OLD LEE-GLASS-ANDREESEN BUILDING

G. M. Nattinger Opens Contribution Bureau in Bee Building Free of Charge-General Outlook is Particularly Bright.

At the meeting of the auditorium committee yesterday afternoon it was informally decided to secure the building recently vacated by the Lee-Glass-Andreeson Hardware company for the industrial exposition, but the matter was referred to the promotion committee for formal ratification. The various committees reported the collection of $2,755 since the last report, the sums ranging in amount from $500 to $5. In addition to this amount one of the members of the committee reported the collection of $100 which was not taken into con sideration until he is ready to make a final report

G. M. Nattinger announced that he would, without expense to the committee, open an office in The Bee building at the office of the Omaha Building and Loan association for the collection of all auditorium subscriptions. His offer was accepted.

Bedroom Suite Donated. Among the goods donated to the committee through the exposition enterprise this morning was a full bedroom suite and a quantity of other furniture, by an eastern manufacturer. Another house contributed a quantity of rugs, and a third house a lot of novelties of various kinds. The exhibition committee has under advisement a plan for increasing the exhibits of Joual houses. By this plan the local house will not be required to donate to the committee all of the goods displayed, but will be permitted to commute the same by paying a cash consideration, to be agreed upon between the committee and the exhibitor. Under this plan it is believed that the exhibition will be made more interesting and permit the local houses to take space
