At the same time freight No. 413, in charge of Conductor Burlingham, was stuck in a snowdrift at the point stated.

The passenger train got under full headway and on account of the blinding blizzard none of the trainmen on either train knew of the impending accident.

The engineer and fireman on the freight jumped at the moment of collision. Engineer George McMillen of the passenger jumped and suffered a broken leg, but Fireman Fred Jansen of the passenger was not so fortunate. He was caught in the wreck of his engine and scalded to death by esaside from being considerably shaken up. Both engines were considerably stove up and several cars were derailed.

Engineer McMillen was taken to town and given surgical care, and the body of Fireman Jansen was prepared for shipment. Both men lived in Nebraska City and are said to be men of families. A wrecking train is at work clearing the track.

The conductor of the freight says he displayed danger signals when his train became stalled, but the storm prevented them from being seen.

Dr. S. J. Wilson of Johnson is attending the injured. He was summoned from Johnson and was forced to walk to the scene of the disaster, as it was impossible to drive board, J. W. Brooks and P. S. Barnes. or run a handcar, owing to the bad drifts.

of French Foreign Office Predicts Russia Will Not Yield in the Least to the Demands of England.

LONDON, March 19 .- Some of the afteroon newspapers say the Tien Tsin difficulty has been arranged.

The misunderstanding was due to the Chinese authorities granting the same concession to two nations. The arrangement enables Great Britian to proceed with the construction of the railroad siding, but if Russia's concession proves to be earlier than that of Great Britain the latter is to acknowledge the claims of Russia. The Foreign office, however, has no information tending to confirm the announcement of an arrangement having been made and the officials are rather inclined to doubt that such an arrangement has been arrived at. They say the original concession was the citizena' caucus last night H. P. Wil- given up by Russia,

On the British troops and a company of Russian soldiers remain encamped on either side of the trench, looking at each other. The Russians have orders to fire on any one commencing work.

General Wogack says the trouble was caused by the unwarrantable interference in the affairs of the Russian concession and he adds that the siding will not be continued unless he receives orders from his own superiors.

Field Marshal Count von Waldersee is expected here today. Both nides will appeal to him, but they both consider the matter to be beyond his authority and will await orders from Europe.

The afternoon newspapers welcome the latest news concerning the awkward situation of affairs at Tien Tsin as indicating the probability of the faces of both Russia and Great Britain being saved by the intervention of a non-interested power.

Prof. Douglass of the British museum expressed the opinion that there is only one way to stop Russian aggression in China and that is for "the three most interested states, America, England and Japan, to combine in firm resistance."
