If the men agree to fight on the coast Mr. Mooser says the club will post $5,000 in clush as a guaranty to pull off the fight without the least opposition and will allow the new to fight under the same conditions that were to have governed their bout tonight in Cincinnati. It is the plan of the San Fran-cisco Athletic club, if it lands the fight, to have it decided in open air in a big base ball park. In the heart of the clut, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. The seat-ing capacity of the park is 20,000. Of course pictures will be taken. The officials of the club have not decided on a date on which to hold the battle, but would prefer May 1. This is Dewey day and a big crowd is expected in town on the holiday. If the fighters, being in first-class condition at this time, desire to fight on an earlier date the club can accommodate them, Mr. Mooser says.
