

END OF PETERSON MYSTERY

Servant Girl Dies from Eclamptic Seizure, Physician Says.

VERDICT IS BASED ON DOCTOR'S REPORT

Discovers Made by Medical Men After Body is Examined Changes the General Trend of Opinion.

The Peterson mystery was brought to a close Monday afternoon by the coroner's jury bringing in a verdict to the effect that the domestic had died a natural death. The verdict says in effect that Mary Peterson came to her death as the result of apoplexy during eclamptic seizure, which was according to the testimony of Dr. Lavender.

The only witnesses examined during the afternoon were J. S. Collins, Dr. E. W. Powell and Anna Carlson. Mr. Collins took the stand to explain why Mary Peterson had remained in his employ longer than any previous domestic. He said it was because he had found her efficient and trustworthy, whereas the two women who had preceded her as his housekeeper had failed to give satisfaction.

Dr. Powell concurred in the opinion of Dr. Lavender as to the cause of the woman's death. He said it was not customary in making post-mortem examinations to subject the parts to chemical analysis unless such an extreme measure were ordered by the county authorities. The dissection of the kidney, which Dr. Lavender had discovered by means of the microscope, had studied the naked eye.

The testimony of Anna Carlson was not important, being substantially the same as that of Ida Carlson and Miss Holness.

Translates His Words.

In explaining his medical terms to the jury Dr. Lavender said: "Eclamptic seizures are not uncommon among women in their physical condition. They are the result of the kidneys refusing their functions, causing in turn the system to be poisoned with an accumulation of noxious matter. The seizures are of two kinds, the one which is called a 'toxic' seizure, the most manifest symptom of which is a total suspension of respiration, unaccompanied by convulsions of any kind. During such a spell there is a cessation of breathing, which, if it continues more than thirty seconds, results in death from asphyxiation."

The inquest in the case of Mary Peterson, who was yesterday found dead in the home of her employer, J. S. Collins, 1711 Burt street, was resumed in the coroner's office Monday morning at 9:30. Dr. Lavender was the first witness called to the stand. Since Friday of last week, when the body was taken to the state and examined, he had been at work upon a chemical analysis of the stomach and had been examining the kidneys and spleen microscopically. The first question addressed to him by County Attorney Shields was: "What caused the death of Mary Peterson?"

Death from Natural Cause.

"Asphyxia during eclamptic seizure," he replied. "I found that all conditions pointed to this as the cause of death. The finger nails of the right hand were clutched over the thumb, the nails were blue, and the lips livid. The face was wounded in several places, but was not incised except at the nose. Here the cartilage was broken away from the bone in such a way as to sever an artery, causing profuse external bleeding. All the bruises upon the face could have been caused by her falling upon the carpet except one. There was one bruise on the left side of the face, for which I could not account upon this theory. In my opinion the woman was standing upright when attacked, and fell forward, a dead inert mass, lacking sensibility to throw out her arms to break the force of her fall.

"In the abdominal cavity I found the liver enlarged, but healthy. The spleen was enlarged to twice its size and was diseased, as were both the kidneys. In the left kidney evidence of acute inflammation was well marked. There was no indication of any poison in the stomach. The lungs were normal as to their structure, but being incised were found to be congested."

Miss Maria Holness, president of the Scandinavian Young Woman's Christian association, of which the deceased was a member, testified as to the relations between herself and Mary Peterson. "Two years ago," she said, "I tried to induce Mary to leave the Collins home and get a position in a private family, as I didn't believe it was proper for her to live there alone with him."

"She always answered me by saying that Mr. Collins was kind to her and that the work was lighter than she could hope to find elsewhere. About two months ago she told me that Mr. Collins had raised her wages to $5 a week and had promised her a present of $25 at the end of each year so long as she remained in his employ."

RECRUITS ARE GOING WEST

Boys in Blue Leave Fort Crook at Command of Uncle Sam.

Seventy recruits are to be sent west from Fort Crook in addition to the company of 150 men and three officers which were first slated for transportation to the Philippines.

These recruits will leave with the regulars this morning if the Burlington can find tourist cars for them, but the fact that the order came in so late and that it came for one of the days when the Pullman company is taxed to supply the demands of the railroad companies because of the cheap rates which prevail on Tuesdays, may cause the delay of the additional seventy that is being sent out. If they fail to get away from the fort with the main body, they will follow tomorrow and overtake the companies of the Tenth before they leave San Francisco.

CALLAHAN HEARING COMES ON

Number of Witnesses Subpoenaed to Appear at Preliminary Trial in County Court Wednesday.

James Callahan, the suspect in the Cudahy kidnaping case, will have his preliminary hearing in the county court Wednesday. The hearing was originally set for Monday of last week, but a continuance was ordered to give both the state and the defense time in which to prepare their cases.

