PATROLMAN ROONEY CAUSES SENSATION

Quotes the Prisoner as Having Confessed the Killing of Leonard Day-Others Give Their Contributions.

MINNNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 12.-The prosecution in the Hamilton murder case rested today after introducing the sensational testimony of Officer Thomas J. Rooney, who testified as follows:

When I entered the billiard room that morning Watchman O'Malley said to me: Officer, take this man and lock him up; he did it.' I said 'Did what?' 'Did this,' he replied, leading me to where Day's dead oody lay on a billiard table. I took hold of Hamilton's coat sleeve and told him to come along. He was sitting in a chair in the bar room. Someone suggested delay, but Hamilton got up and said: 'I will go with you; let the law take its course. I'll take the consequences. I did it in self de-

Rooney then repeated Hamilton's confession to him as follows:

"Hamilton said to me: "This trouble is with her, I told her Day was in ill health, She told him. He got sore and has had it in for me ever since. Feel of this lump-Day did that I had to do him. I could nothing.

"Afterward he said: "This is terrible; I wish it had been the other way. "What other way" I asked.

'After a while Mr. Francis came; wanted to talk with Hamilton. I said that he might, but that it must be in my presence. Francis said: 'Keep your mouth shut. Don't say a word till you see me again. Let me see your knife.' Hamilton produced a small knife. Francis asked him if he had another knife. He said 'No.' Then Francis asked: 'Did you have a large knife?' and Hamilton answered 'Yes.' Nothing was said about when he had the large knife or where it was."

TRACK OWNERS ARE AT WAR

Six Associations Omitted from New Club's Dates Grow Belligerent.

Inform the New Organization's Promoters that Their Authority Will Unrecognized and Their Dates Unconsidered.

CINCINNATI. Feb. 12 .- A declaration of war was declared here today by the owners of six tracks against the new Western Jockey club. The six racing associations which were not allotted dates when the new jockey club was organized in Chicago held a meeting here today and reorganized the old American turf congress, perfecting their plans for the circuit during the coming season and allotting the dates. The contest now will be for recognition by the Eastern Jockey club.

The reorganized American turf congress feels confident that Belmont and others in New York will recognize them as against the Western Jockey club. There are eight members in the latter as compared with six members in the former.
