

ONE SEAT VACANT

Reasons for a Change in Formula Announcing Joint Session Ballot.

NO DANGER OF MINORITY WINNING OUT

Rules Governing the Vote Will Prevent Election by Fusionists.

REPUBLICANS TO TAKE UNITED ACTION

Confer as to Pending Legislation for the Purpose of Harmony.

COMPLICATIONS IN PENITENTIARY MATTER

Move to Secure the Reconstruction of the Old Building and Doubt as to the Advisability of Training Convicts Abroad.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Ballots. Lists names like Allen, Crouse, Dues, etc., with corresponding ballot counts.

LINCOLN, March 4.—(Special Telegram.)

For the ballot for United States senator taken in joint session today Nebraska was without its full representation in the upper branch of congress, the term of Senator Thurston having expired by limitation an hour before the clock.

NO SECRET CONCESSIONS

Germany Believes Grants of Land in China Should Be Openly Made.

BERLIN, March 4.—Ambassador White has had conferences with the German foreign office during the last week. The correspondence of the Associated Press indicates that the conferences are due to fuller and more definite instructions, just received by Mr. White from Washington, concerning the threatened land grabbing in China.

MARCHING ON FAURESMITH

Dewey Moves Toward Philippines, but is Headed Off by British Troops.

LONDON, March 4.—A dispatch from General Kitchener dated Friday, March 2, says: "Dewey was moving on Philippolis, but was headed off by our troops and is now marching toward Batangas. The British troops are in the position of a wedge between the two forces."

CHINESE EMPEROR TO RETURN

Will Come Back to Peking at the End of the Month.

LONDON, March 4.—The Peking Gazette, telegraphing March 3, says: "The emperor will return to Peking at the end of the month. A bodyguard is already assembling at Shan Su. The foreign ministers have demanded the death of twelve additional high officials and the punishment of thirty provincial mandarins. Stralupok has broken out among the allied troops."

CHINA APPEALS TO POWERS

Is Alarmed by Russia's Withdrawal of Part of Their Agreement.

PEKING, March 4.—Russia has withdrawn a portion of the Russo-Chinese agreement regarding Manchuria and China has appealed to the powers in the matter. The empire dowager, it is reported, expresses reluctance to return to Peking.

NATION CRUSADERS WARNED

Mayor of Arkansas City Issues a Proclamation Demanding That They Drop Proceedings.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., March 4.—Mayor Heas has issued a proclamation warning members of the Carrie Nation Law and Order League to drop proceedings against anyone who violates the law and says that anyone who forms a part of a mob will be arrested and punished accordingly. The league has raised money to try cases against persons charged with selling liquor. Today a standing reward was offered for the arrest and conviction of any bootlegger, distiller, bartender, druggist or other person who shall sell or give away intoxicating liquors contrary to law.

BODIES OUT, WORK TO BEGIN

Last of the Twenty-Eight Miners Taken from the Diamondville Drift.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 4.—The bodies of all the miners who perished in the fire at Diamondville mine have been recovered. The twenty-eight and last being taken up today. The fire is out and mining operations will be resumed in a few days.

DEMOLISHES LORD WOLSELEY

Landowes's Harsh Also Smite Roberts with Wounds Whose Scars Will Last.

ROBERTS, W. J. Press Publishing Co. LONDON, 4, Tottenham Court Road, Oct. 1900. The following is a copy of the speech of Lord Landowes, made at the trial of Lord Roberts, on the charge of misfeasance in office, and is published by permission of the publishers.

The speech was the last straw in the House of Lords. It was well known that the House of Lords would not support the responsibility for the selection of Ladyship as a military base and for advising the government that one army corps of 4,000 men was sufficient to subdue the whole of the island.

Landowes's vindication caused a sensational revolution of feeling toward him. He had been convicted by public opinion. While Wolseley was sitting immediately behind him, Roberts had to endure all the humiliation of an exposed impostor. He will have the right to reply tonight, but nothing can efface the stigma, not merely of incompetency, but of treachery to a chief of the Associated Press, who had offered to him, Roberts, who had been identified all along with Wolseley, speaks tomorrow, but it is felt to have made another irreparable error.

CROWD CHASES EX-PRIEST

Storms Platform from Which He is Speaking—One Man Seriously Wounded.

