Bowels are constipated; sometimes have sharp pains; cannot sleep at night; have such shaking spells I cannot be still. Suffer with pain in lower part of back, in my side under left breast, and through my chest; also troubled with shortness of breath and dizziness. Please give me your advice.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: When I wrote to you some time ago I was feeling very miserable. I followed the advice you gave me, and must say that I think your remedies are the greatest remedies on earth. I took both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and they have done me more good than anything I ever took. I cannot express my thankfulness to you, and I shall always recommend your medicine to others.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I have noticed your advertisement and feel that your medicine will do me some good. I have been suffering several months with womb trouble. The womb swells and it feels as if something was gathering on each side. Some days I run down and my condition was very serious. After reading of your medicine I can hardly be on my feet at all. It makes me very nervous and I also have a discharge of leucorrhoea. I am getting tired of suffering so much and want to try your medicine. Please advise me and answer as soon as possible.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: Words cannot express my gratitude for the good I have derived from the use of your remedies. I suffered with congestion of the ovaries and inflammation of the womb. I was completely run down and my condition was very serious. After reading of the good your medicine had done for others I concluded to write to you for advice. Upon receiving your reply I took a course of your medicine and am now well. The Lydia E. Pinkham Vegetable Compound also cured me of the awful headaches I was subject to. I shall never be without your medicine. I cheerfully recommend it to all and firmly believe it capable of curing any female sickness.

$5000 REWARD

Who will be paid in any amount up to $5000 for the discovery of the author of the article in this issue of The Bee, under the heading "The Music Today at the First Baptist Church," which is a copy of the program of the concert given at that church on January 25, 1901.

10 Performances—10 3 Matinees—3 Sunday, Wednesday, Saturday. Opheum ONE SOLID WEEK Commencing Sunday Mat. Feb. 3. A HIT EVERYWHERE THE BEAUTIFUL HAWTHORNE SISTERS. THE MUSICAL DALE. STANTON AND MODENA FLORENCE. AL. AND MAMIE ANDERSON.

BOYD'S Woodward & Burgess, Managers, Tel. 1919. Today 2:30 Tonight 8:15 ALSO MONDAY Kirke La Shelle and F. R. Hamlin Present Augustus Thomas' Masterpiece, ARIZONA "The Only Play" Great Success Splendid Scenic Surroundings A COMPLETE COMPETENT CAST. FULL OF COMEDY-HEART INTEREST-PATHOS

BOYD'S Woodward & Burgess, Managers, Tel. 1919. Tuesday Eve, Feb. 5th. MME. SARAH BERNHARDT and M. Coquelin Presenting Sardou's "La Tosca" Masterpiece. MME. SARAH BERNHARDT, M. COQUELIN, LA TOSCA. Prices—Evening, 50c, 75c, $1.00. Matinee, 25c, 50c, 75c.

MORAND'S Grand Confetti and Snow Ball Party. CREGENTON HALL, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6th—8:30 P. M. Admission, couple, 50c.

Read The Bee—The Best Paper.