

GENERAL HARRISON'S WILL

Instrument Filed for Probate Reveals No Very Great Wealth. HIS WIFE IS WELL PROVIDED FOR

Daughter Elizabeth and Other Relatives Share Proportionately—Possible Second Son Has a Part.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 19.—The will of General Harrison was filed for probate late this afternoon. He bequeaths to the Union Trust company, as trustee if his wife shall survive him, $125,000, to be invested in the interest to be paid to her during the term of her life.

At the death of his wife any interest not paid to her shall become part of his residuary estate. To his wife he also leaves $15,000, to his daughter Elizabeth $10,000, to be paid to his wife as trustee. When she becomes of age or marries she is to have any unexpended balance. If she dies before receiving it such unexpended balance shall go to her mother.

He leaves $10,000 to be invested by the Union Trust company and to accumulate until his grandson, Benjamin Harrison McKee, shall become of age, when he shall have the principle and accumulated interest. The trustee is authorized, however, to use the interest in the support of the grandson if necessary. If the grandson dies before coming of age the fund shall become a part of the residuary estate. To his grand children, Mary Lodge McKee, Marthina Harrison and William Henry Harrison, he leaves to each the sum of $2,500 in addition to other gifts mentioned.

In Event of Second Son. Item 16 of the will reads: "If another child should be born to me of my present marriage I give and bequeath to such child the sum of $10,000. If a boy shall be born to me he shall bear my name and my sword and sash shall be given to him instead of to my son Russell."

He gives to his sisters, Sarah H. Devin and Anna H. Morris, and to his sister-in-law, Elizabeth Scott Barker, each the sum of $500. He bequeaths to his sister, H. Eaton, an annuity of $500, to be paid to her by his executor each year during her natural life, in quarterly payments. He bequeaths to his nephew and niece, Benjamin Harrison, Jr., son of his brother John, $500.

To the Indianapolis Orphan Asylum he leaves $500; to the Eleanor Home, $500; to the Summer Mission for Sick Children, $100; to his secretary, E. Frank Tibbitt, $200.

He sets out that he had already given to his children, Russell and Mary, the jewelry and other things belonging to their mother. These and other articles belonging to their mother he bequeaths to these children. This gift, he says, is not taken to include articles of furniture purchased by their mother for their home and paid for by him.

To His Wife. He confirms to his wife all the gifts she has received, all the articles in the house purchased within six months before the marriage with her and purchased by either since that time. He also gives to his wife for the term of her life all the other articles of the household owned by him prior to a period of six months before their marriage, that are now in the house, except such articles as are otherwise disposed of. He gives to his wife all horses, carriages and stable furnishings. He decrees that all personal property left to his wife for her lifetime shall at her death be divided among his surviving children, the share of each that may have died taking the parents' share.

The wife is not required to file any inventory of property nor give any bond nor be liable for any loss. He leaves to his wife for the term of her life the North Delaware homestead. He also leaves to his wife and to her heirs six lots in Herkimer county, New York.

If another child should have been born, he would have received $10,000. All debts owing to him by his son, Russell, are admitted and the executor is directed to cancel any evidence of such indebtedness. To his wife he leaves all photographs and portraits about the house, his library table, inkstands, shirt studs and all other personal trinkets not otherwise disposed of.

The watch seal given to him by his wife's mother and his Grand Army card are to be kept by his daughter, Elizabeth. Other cards are to be bestowed as his wife shall choose.

To His Son Russell. To his son Russell he gives the portraits of the first Mrs. Harrison, some other portraits and family relics. To his daughter Mary Harrison McKee he leaves a portrait of her mother, some other portraits and family relics. To his daughter Elizabeth he leaves some family portraits, medals and relics, together with the gold watch-chain, silver toilet set and all of his souvenir spoons.

To his grandson Benjamin Harrison McKee he leaves his watch and chain and his shotgun. To his brother Carter his Royal Legion badge and a cane, to be selected by his wife. To his brother John his gold sleeve buttons and a cane.

It is directed that the provisions made for his wife are in lieu of all her interests in the estate as his widow.

Residue of the Estate. All the rest of the estate is left as follows: It is to be divided into as many equal shares as he leaves children, and one additional share for the issue of any child that may have died leaving issue. One share is given to his son, Russell, in trust for the children of Russell, to be used for the support and education of such children; such portion as is not used before shall be turned over to the child on his becoming of age.

A second equal share is given to his daughter, Mary Harrison McKee, in fee simple. A third equal share is left in fee simple to his daughter Elizabeth. If another child or children should have been born to him, each child would have an equal share.

MANAGER ROURKE RETURNS

Gossips About Meeting of Base Ball Magistrates at St. Paul. WESTERN LEAGUE RETAINS EIGHT CLUBS

Louisville and Indianapolis Want to Come In, but Are Excluded—President Hickey Maps Out Schedule for the Season.

The Western league narrowly escaped being an out-of-door league, with Indianapolis and Louisville as the two additional clubs, said William A. Rourke, manager of the Omaha team, who has just returned from the meeting of managers recently held in St. Paul.

It was the first manager to oppose the plan of taking in the two additional clubs, and the clubs would have been admitted if I hadn't produced figures to show what the financial result of such a change must be.

With the ten clubs the expense of the league would have been $20,000 more than under the eight-club arrangement. The distance between Louisville and Colorado Springs is so great that our traveling expenses would have been excessive. When the managers were confronted with figures they saw the folly of increasing the league and decided to limit it to eight teams. Colorado Springs being admitted to take the place of Pueblo.

