

MUST PAY GORDON'S SALARY

Peremptory Writ of Mandamus Issues from District Court.

CITY ATTORNEY CALLED IN CONSULTATION

It Now Appears That Omaha's Former Police Judge Has Triumphed in His Litigation Against the Municipality.

Mayor Moore and the city council will have to pay the salary claim of Police Judge Samuel I. Gordon in full or be in contempt of court for violating a peremptory writ of mandamus which has been issued.

The order of the district court commands the mayor and council to forthwith allow and appropriate to Gordon the sum of $2,500, in addition to the $2,400 already allowed, in payment of his salary for the years 1898 and 1899.

The peremptory writ issued by Judge Estelle and was put in the sheriff's hands for service on Tuesday, but was not filed in the district court clerk's office until late yesterday afternoon.

Mayor Moore said last night that the provision had been made in the new tax levy for $2,800 to cover the claim of Judge Gordon, with costs, but he was not prepared to state whether it would be paid or not.

The peremptory writ had been referred to City Attorney Council, who is expected to advise the mayor and council in the matter.

LECTURE BY RABBI HIRSCH

Discussion at Boyd's Theater on Facts and Fictions About Jews.

Rabbi Emil G. Hirsch of Chicago delivered a lecture at Boyd's theater Wednesday evening on "Facts and Fictions About the Jewish People."

The Jewish race is not a distinct type of people. Inter-marriages were the rule until the third Christian century.

Lord Coleridge wrote: "Send me fifteen dozen Cook's Imperial Extra Dry Wine. I tried it while here and find it superior."

CONVENTION OPENS TODAY

Conference of Charities and Corrections to be Welcomed by the Mayor This Afternoon.

The Nebraska Conference of Charities and Corrections will open at the Young Men's Christian association tonight at 7 o'clock.

Secretary H. H. Hart of the national organization will explain the benefits to be derived from state conferences, after which papers will be read by Thomas Kilpatrick, C. E. Prevey of Lincoln and Rev. Dr. C. S. Sargent.

In the evening there will be a session at the Kountze Memorial church, with addresses by H. H. Hart and Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews of the State university.

DISGUSTED WITH HIS OLD PLUMBING

Free & Black, Phone 10491, 806 Farnam.

BOSTON STORE'S SPECIAL BARGAINS.

25c Yd for 75c and 50c Highest Grade Silk Embroidered French Flannels.

Tomorrow we place on sale thousands of remnants of the highest grade silk embroidered and plain colored French flannels that match up, so there is enough for waists or tea gowns; they all go on bargain square at 25c yard.

50c ALL SILK HOSE SUPPORTERS, 10c. Tomorrow we place on sale 1,000 dozen ladies' one all silk hose supporters, satin boots; they come in all the popular colors, actually worth 50c sale price, 10c pair.

Ladies' pure silk garters with German silver buckles, fancy stone settings, all colors put up in glass box, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.25 values, choice pair, 25c.

The new LAIGON back combs and fancy side combs, set with rhinestones a very fine assortment, over 200 styles, 50c values, 25c each.

BIG SALE OF VALENTINES. From one of the largest New York Valentine manufacturers we bought his entire stock on hand.

We will sell all the finest celluloid valentines that wholesaled as high as $2.00 for 50c each. Every one in a handsome lace trimmed box.

We will sell the fine lace, celluloid and gauze valentines that sold as high as $1.50, for 25c each.

All the $1.00 and 50c valentines at 5c and 10c. Each one in a handsome lace trimmed box.

All the valentines that generally sell up to 25c, we will sell at 1c, 2c, 3c and 5c each.

These are without question the biggest valentine bargains ever offered.

BOY'S HONOR AT STAKE

Edgar Beebe, Charged with Stealing Pigeons, Asserts His Innocence.

The honor of Edgar Beebe, a 13-year-old lad residing at 2423 St. Mary's avenue, was the principal point at issue in a case which occupied the attention of Judge Learn for several hours yesterday afternoon and dragged on late into the evening.

The case had been searched and five pigeons found there which William Edgill and his two sons asserted had been stolen from them.

The Omaha wholesaler repeating the story says he is certain that the Iowa merchant saw Pat Crowe under the circumstances described, or saw his double, as he is a man of unquestioned veracity and not of fanciful or imaginative temperament.

Lord Coleridge wrote: "Send me fifteen dozen Cook's Imperial Extra Dry Wine. I tried it while here and find it superior."

ORGANIZATION IS PERFECTED

Mrs. C. B. Allen, Jr., is Elected President of Keely Rescue League.

The Woman's Keely Rescue league met at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, at Gardner Memorial house and completed its organization.

The constitution was adopted with only such changes as are necessary in local organizations. The meetings will be the second Wednesday in each month at 10 o'clock.

