

Miraculous Cure

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

"I had been troubled with rheumatism all my life, even when a boy. It attacked me in the legs, arms and shoulders. The pain in the latter was particularly severe. I, of course, took medicine for it, but did not obtain permanent relief. One day about three years ago while reading a newspaper, I saw an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and determined to give them a trial. I had taken three boxes of the pills when the trouble, which had been my affliction from childhood, entirely disappeared.

W. J. DALTON, Secretary Board of Trade, Weilsburg, N.Y.

All druggists or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y. Price, per bottle, $1.00; six boxes $5.00.

SHEA MURDER TRIAL BEGINS

Court Room Crowded, but Defendant is Calm and Collected.

STATE WILL CALL FORTY-ONE WITNESSES

Questions indicate that the Defense May Set Up Pleas of Justifiable Homicide—E. F. Gray is Senior Counsel for Defendant.

FREMONT, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The district court room was filled some time before court convened yesterday afternoon with crowds who came to hear the trial of the case against William Rhea, charged with the murder of Herman Zahn. The defendant was brought into court handcuffed to Deputy Sheriff Stiles. He wore a black sack suit, white shirt and high turn-over white collar and a dark blue necktie. His face was pale and he wore an anxious look. He appeared to pay no attention whatever to the crowd, taking his seat in the chair near his attorneys as uninterested as any person present. He sits most of the time erect, his thin lips closely pressed together, listening intently to the examination of the jurors, his eyes at times betraying an intense eagerness, especially when the question is asked, "Have you any conscientious scruples against the infliction of the death penalty?"

When court adjourned yesterday afternoon the regular panel of twenty-four had been exhausted and the eleven jurors then in the box had been passed for cause. L. E. Hacker and Ashley Parks were appointed bailiffs and took the jury to the Windsor hotel, where they will be kept during the trial.

German Farewell to Jury. A somewhat amusing incident happened just as court was about to adjourn. As the crowd was waiting for the jurors to pass out, no one being allowed to leave until after the jury, someone standing in the rear of the room called out with a decided German accent, "Vell, good-bye." A bailiff escorted the surprised defendant to the front of the bench, where he was reprimanded by Judge Grimsdon for contempt of court. The defendant was allowed to return to his seat, and the court proceeded with the trial.

State Witnesses Summoned. County Attorney Stinson has by leave of the court endorsed seven additional names on the information, making a total of forty-one witnesses for the state. G. G. Martin is assisting him in the trial. Some of the questions asked by Attorney Gray of the defense indicate that the defendant may set up the defense of justifiable homicide. The crowd today has been fully as large as yesterday. Snyder, Hooper, Scriber and the country being largely represented. It is quiet, only the paying close attention to the tedious repetition of questions to prospective jurors, and every eye move of the defendant, who sits in his chair apparently oblivious to the presence of the court and the spectators.

Two Old Settlers of York. YORK, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—R. S. Logan died here suddenly Sunday from grip complicated by heart trouble. He was one of York's earliest settlers, who moved to York years ago to Chase county, and had just bought property here and arranged to move back.

Francis A. Raper died at his home in York early Sunday morning after a short illness. He moved to York in 1879 from Creston, Ia. Owing to physical disabilities he served in the army for twelve years. He has been disqualified for work. He was 75 years old and leaves a wife and five children.

Andrew Moore Held in Bonds. FAIRBURY, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—Andrew Moore, a grain buyer at Reynolds, charged with attempted assault on Nettie Thornton, who was working in his household, had his preliminary examination yesterday and was held in $500 bonds to answer at the next term of district court.

No Wish to Prosecute. BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—William Hurn signed an affidavit and it was filed with the court yesterday, stating that he feels himself to blame for Dr. W. F. Lee's shooting him and desires that no case against Dr. Lee be dismissed.

FUNERAL OF JUDGE MAXWELL

Services at Fremont, Then Body Will Be Taken to Plattsmouth for Burial.

FREMONT, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The funeral of Judge Maxwell will probably be Thursday or Friday and at his request his body will be taken to Plattsmouth for burial. His daughter, Mrs. Ferguson, who was in California, was notified of her father's death and at once boarded a train for the east. His son, Jacob A. Maxwell, was also notified and is on his way here. His daughter, Mrs. Ferguson, who was in California, was notified of her father's death and at once boarded a train for the east. His son, Jacob A. Maxwell, was also notified and is on his way here.