LONDON, March 4.—An infuriated mob at Shanklin, Isle of Wight, yesterday stormed the platform from which ex-Monk Victor Ruchven was delivering an anti-union speech. Ruchven drew a revolver and kept his assailants at bay for a time, but finally turned and fled. During the flight a bullet was discharged, which traversed through the neck and issued from the cheek of one of his pursuers. Ruchven escaped, but the bullet was not fired until he was forced to do so in self-defense. The mob bombarded him with chairs and all kinds of missiles and there were cries of "Ruchven, Ruchven, Ruchven." Ruchven was seen to escape, but someone tried to grab his revolver and another struck him. Then he fled. His appeals to an Englishman's sense of fair play were wasted. It is hoped that the victim of the shooting will recover.

WHERE SOCIETY PRESIDES

Inaugural Ball Outshines the Beauty of Its Predecessors.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The decorations of the ballroom had yielded for their predominant tone. No tawdry colors of light or color were in evidence, but above and on all sides stretched a soft, warm glow, a glow that was not only beautiful, but also useful. The decorations were of a simple, dignified character, and were in perfect harmony with the architecture of the ballroom. The decorations were of a simple, dignified character, and were in perfect harmony with the architecture of the ballroom.

DECORATIONS OF BALLROOM

Yellow is the Predominant Tone, Relieved by Rich Purple of Philippine Bloom.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The decorations of the ballroom had yielded for their predominant tone. No tawdry colors of light or color were in evidence, but above and on all sides stretched a soft, warm glow, a glow that was not only beautiful, but also useful. The decorations were of a simple, dignified character, and were in perfect harmony with the architecture of the ballroom.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

WHERE SOCIETY PRESIDES

Inaugural Ball Outshines the Beauty of Its Predecessors.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The decorations of the ballroom had yielded for their predominant tone. No tawdry colors of light or color were in evidence, but above and on all sides stretched a soft, warm glow, a glow that was not only beautiful, but also useful. The decorations were of a simple, dignified character, and were in perfect harmony with the architecture of the ballroom.

DECORATIONS OF BALLROOM

Yellow is the Predominant Tone, Relieved by Rich Purple of Philippine Bloom.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The decorations of the ballroom had yielded for their predominant tone. No tawdry colors of light or color were in evidence, but above and on all sides stretched a soft, warm glow, a glow that was not only beautiful, but also useful. The decorations were of a simple, dignified character, and were in perfect harmony with the architecture of the ballroom.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

SENATE SUCCEEDS SENATE

Vice President Roosevelt Raps the Fifty-Sixth to Order.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The senate succeeded in passing the sundry bill, which had been held up for several days by the filibustering of Senator Tillman. The vote was 54 to 41. The bill was passed by a narrow margin, but it was a significant victory for the administration.

CONDITION OF THE WEATHER

Forecast for Nebraska—Continued Cold, Heavy Snow, High Wind, Northwesterly.

Table with 2 columns: Temperature in Omaha Yesterday and Today. Lists high and low temperatures for various times of the day.

NEAT DENOUEMENT IN HOUSE

Democratic Members Join Republicans to Speaker Henderson.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The house closed its session at 11:45 today with a denouement from its members following the delivery of an impressive valedictory by Speaker Henderson. For an hour the body had been in the throes of dissolution, with the members of the majority and the minority in a state of confusion.

ROOSEVELT RECEIVES MUCH ATTENTION

Crowd Doubles Its Applause and Cheers That He May Face as Well as the President—Events in Detail.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—William McKinley is a second time president of the United States. He was ushered into that office today in a city abuzz with more and more decorations than ever have graced the holiday-loving national capital, whose streets today resounded to the tread of more marching soldiers and sailors than have ever participated in a like occasion since the war of 1861.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

HIS SECOND TRIUMPH

William McKinley Again Installed as Nation's Chief Executive.

EVENT IS WITHOUT A PARALLEL

Crowd and Demonstration More Impinging Than Any Previous One.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.

WEATHER NOT JUST AS PROMISED

Rain Falls During Most Impressive Part of Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The weather of the week weather unfortunately came just at the time President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 100,000. The weather was in a capricious mood and by noon a slow drizzle had begun that lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon.