ENGLISH TAX STATISTICS

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Replying in the House of Commons today to Sir Howard Vickers (conservative), Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the chancellor of the exchequer, said that for the year ending March 31, 1900, direct taxation contributed 48.4 per cent and indirect taxation 51.6 per cent of the public revenues. He was unable to give the figures of foreign countries and pointed out that in the case of countries like the United States and Germany a comparison was apt to be misleading.