MURDER TRIAL AT BROKEN BOW IS WELL UNDER WAY

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The jury in the Fullhart murder case was secured today. The jurors are: G. T. Robinson, Broken Bow; W. P. True, Georgetown; Godfrey Nonsel, Calloway; L. D. Gilie, Genet; Jason Evans, Sargent; W. P. Mauk, Berwyn; George Cox, Cliff; James Cosner, Broken Bow; J. L. King, Ryno; J. S. May, Calloway; S. P. Young, Lincoln. Wesley Richardson testified he was one of the two parties who found the body of Fullhart near where he had been building wire fence, three-fourths of a mile east of his house, with his skull crushed and traced in several places from the effects of a blow received from some blunt instrument. The witness had gone to the Fullhart place with William Groat, a ranchman, who had taken up thirteen head of Fullhart's horses for trespass on his hay. They found the doors closed and fastened with a rope. On the door was written: "Half mile east, building fence; come out."

They found the body near a sled, on which were three coils of wire. A hammer, a wire stretcher, a keg of staples and his little dog were near by. One side of the face was covered with blood and blood was found on the tugs of harness in the sled at the house. The tugs had evidently been taken from the horse that drew the sled to the point where they had been left.

John Bales, a young man working for Murphy, a ranchman near, corroborated the evidence relative to the condition of the body, and described minutely the features of Fullhart, especially a large 44-caliber Colt's revolver of cap and bullet make, which the state will try to prove was used to strike the fatal blow in the hands of Coley.

Dr. R. C. Talbot and Dr. Clinton Day, who made post-mortem examinations of the body, occupied the remainder of the afternoon, giving testimony resulting from their examination.

The state agent, H. L. Ormsby, of the B. & M. railroad, who keeps a record of the weather, was put on the stand to show the temperature eight days prior to the finding of the body, to prove that Fullhart might have been dead two weeks without decomposition setting in, owing to the low temperature. Only six witnesses were examined. The state has subpoenaed sixty witnesses and the defense forty-eight. If all are put on the stand the trial will last the remainder of the week. Interest in the trial is great and the court room is overcrowded.

At a meeting of the State Military Board this afternoon orders were given for an election on February 12, 1901, in the office of brigadier general, in Nebraska National Guard, and to determine upon a successor to Colonel Kilian of the Second regiment, the latter having resigned to accept the appointment of adjutant general. A board of officers, consisting of Captain Stockham and Lieutenants Rollin and Ludwig, was appointed to canvass votes for both officers at 4 o'clock p. m. on the day named for the election.

At a meeting of the State Military Board this afternoon orders were given for an election on February 12, 1901, in the office of brigadier general, in Nebraska National Guard, and to determine upon a successor to Colonel Kilian of the Second regiment, the latter having resigned to accept the appointment of adjutant general. A board of officers, consisting of Captain Stockham and Lieutenants Rollin and Ludwig, was appointed to canvass votes for both officers at 4 o'clock p. m. on the day named for the election.

MOTIVE BACK OF THE BILLS

House Committee Looks Into the Alleged Holdup Measures.

MUCH TESTIMONY TAKEN IN SECRET

Inquiry Held Behind Closed Doors and Parties Examined Have Little to Say After They Have Given Their Evidence.

LINCOLN, Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The house committee appointed to investigate supposed holdup bills was in session this afternoon listening to the testimony of President C. E. Yost of the Nebraska Telephone company and Representative Lane of Lancaster county. The bill under consideration was the one introduced last week by Representative Thomsen, at the request of F. W. Barber. It seeks to authorize the authorities of villages, towns and cities to fix and regulate telephone rates within their jurisdiction.

Mr. Yost was closeted with the committee for over two hours. Chairman Fowler refused to disclose the nature of his testimony, but said that the result of the committee's investigation might be made public in a few days.

F. W. Barber, the supposed author of the bill, was questioned by the committee in the presence of Mr. Yost concerning his motive for requesting its introduction. It is asserted that he made a vigorous defense of his position, denying that he had been actuated by any ulterior motive.

