The work necessary to keep the accounts of a county, city or state in proper condition is so complex that the average taxpayer does not care to bother his head over what becomes of the money he pays on his annual assessments.

Before taxes are collected there is as much red tape as in the commissary departicent of an army. A review of the work performed by the county and city officials in necuring taxes for 1900 will show how much labor is necessary to run the financial and of municipal and county governments

Assessors employed by the county placed n valuation of $21,745,972.64 upon all the property in Douglas county. In making this estimate assessors are supposed to have given property in at from one-sixth to one-eighth of its actual value. After sitting as a Board of Equalization to adjust any inequalities in assessments, the county commissioners took this valuation as a basis and fixed the levy for the year.

Assessment for City Purposes.

The assessment of taxes for the city of Omaha is made on a different valuation than that placed upon Omaha property by the county officials. Assessors employed by the city are supposed to have turned in all property at a valuation varying from $35 to 40 per cent of the actual value. All assessments for 1900 were reviewed by the council, sitting as a board of equalization,

Folice Captain Daniel W. Her was tried in the criminal court yesterday on a charge of having assaulted Michael Hogan and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, after being out only ten minutes.

Hogan is the man fler struck with his club while escorting William J. Bryan out of the musical pavilion on the night before election. The evidence brought out at the trial indicated that Hogan was interfering with the police officer and refused to desist when commanded to do so.