That the state is ready to proceed is shown by the fact that the following witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear Wednesday: E. A. Cudahy, E. A. Cudahy, Jr., George P. Wittum, Mrs. George F. Wittum, Mrs. Gus Butler, James Schneiderwind, Mrs. James Schneiderwind, Daniel Burris, Ed Munshaw, W. S. Glynn, Frank Glynn, Andrew Gray, J. J. Donahue, Frank Denberry and S. P. Dwyer.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S QUEL

He Hid a Luxurious Suit of Straight and Very Dark Hair.

The Father of His Country concealed a luxurious suit of hair beneath his queue wig. Many now wish the old fashion were in vogue, to conceal thinning hair or baldness. Yet no one need have thin hair nor bald, if he cure the dandruff that causes both. Dandruff cannot be cured by scouring the scalp, because it is a germ disease, and the germ has to be killed. Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ—no other hair preparation will. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." There's no cure for dandruff but to kill the germ.

Announcements of the Theaters.

The Orpheum is presenting this week a program that is made up principally of comedy, vaudeville comedy, but which is interspersed with music and acrobatic acts above the average. The nine Nelsons are as graceful and as clever as ever and never fail to work the audience into a pitch of enthusiasm and interest seldom manifested in a theater. The Orpheum will inaugurate something new next Saturday in the way of a candy festival. Each child bringing one of the Orpheum's cards and 10 cents will be entitled to see the show and help eat the candy. A big feature in the near future will be an amateur festival. For some time there has been so many requests for another amateur night that the management has decided to put one on in the near future and all amateurs and that desire to appear are requested to communicate with the management as soon as possible.

The Semblich Opera company, which comes to the Boyd on Thursday, arrived today from Des Moines. It is not generally known that the Semblich Opera company gives but three performances a week. This is due to the fact that Madame Semblich is at her head and no performance is given at which she does not appear. The result is that there are no three o'clock and a perfect performance is in consequence assured. The outlook is very good and no doubt Semblich will meet with a brilliant audience. Sale now in progress at Mawhinney & Holliday's.

One of the prominent features with the William H. West minstrels this season will be a novel parade, which for lavish display, magnificent wardrobe and glittering effects has never been approached by any other minstrel organization. An entire carload of horses, superb trappings and paraphernalia are carried for this one feature alone. Mr. West promises a performance of the kind which will be a novelty and a special feature of pronounced merit, the largest and best minstrel show ever under his control. It will give two performances at Boyd's theater tomorrow.

UNION LABOR TO BE USED

Auditorium Committee Settles Vexed Question at Noonday Meeting.

MARINE BAND NOT TO PLAY IN OMAHA

Committee Cannot Secure Suitable Quarters for Large Organization—Receipts on Subscriptions Approximate $3,000 for Day.

The Auditorium company yesterday placed itself on record on the matter of labor and by resolution announced its intention of employing union labor only in the construction of the auditorium and in any work done by the Auditorium company.

The question came up on the report of the superintendent of the exposition, saying that a boycott had been declared upon the enterprise by the Electrical Workers' union and that the Central Labor union was investigating the matter. The superintendent explained the status of the affair to the committee, his remarks being in line with his statement to the public Saturday, when he stated that no workmen had been employed except to attach light lamps to the building. He was instructed to contract for work only with those firms employing union labor when it became necessary to make any alterations in the building or wires. Then the whole question of labor came up.

Resolution is Adopted.

Clement Chase offered a resolution to the effect that none but union labor be employed on any work of the company. This resolution was seconded by C. C. Rosewater. It was discussed at length, all of the members present saying that they recognized that the resolution should be passed, but some of them did not think the present an opportune time. On the ballot but two votes were cast against the resolution.

The report of the subscription committee, showing the receipt of $2,732 since Thursday, making the total receipts from all sources $125,102. The amount reported today was the largest reported in three months, according to the announcement of the president.

The report of the committee on miscellaneous receipts, to which was referred the matter of the Marine band concert, was to the effect that it had been found impracticable to secure the Coliseum building for April 3, and that therefore the contract with the band should be annulled. The report was adopted.

The proposition of the Payne-Knox company regarding the sale of certain lots was accepted by the committee. Bids for the purchase of seven houses on the site of the proposed auditorium were received and the awarding of the contracts was passed for a week.

BABY ELBOURN WILL LIVE

City Clerk Writes Particulars of Railroad Wreck in Indiana.

Letters received from City Clerk W. H. Elbourn tell of the injuries his wife and baby boy sustained last Tuesday in the railroad wreck at Millersburg, Ind. Mrs. Elbourn was very seriously cut and bruised, but sustained no broken or fractured bones. Her condition is such, however, that it will not be possible for her to travel for at least another week.

The baby's injuries were confined chiefly to its head. It took surgeons two hours to dress the child's wounds, and forty-seven stitches were taken in the face and scalp. The left eye was injured so badly that it was at first thought that the sight was destroyed. The child rallied from the shock and the doctors now believe that they can save his eye.

Nothing so thoroughly removes disease germs from the system as Prickly Ash Bitters. It gives life and action to the torpid liver, strengthens and assists the kidneys to properly cleanse the blood, gives tone to the stomach, purifies the bowels, and promotes good appetite, vigor and cheerfulness.