Robert C. Dredowad was before the committee again in connection with the liquor bills given to Representative Thomsen. He insisted in his testimony that he had given the member only one bill instead of two, as charged, and that one had been drawn up by a reputable citizen of Lincoln. After the meeting Dredowad said that on a cross-examination Mr. Thomsen had admitted that he was mistaken as to the author of the bill.

The committee adjourned to meet at call of chairman. Proposed Congressional Districts. The congressional redistricting bill introduced in the senate today by Senator Young of Stanton is one which has been carefully prepared and is considered to be a very fair one. It divides the state into six districts which will be republican if based upon the vote cast last fall, while the Fifth as made up has a fusion plurality. The bill makes radical changes in all the present districts, not a single county of the old Fifth being in the new Fifth. Cass county is taken from the First district and Seward and York substituted. Cass is placed in the Second with Douglas and Sarpy. Washington, at present in the Second, is placed in the Third in place of DeWitt and Union. Platt, Saunders and Merrick, from the Fourth, Saunders, Butler, Seward, York, Polk and Hamilton are taken, the new additions to this district being Clay, Nuckolls, Adams, Webster, Kearney, Franklin and Hart. The Fifth is made up entirely of new counties and the Sixth has many new counties to replace those taken from it to make up the new Fifth.

The districts are arranged as follows, the population according to the last census and the political complexion according to the vote cast for presidential candidates last fall: First—Lancaster, Otoe, Johnson, Nemaha, Pawnee, Richardson, Seward, York, Poplarville, DeWitt, Kearney, Franklin and Hart. Second—Douglas, Sarpy, Cass, Polk, Platte, Hamilton, Washington, DeWitt, Union, York and Seward. Third—Butte, Washington, Union, Stanton, Madison, Pierce, Wayne, Thurston, Boone, Population, 189,670; republican majority, 123. Fourth—Grant, Jefferson, Fillmore, Thayer, Clay, Nuckolls, Adams, Webster, Kearney, Franklin and Hart. Population, 175,770; republican majority, 188. Fifth—Saunders, Butler, Polk, Colfax, Platte, Holt, Boyd, Kearney, DeWitt, Union, Hart, Howard, Sherman, Greeley, Valley, Garfield, Wheeler. Population, 178,740; fusion majority, 887. Sixth—Brown, Rock, Keya Paha, Cherry, Sheridan, Dawes, Kimball, Box Butte, Banner, Scotts Bluff, Lincoln, Lincoln, Grant, Hooker, Thomas, Blaine, Loup, McPherson, Arthur, Lincoln, Lincoln, Custer, Dawson, Buffalo, Phelps, Gosper, Furnas, Frontier, Red Willow, Hayes, Hitchcock, Dundy and Perkins. Population, 179,889; republican majority, 249.

New Form of Ballot. Among the bills recommended for passage by the senate today was one introduced by Senator Edgar, which would make radical changes in the form of the official ballot to be voted at elections. By the provisions of the bill the form of the ballot is changed back to the old form or similar thereto, the names of the different candidates being printed in separate columns, and not one below the other, as on the ballot now in use. The party having polled the largest number of votes at the preceding general election is entitled to the first, or left-hand column, and on, and no name can be printed on the ballot in more than one place. Should a candidate be nominated by two or more parties he has the privilege of designating under which party he wishes to run. The committee, however, concluded that the judges should not be deprived of this right and voted to recommend the bill for indefinite postponement.

