CLAIM OVERRULED BY CITY COUNCIL

Point is Raised That Steadman Disposes of a Bit of Land for Express Purpose of Evading the Tax.

J. J. Steadman and F. C. Glass, who filed protests against the assessments for the paving on Broadway between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, have gone into court with petitions asking that the assessment be set aside as void and illegal. The property involved consists of four lots in Rohrer's a water tank. The trial resulted in his subdivision, lying immediately west of Twelfth street on the south side of Broadway. The case is of more than ordinary interest, as the protests filed by Steadman and Glass were overruled by the city council on the grounds, as alleged, that Steadman | had disposed of a small portion of the four Mrs. A. For Instance

You may know something of the "grip"-may have felt all its miseries, experienced the weakness and had a mouth full of bad taste, yet you know nothing of the history of the disease. Now gives some interesting facts concerning the grip and it's about the only book that does.

Fact is there are mighty few things that have escaped the editors of that work. If interested, call and see a copy. Take one home for $7.00.