The man who was "born tired" should use Frickly Ash Bitters. It makes work a necessity to give vent to the energy and liberance of spirits generated by functional activity in the system.

HOT SODA NOW!

The Hot Soda Water Season is NOW ON. Come in and get a drink of Hot Clam Bouillon, Hot Ginger Egg Nogg, Hot Dutch Cocoa, Hot Peppermint Bouillon, Hot Old Fashioned Ginger Tea, Hot Coffee Arabica, Hot Cherry Sling.

Come in and see our soda experts mix 'em—they KNOW HOW.

You can get Ice Cream Soda too (now) if you wish it.

Sherman & McConnell Drug Co

In New Store at 16th and Dodge.

UNION PACIFIC OVERLAND WORLD'S PICTORIAL LINE

Sweeping Reductions in Rates via Union Pacific Omaha to California 25 Dollars Omaha

To Ogden, Salt Lake, Ut. $23.00 To Butte and Helena, Mont. 21.00 To Portland, Oregon 28.00 To Spokane, Wash. 28.00 To Tacoma and Seattle, Wash. 28.00

Tickets to be on sale February 12, 19, 26, March 5, 12, 19, 26 April 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, 1901.

City Ticket Office 1324 Farnam Street. Telephone 316. Union Station 10th and Marcy. Tel 629

DISGUSTED WITH HIS OLD PLUMBING

Free & Black, Phone 10491, 806 Farnam.

SEES PAT CROWE IN IOWA

Story of a Carroll County Merchant Has Ring of Truth.

BANDIT HIDES IN HIS FORMER HOME

Crowe Family Used to Live Near West Side, in Chance Celler Finds Pat with Revolvers in His Belt.

Pat Crowe was in Carroll county, Iowa, two weeks ago, according to a report received in Omaha yesterday by a person who is said to be perfectly reliable.

The story was brought to the city by a merchant in a town of Carroll county who has large dealings with Omaha wholesalers and who in making the report requested that his name be suppressed if the story got to the newspapers, as he feared for his life and property, as he was known as his author.

The Omaha wholesaler repeating the story says he is certain that the Iowa merchant saw Pat Crowe under the circumstances described, or saw his double, as he is a man of unquestioned veracity and not of fanciful or imaginative temperament.

The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

Stoops by Day. The farmer further told the merchant that Crowe had been at the Mitchell house for a week or more, that he generally slept during the day while one of the family was on watch for officers and sat up during the night so that he would not be surprised.

When the farmer was asked if he had occasion to visit the home of one Mitchell, who resides two miles south of West Side, in the house I saw a man whom I immediately recognized as Pat Crowe. I had known him years ago. After I left the house I spoke to one of Mitchell's neighbors about certain things the Iowa merchant had been recognized by several persons of the neighborhood, some of whom kept their mouths shut through friendship and some through fear, as Crowe had said that if he were captured the man informing against him would be killed—if not by him, by some member of the gang.

ALL KELLEY, STIGER & CO'S SHOES.

On Sale Now at Half Price—Nearly Half or Less at Boston Store, Omaha.

At 29c, 39c, 50c, 75c, 80c, 90c, $1.25, $1.50, $1.98, $2.50 and $4.00.

ON BARGAIN SQUARES ON MAIN FLOOR. Remember that Boston Store has bought and placed on sale now every single pair of shoes and slippers and oxfords from the Kelley, Stiger & Co. stock. No one else has 1 cent's worth of their entire stock except Boston Store.

Ever since this sale started at Boston Store it has been one succession of surprises to shoe buyers.

Shoes that Kelley, Stiger & Co. sold for $5.00 and for $6.00, now go at $2.50 and $3.00. AT BOSTON STORE—NOWHERE ELSE.

Kelley, Stiger & Co.'s $4.00 ladies' oxfords are now $1.98.

All Kelley, Stiger & Co.'s $2 slippers, 98c. Shoes that Kelley, Stiger & Co. marked to sell for $3.50, $3.50 and $4.00 are now $1.98.

The boys' and youths' shoes, the children's and misses' shoes and the infants' shoes we will sell at either 1/2 price, less than half price, or nearly half price.

ON BARGAIN SQUARES IN BASEMENT. All the $2.00 ladies' shoes at 98c. Boys', youths' and little girls' enamel shoes, 98c.

Girls' shoes, 98c. Infants' 7c soft sole shoes, 25c and 30c. Men's enamel shoes, $1.50.

BOSTON STORE, OMAHA. Selling Kelley, Stiger & Co.'s entire stock of shoes at 1/2 price, nearly half price and less than half price.

J. L. Brandeis & Sons, Proprietors. Sam'l Burns, 1318 Farnam. Reduction sale on everything now going on.

USE THE TELEPHONE

When your doctor leaves you a prescription just call up 747 and we will send for it and after compounding will deliver it to you—or should you need anything in the drug line just call us up and we'll send it right out. That's what we keep a good boy for—to deliver goods promptly and save you from coming to the store.

Cramer's Kidney Cure..... 75c Dr. Karl Cramer's Puroyol Pills..... $1.00

Stemmen's Tannin Powder..... 15c Wine of Cardui..... 12c Carter's Liver Pills..... 15c Ayer's Hair Dressing..... 25c

Duffy's Malt Whisky..... 50c S. S. S..... 25c Malted Milk..... 40c

Fierce's Favorite Prescription..... 50c Doan's Pills..... 40c Uncle Sam's Tobacco..... 50c

SCHAEFER DRUGGIST & W. Cor. 16th and Chicago Sts.

HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S

Special Bargains for Thursday

Galvanized Wash Boiler..... 65c Folding Ironing Board..... 11.19

Granite No. 8 Tea Kettle..... 15c Cast No. 8 Fry Pan..... 15c

Solid Steel Frame Writter..... $1.19 10-inch Peppercorn Duster..... 15c

Large Claw Hammer..... 9c 3-piece Knife Set..... 13c

Kitchen Metal Set..... 13c 35c Coffee Mill..... 19c

10c Basting Spoons..... 3c 2 cakes S. S. Stove Polish..... 3c

GREAT CUT ON HEATING STOVES. 10c can Lye for..... 5c

Perfection, Magnetic or Celluloid Starch..... 75c Monkey Brand Soap, 2 for..... 25c

3 cans Fern Brand Condensed Milk..... 25c 3 pkgs. Self-Raising Pancake Flour..... 25c

3 pkgs. Corn Starch..... 10c 3-pound can Fancy Table Syrup..... 9c

3 bottles French Mustard..... 10c Large bottle Choice Ketchup..... 12 1/2c

Campbell's Condensed Soup..... 7 1/2c

Tea and Coffee. New Season Tea Siftings..... 20c

Java and Mocha Screenings..... 10c Whole Santos Coffee only..... 17 1/2c

Family Java and Mocha only..... 25c Best Old Govt. Java and Mocha..... 33 1/2c

Spring Leaf Sur. Dried Japan Tea..... 35c New Crop Basket Fired Japan..... 38c

Our Special English Breakfast..... 40c Fancy Young Hyson..... 48c

Meats. No. 1 California Hams..... 75c

Boneless Cottage Hams..... 10c No. 1 Small Hams..... 12c

3-pound pale best Lard..... 29c Fresh Frankfort Sausage..... 7 1/2c

New Bologna..... 5c 10-lb. pack KKKK Norway Herring..... $1.10

10-lb. pack KKK Norway Herring..... $1.00

Cheese Specials. Full Cream Cheese..... 10c

Fancy Wisconsin Yellow..... 12 1/2c Full Cream Limburger..... 10c

McLaren's Imperial..... 15c

DO YOUR FEET PER SPIRE IN WINTER? RE-NO-MAY PINK POWDER

not only relieves, but positively cures all diseases of the feet and hands. Stops odor, perspiration—cures tender and swollen feet. Endorsed and prescribed by leading physicians.

MISS A. MAYER: In reply to your note I am pleased to say that the tender and perspiring feet are things of the past.

About two or three applications of your powder relieved them entirely. I am more than glad to recommend the use of your powder to my friends.

Very respectfully, DR. E. C. HENRY.

RE-NO-MAY WHITE POWDER removes all bodily odors. If properly used no dress shields are required.

PRICE 50 CENTS Sold Everywhere.

A. MAYER CO., 316 Bee Building, Omaha, Neb. CONSULTATION FREE FROM 2 to 4. When ordering by mail add 5 cents for postage.

Men You Should See Will Be There.

The presidential inauguration at Washington will attract noted statesmen and persons you read about in the papers every day.

Take advantage of the opportunity to see them by going on low fare tickets which will be sold via Pennsylvania Short Lines to Washington, March 1, 2 and 3.

H. R. Dering, A. G. P. Agt., 248 South Clark Street, Chicago, will answer inquiries about fares and through trains.

PIANOS.

WHY DO WE SELL SO MANY PIANOS?

The Simplest Reason in the World.

After the customer has visited every store in Omaha and compared figures, our prices are always found to be the lowest. This is just as certain as the world turns around.

NEW STEINWAY-EMERSON, STEGER, STECK, VOSE, A. B. CHASE, Ivers & Pond & Packard Pianos.

Sold for Cash or on Easy Monthly Payments.

NEW PIANOS FOR RENT—$4 AND $5 A MONTH. One year's rental allowed if purchased.

Artistic tuning and repairing promptly done.

Telephone 1625. For catalogues, prices and terms write to

SCHMOLLER & MUELLER, The Old Reliable Piano House,

1312 Farnam St., Omaha, 337 Broadway, Council Bluffs.