Nebraska and Nebraskans. Franklin is contemplating the luxury of a local telephone exchange. The young men of the city are organizing a Young Men's Christian association in McCook. Long Pine expects to have telephone connection with the outside world during the coming summer. Four hundred tons of alfalfa hay were sold in one lot from the Cody ranch near North Platte recently. Falls City launches that while it has a fire department which is willing it is not properly equipped to fight fires. Joseph Alver has purchased a 75-acre farm near Albia, of which 50 acres are in alfalfa. He paid $12,200 for the farm. The Atlas bank of Neligh has increased its capital stock and is now a national bank and has just opened for business in the town. Ravenna is another of the Nebraska towns which expects to have local telephone exchange during the coming year. The work on the Gering irrigation ditch is progressing favorably and it is expected water will be turned in by the middle of April. Sergeant J. A. Taylor, retired, of the regular army, died recently at Crawford and was buried at Fort Robinson with military honors. The Osmond Republican believes in expansion and practices what it preaches. It is now a reader of a larger paper than they bargained for. The Loup Valley Times of Logan is one of the new candidates for journals and not yours at gandy. That country expects a big boom with the prospective advent of a new city. Representative Murray of Thurston county has introduced into the legislature a bill which compels wheelmen when they meet a team to dismount and get out of the road. The threshing machine men of Fillmore county have formed an organization for mutual protection and benefit, but the members insist they have no intention of raising prices. Sheriff Armstrong of Custer county has been advised by the state attorney, and when they have grown up will be prepared to track criminals in the most approved fashion. Hartington is one of the Nebraska towns which expects to make a good growth during the coming season. At least fifteen new dwelling houses are now under contract for this year. In several places in the state complaint is made that parties are buying up hogs which have died from cholera and hauling them to some place where they are endangering the swine of other parties. The law provides that if the hogs are not buried or burned on the farm where they died. Harrison Wilson, who carries the mail on Sundays from the main line of the Burlington to Beaver City, balked on making his regular trip Sunday morning. He has been a mail carrier twenty-five years and this is the second time in his experience that he has stopped for bad weather. R. B. Hodge, a Boyd county farmer, damaged an army of young hogs some of his cattle, which were running in a stalk field, before any damage was done. He has a pet dog to thank for the discovery. The poison was put in grease and rubbed on the corn stalks and the hogs, while they stalked into the field, got the grease on their faces and the dog sniffed at the grease.

The Union Pacific company has abandoned its old depot at Kearney and now occupies a new building. The old building was a landmark in the town and has witnessed some stirring scenes. At one time before branch roads were built through that part of the state, freight and express for hundreds of miles in every direction was handled in the depot, and much of that for the Black Hills was shipped from the depot. The depot is far up in the railroad and business there have been employed in the old depot in times past.

Acquitted of Forgery. OSCEOLA, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—District court has ceased for this county until April 30. It has been a long term and two cases took up more of the time of court than all the rest. The last one and the only criminal case was the State of Nebraska against Charles R. Harris. Mr. Harris was charged with forgery, but the jury after listening to the testimony, the lawyers and the judge for three days concluded that Mr. Harris was not guilty.

NOTORIETY HIS ONLY OBJECT Lincoln Man Lays Bare the Secret Heart Yearnings of One Walter Mason.

LINCOLN, Feb. 12.—(To the Editor of the Bee.)—Walt Mason says that one way a small man can gain notoriety is by ripping a large one up the back. Walt says a good many of his acquaintances are ambitious and a good many that republicans, who are proud to have him classed among us, would rather he would not say. Mason has a hard time digging up enough from his old "think tank" to supply the funds necessary to keep him in the news of his family, and he assumes the role of a pessimist and rips large men up the back—and makes himself notorious every time he does it.

His attacks on Hon. E. Rosewater add to his notoriety, but people are weary of Walt Mason's "Tales" and columns of "Household Hints." His remarks are absurd and all short of being the sentiments of those for whom he poses as a mouthpiece. It has been my fortune to be around a little over this old state of ours—perhaps I may say I have seen more of it recently than Brother Mason—and I can't see a single republican, not even from our "lower," who says amen to Walt Mason's brags. Mason now thinks that if the legislature would quit fooling and elect D. E. Thompson to the senate, or anybody but Rosewater, it would give general satisfaction. Mason is the only man in the state who would express a wild opinion—and when he says "general satisfaction" the absurdity becomes stupendous. With a little right to express the "general" opinion as Brother Mason, allow me to say that if you are a republican, you are the other evening several "old line" republicans—the good old gang who supported Thomas Majors in days gone by, the henchmen who brought the republican party into disrepute in the state, the old "ring" boys of the Fifth district, in canning their time. These fellows are constitutionally opposed to Rosewater, but agreed to support him in the long run, rather than D. E. Thompson.

WOODMEN IN STATE CAMP

Biennial Session is to Be Held in Kearney This Morning.

