CARS ARE IN GREAT DEMAND

Freight Business is Exceptionally Brisk and Roads Are Crowded.

The only thing that is holding back our business at the present time," said an Omaha jobber the other day, "is the inability to get cars in which to move the goods we have sold. That is the one thing that is hindering the Omaha jobbing and wholesale trade today." "Yes, we are short on cars," said a man in one of the general freight offices in this city. "All roads are short and have been for some time. Anything in the shape of a box car is in good demand. The cause is just general good business, and I canno say that any one line of business on our road has monopilzed our cars." "We are badly in need of cars," said a general agent for one of the roads in this ity. "For a hundred miles from here we have not been able for some time to get cars to handle the grain trade, but that is being straightened around now so that there are more cars for this trade. All of the roads are short on box cars." Inquiries were made at several of the freight office to bear out the statement of the jobber who claimed that Should be read DAILY by all interested, as their business is being checked by the inachanges may occur at any time.