LOG ROLLING FOR ELECTION OF OFFICERS

W. H. Thompson, "Little Giant" of Grand Island, is slated for Delegate to National Camp.

KEARNEY, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The biennial session of the state camp, Modern Woodmen of America, will be in this city tomorrow. The night trains last night and all of the trains during the day have been bringing in the delegates, who have headquarters at the Midway hotel, and log-rolling has been the order of the day in shaping up things for the election of officers and the general business tomorrow. The sessions will be held in the opera house, and tomorrow evening the delegates will be the guests of the city, with "Uncle Rastus," a colored musical farce comedy specialty, as the attraction. Among the notables present is W. H. Thompson, the "Little Giant" of Grand Island, who appears to be slated for delegate-at-large to the national camp at St. Paul next June. There are no indications of friction over the election of officers and nothing spectacular or sensational in the proceedings is anticipated.

Wanted for Poultry Theft. BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The police chased alleged poultry thieves several miles today, but lost them. The fugitives posed as medicine men. They sold thirty fowls, stolen from W. M. Hall of Oiler. They were known as Frank and John Edgings and are about 30 years old. They drove a team of black ponies, with tails docked.

Court Convened at David City. DAVID CITY, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—The February term of district court convened here today, Judge B. F. Good presiding. There are no criminal cases for trial at this term and the equity cases will be tried this week. The jury has been summoned to appear February 19. The docket is light, there being only thirty-seven cases.

Armour & Co. are Building at York. YORK, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—Armour & Co. are building a new two-story poultry and egg house on the Burlington right of way just north of York. The building will be 26x100 feet and is to be completed by March 15.

Rains Wins Pigeon Match. BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—Tuck Rains of Beatrice defeated George Nicolai of Minden in a live pigeon match today. Rains killed eighty-two birds and Nicolai eighty-one out of ninety-two.

People can tolerate a good bit of "hot air" before they get tired, but Walt Mason is the poorest newspaper man in Nebraska. He can go on all he pleases about people and things away over the ocean wave, but when he makes funny remarks about people he knows it is time for him to "chew it." He can call King Edward an ass or a clam that is tight—we don't know Edward; he can kick about the fellow the queen of Holland has espoused, we don't know him; but if he isn't a better man than the hot air he blows, he is a poor newspaper man. But if Walt labors under the impression that we don't know Edward Rosewater, that he can assail his integrity as a citizen, he is a poor newspaper man. He is a poor newspaper man. He is a poor newspaper man.

Business Change at Sargent. SARGENT, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—R. J. Mitchell of Burwell, Neb., has bought the R. W. Sullivan stock of general merchandise and will move his stock of goods from Burwell here and continue the business.

Nebraska and Nebraskans. Franklin is contemplating the luxury of a local telephone exchange. The young men of the city are organizing a Young Men's Christian association in McCook. Long Pine expects to have telephone connection with the outside world during the coming summer. Four hundred tons of alfalfa hay were sold in one lot from the Cody ranch near North Platte recently. Falls City launches that while it has a fire department which is willing it is not properly equipped to fight fires. Joseph Alver has purchased a 75-acre farm near Albia, of which 50 acres are in alfalfa. He paid $12,200 for the farm. The Atlas bank of Neligh has increased its capital stock and is now a national bank and has just opened for business in the town. Ravenna is another of the Nebraska towns which expects to have local telephone exchange during the coming year. The work on the Gering irrigation ditch is progressing favorably and it is expected water will be turned in by the middle of April. Sergeant J. A. Taylor, retired, of the regular army, died recently at Crawford and was buried at Fort Robinson with military honors. The Osmond Republican believes in expansion and practices what it preaches. It is now a reader of a larger paper than they bargained for. The Loup Valley Times of Logan is one of the new candidates for journals and not yours at gandy. That country expects a big boom with the prospective advent of a new city. Representative Murray of Thurston county has introduced into the legislature a bill which compels wheelmen when they meet a team to dismount and get out of the road. The threshing machine men of Fillmore county have formed an organization for mutual protection and benefit, but the members insist they have no intention of raising prices. Sheriff Armstrong of Custer county has been advised by the state attorney, and when they have grown up will be prepared to track criminals in the most approved fashion. Hartington is one of the Nebraska towns which expects to make a good growth during the coming season. At least fifteen new dwelling houses are now under contract for this year. In several places in the state complaint is made that parties are buying up hogs which have died from cholera and hauling them to some place where they are endangering the swine of other parties. The law provides that if the hogs are not buried or burned on the farm where they died.

Harrison Wilson, who carries the mail on Sundays from the main line of the Burlington to Beaver City, balked on making his regular trip Sunday morning. He has been a mail carrier twenty-five years and this is the second time in his experience that he has stopped for bad weather. R. B. Hodge, a Boyd county farmer, damaged an army of young hogs some of his cattle, which were running in a stalk field, before any damage was done. He has a pet dog to thank for the discovery. The poison was put in grease and rubbed on the corn stalks and the hogs, while they stalked into the field, got the grease on their faces and the dog sniffed at the grease.

The Union Pacific company has abandoned its old depot at Kearney and now occupies a new building. The old building was a landmark in the town and has witnessed some stirring scenes. At one time before branch roads were built through that part of the state, freight and express for hundreds of miles in every direction was handled in the depot, and much of that for the Black Hills was shipped from the depot. The depot is far up in the railroad and business there have been employed in the old depot in times past.

Acquitted of Forgery. OSCEOLA, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—District court has ceased for this county until April 30. It has been a long term and two cases took up more of the time of court than all the rest. The last one and the only criminal case was the State of Nebraska against Charles R. Harris. Mr. Harris was charged with forgery, but the jury after listening to the testimony, the lawyers and the judge for three days concluded that Mr. Harris was not guilty.

NOTORIETY HIS ONLY OBJECT Lincoln Man Lays Bare the Secret Heart Yearnings of One Walter Mason.

LINCOLN, Feb. 12.—(To the Editor of the Bee.)—Walt Mason says that one way a small man can gain notoriety is by ripping a large one up the back. Walt says a good many of his acquaintances are ambitious and a good many that republicans, who are proud to have him classed among us, would rather he would not say. Mason has a hard time digging up enough from his old "think tank" to supply the funds necessary to keep him in the news of his family, and he assumes the role of a pessimist and rips large men up the back—and makes himself notorious every time he does it.

His attacks on Hon. E. Rosewater add to his notoriety, but people are weary of Walt Mason's "Tales" and columns of "Household Hints." His remarks are absurd and all short of being the sentiments of those for whom he poses as a mouthpiece. It has been my fortune to be around a little over this old state of ours—perhaps I may say I have seen more of it recently than Brother Mason—and I can't see a single republican, not even from our "lower," who says amen to Walt Mason's brags. Mason now thinks that if the legislature would quit fooling and elect D. E. Thompson to the senate, or anybody but Rosewater, it would give general satisfaction. Mason is the only man in the state who would express a wild opinion—and when he says "general satisfaction" the absurdity becomes stupendous. With a little right to express the "general" opinion as Brother Mason, allow me to say that if you are a republican, you are the other evening several "old line" republicans—the good old gang who supported Thomas Majors in days gone by, the henchmen who brought the republican party into disrepute in the state, the old "ring" boys of the Fifth district, in canning their time. These fellows are constitutionally opposed to Rosewater, but agreed to support him in the long run, rather than D. E. Thompson.

WOODMEN IN STATE CAMP

Biennial Session is to Be Held in Kearney This Morning.

LOG ROLLING FOR ELECTION OF OFFICERS

W. H. Thompson, "Little Giant" of Grand Island, is slated for Delegate to National Camp.

KEARNEY, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The biennial session of the state camp, Modern Woodmen of America, will be in this city tomorrow. The night trains last night and all of the trains during the day have been bringing in the delegates, who have headquarters at the Midway hotel, and log-rolling has been the order of the day in shaping up things for the election of officers and the general business tomorrow. The sessions will be held in the opera house, and tomorrow evening the delegates will be the guests of the city, with "Uncle Rastus," a colored musical farce comedy specialty, as the attraction. Among the notables present is W. H. Thompson, the "Little Giant" of Grand Island, who appears to be slated for delegate-at-large to the national camp at St. Paul next June. There are no indications of friction over the election of officers and nothing spectacular or sensational in the proceedings is anticipated.

Wanted for Poultry Theft. BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The police chased alleged poultry thieves several miles today, but lost them. The fugitives posed as medicine men. They sold thirty fowls, stolen from W. M. Hall of Oiler. They were known as Frank and John Edgings and are about 30 years old. They drove a team of black ponies, with tails docked.

Court Convened at David City. DAVID CITY, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—The February term of district court convened here today, Judge B. F. Good presiding. There are no criminal cases for trial at this term and the equity cases will be tried this week. The jury has been summoned to appear February 19. The docket is light, there being only thirty-seven cases.

Armour & Co. are Building at York. YORK, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—Armour & Co. are building a new two-story poultry and egg house on the Burlington right of way just north of York. The building will be 26x100 feet and is to be completed by March 15.

Rains Wins Pigeon Match. BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—Tuck Rains of Beatrice defeated George Nicolai of Minden in a live pigeon match today. Rains killed eighty-two birds and Nicolai eighty-one out of ninety-two.

People can tolerate a good bit of "hot air" before they get tired, but Walt Mason is the poorest newspaper man in Nebraska. He can go on all he pleases about people and things away over the ocean wave, but when he makes funny remarks about people he knows it is time for him to "chew it." He can call King Edward an ass or a clam that is tight—we don't know Edward; he can kick about the fellow the queen of Holland has espoused, we don't know him; but if he isn't a better man than the hot air he blows, he is a poor newspaper man. But if Walt labors under the impression that we don't know Edward Rosewater, that he can assail his integrity as a citizen, he is a poor newspaper man. He is a poor newspaper man. He is a poor newspaper man.

Business Change at Sargent. SARGENT, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—R. J. Mitchell of Burwell, Neb., has bought the R. W. Sullivan stock of general merchandise and will move his stock of goods from Burwell here and continue the business.

Nebraska and Nebraskans. Franklin is contemplating the luxury of a local telephone exchange. The young men of the city are organizing a Young Men's Christian association in McCook. Long Pine expects to have telephone connection with the outside world during the coming summer. Four hundred tons of alfalfa hay were sold in one lot from the Cody ranch near North Platte recently. Falls City launches that while it has a fire department which is willing it is not properly equipped to fight fires. Joseph Alver has purchased a 75-acre farm near Albia, of which 50 acres are in alfalfa. He paid $12,200 for the farm. The Atlas bank of Neligh has increased its capital stock and is now a national bank and has just opened for business in the town. Ravenna is another of the Nebraska towns which expects to have local telephone exchange during the coming year. The work on the Gering irrigation ditch is progressing favorably and it is expected water will be turned in by the middle of April. Sergeant J. A. Taylor, retired, of the regular army, died recently at Crawford and was buried at Fort Robinson with military honors. The Osmond Republican believes in expansion and practices what it preaches. It is now a reader of a larger paper than they bargained for. The Loup Valley Times of Logan is one of the new candidates for journals and not yours at gandy. That country expects a big boom with the prospective advent of a new city. Representative Murray of Thurston county has introduced into the legislature a bill which compels wheelmen when they meet a team to dismount and get out of the road. The threshing machine men of Fillmore county have formed an organization for mutual protection and benefit, but the members insist they have no intention of raising prices. Sheriff Armstrong of Custer county has been advised by the state attorney, and when they have grown up will be prepared to track criminals in the most approved fashion. Hartington is one of the Nebraska towns which expects to make a good growth during the coming season. At least fifteen new dwelling houses are now under contract for this year. In several places in the state complaint is made that parties are buying up hogs which have died from cholera and hauling them to some place where they are endangering the swine of other parties. The law provides that if the hogs are not buried or burned on the farm where they died.

Harrison Wilson, who carries the mail on Sundays from the main line of the Burlington to Beaver City, balked on making his regular trip Sunday morning. He has been a mail carrier twenty-five years and this is the second time in his experience that he has stopped for bad weather. R. B. Hodge, a Boyd county farmer, damaged an army of young hogs some of his cattle, which were running in a stalk field, before any damage was done. He has a pet dog to thank for the discovery. The poison was put in grease and rubbed on the corn stalks and the hogs, while they stalked into the field, got the grease on their faces and the dog sniffed at the grease.

The Union Pacific company has abandoned its old depot at Kearney and now occupies a new building. The old building was a landmark in the town and has witnessed some stirring scenes. At one time before branch roads were built through that part of the state, freight and express for hundreds of miles in every direction was handled in the depot, and much of that for the Black Hills was shipped from the depot. The depot is far up in the railroad and business there have been employed in the old depot in times past.

Acquitted of Forgery. OSCEOLA, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—District court has ceased for this county until April 30. It has been a long term and two cases took up more of the time of court than all the rest. The last one and the only criminal case was the State of Nebraska against Charles R. Harris. Mr. Harris was charged with forgery, but the jury after listening to the testimony, the lawyers and the judge for three days concluded that Mr. Harris was not guilty.

NOTORIETY HIS ONLY OBJECT Lincoln Man Lays Bare the Secret Heart Yearnings of One Walter Mason.

LINCOLN, Feb. 12.—(To the Editor of the Bee.)—Walt Mason says that one way a small man can gain notoriety is by ripping a large one up the back. Walt says a good many of his acquaintances are ambitious and a good many that republicans, who are proud to have him classed among us, would rather he would not say. Mason has a hard time digging up enough from his old "think tank" to supply the funds necessary to keep him in the news of his family, and he assumes the role of a pessimist and rips large men up the back—and makes himself notorious every time he does it.

His attacks on Hon. E. Rosewater add to his notoriety, but people are weary of Walt Mason's "Tales" and columns of "Household Hints." His remarks are absurd and all short of being the sentiments of those for whom he poses as a mouthpiece. It has been my fortune to be around a little over this old state of ours—perhaps I may say I have seen more of it recently than Brother Mason—and I can't see a single republican, not even from our "lower," who says amen to Walt Mason's brags. Mason now thinks that if the legislature would quit fooling and elect D. E. Thompson to the senate, or anybody but Rosewater, it would give general satisfaction. Mason is the only man in the state who would express a wild opinion—and when he says "general satisfaction" the absurdity becomes stupendous. With a little right to express the "general" opinion as Brother Mason, allow me to say that if you are a republican, you are the other evening several "old line" republicans—the good old gang who supported Thomas Majors in days gone by, the henchmen who brought the republican party into disrepute in the state, the old "ring" boys of the Fifth district, in canning their time. These fellows are constitutionally opposed to Rosewater, but agreed to support him in the long run, rather than D. E. Thompson.

PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro, Ga., and Its Pastor and Elder.

THE day when men of prominence hesitated to give their testimonials to proprietary medicines for publication. This remains true today of most proprietary medicines. But Peru-na has become so justly famous, its merits are known to so many people of high and low stations, that no one hesitates to see his name in print recommending Peru-na.

The highest men in our nation have given Peru-na a strong endorsement. Men representing all classes and stations are equally represented. A dignified representative of the Presbyterian church in the person of Rev. E. G. Smith does not hesitate to state publicly that he has used Peru-na in his family and found it cured when other remedies failed. In this statement the Rev. Smith is supported by an elder in his church.

Rev. E. G. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Greensboro, Ga., writes: "Having used Peru-na in my family for some time it gives me pleasure to testify to its true worth. My little boy seven years of age had been suffering for some time with catarrh of the lower bowels. Other remedies had failed, but after taking two bottles of Peru-na the trouble almost entirely disappeared. For this special malady I consider it well nigh a specific. As a tonic for weak and worn out people it has few or no equals."—Rev. E. G. Smith. Mr. M. J. Rossmann, a prominent merchant of Greensboro, Ga., and an elder in the Presbyterian church of that place, has used Peru-na, and in a recent letter to the Peru-na Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, writes as follows:

"For a long time I was troubled with catarrh of the kidneys and tried many remedies, all of which gave me no relief. Peru-na was recommended to me by several friends, and after using a few bottles I am pleased to say that the long looked for relief was found and I am now enjoying better health than I have for years, and can heartily recommend Peru-na to all similarly afflicted. It is certainly a grand medicine."—M. J. Rossmann. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

RE-NO-MAY TRADE