Milwaukee Wants Two Chances. "Indianapolis, Louisville, Sioux City and Colorado Springs all brought pressure to bear on the managers. Milwaukee was anxious to have a second chance to compete with that city's American league team, but the managers have no desire to antagonize any other league and rejected all proposals.

Louisville and Indianapolis are now without a team and will have no base ball until they get franchises in the Interstate league, which includes Wheeling, Columbus, Mansfield, Dayton, Toledo and Fort Wayne. It is the intention of the managers to increase the membership to eight teams, and Louisville and Indianapolis will no doubt get into this league.

Hereafter the board of directors of the Western league will have only three members to look after its interests. Only annual meetings of managers and owners will be held hereafter. The three directors chosen for this year are President Thomas J. Hickey, George Tebeau of Kansas City and myself.

President Hickey will make the schedule for this year and will spread the same over the season. The league will be apportioned equally among the teams. All the managers agreed to abide by President Hickey's schedule without complaint. Mr. Hickey expects to have the schedule ready for publication Saturday.

Sinking Fund Created. "A sinking fund was created by the league. Three per cent of all general admissions will be turned into this fund and the league may be prepared to meet any reverses which may come. But we do not expect many reverses this year. The league promises to be much faster than it was last year and the managers all expect to have good crowds.

No Sunday games will be played in Colorado Springs. All games scheduled there will be played at Cameron, near Cripple Creek. This is the only level place in the heart of the mountains, and it is reported that there is nearly enough fire ground there to make a good park. Suits are pending against the Des Moines team on account of Sunday games and it is not known whether any attempt will be made this year to play on Sunday in that city.

While in St. Paul Mr. Purdy, Wenden, Walter Wilmot, Dan Lally, Jimmy Ryan and a number of other base ball players."

CHASE REFUSES TO SELL He Is Not Willing to Part with Des Moines Base Ball Franchise. DES MOINES, Ia., March 19.—W. P. Chase refused to sell the Des Moines base ball franchise for $10,000 while attending the meeting of the managers of the Western league at St. Paul, Minn., yesterday afternoon, after a three days' session. Mr. Chase got home today.

Indianapolis and Louisville were anxious to get the franchise of St. Joseph and Des Moines, said Mr. Chase. "I was offered $10,000 outright and was willing to sell the same. The two bids to buy the franchise the same way with Denver and Colorado Springs. They could have sold for that price, but Colorado Springs would not have any price. Neither would Des Moines."

Mowatt managed to get his feet, but he was floored immediately, rising as weak as a kitten. He was unable to lift his guards. Riehe planted a straight left to the jaw. Mowatt went down again. The gong saved him, but his count, which he did not permit of a continuance of the fight.

CONVICTS BACK IN CELLS

Kansas Warden Erings Mutiny of Prisoners to an End. ESCARES THEM WITH RIFLE SHOTS

Fires Fusillade as He Enters Shaft and Frightened Starving Ring-leaders Lose Their Nerve.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., March 19.—The inspection of the convict miners in the state mine shaft at Lansing was brought to a close at 11:20 o'clock tonight and the mutinous convicts are being placed in their cells as fast as they can be brought to the surface. The imprisoned guards have been released and are again above the surface.

Shortly after midnight the warden and every available officer gathered around the mouth of the mine, each man heavily armed. Hunger had begun to tell upon the mutinous convicts and they began to parley with the warden. They sent him word that if he would promise not to inflict punishment for their action they would surrender and come up. To this the warden would not consent, sending down word that the surrender must be unconditional, the question of punishment to be considered later. As the night wore on the warden was in consultation with his officers, and it was decided to attempt a rescue of the guards, and also to overawe the convicts and force their surrender. Selecting his men, the warden with seven or eight guards entered the hot and were soon speeding downward. When near the bottom of the pit a heavy fusillade was opened, the shots being fired toward the top of the shaft.

This took the convicts by surprise and they hastily fled, leaving the guards, who were soon joined by their comrades, after which they were sent to the top. The armed guards then started after the convicts and soon had the ring-leaders under arrest, when the others gave in and surrendered. The work of bringing them to the surface began, and before morning the convicts will be behind the bars of their cells.

PORK TAKES LOFTY FLIGHT Reaches Highest Mark Attained Since Days of Lipton Bullishness. CHICAGO, March 19.—Pork for delivery in May soared to $16.35 per barrel today, $2.50 higher than the price at the beginning of the month and at the highest point since the Lipton squeeze in 1898. Those who had sold "short" under a belief that they would be able to buy at lower prices before delivery day were much alarmed today by rumors that two influential operators had secured control of the market and would force prices to a much higher level. "Short" lines of May pork are said to aggregate 150,000 barrels. At present there are but 30,000 barrels of pork which could be delivered on contracts, and a good share of this is owned by a packer said to be in the deal to squeeze shorts.

The speculative maneuver has two months to run, but it is thought to be unlikely that other packers will turn to manufacturing pork when it is at present more profitable to make other cuts of meat.

Nervous Exhaustion

"Two years ago this summer I was in a miserable condition as the result of hard work. I was completely run down, pale and losing flesh, and so nervous that I could not sleep or even get rest. It was dreadful to go to bed at night all worn out and lie awake for hours with nervousness. If I did fall asleep, it was to wake up in the morning as tired as when I went to bed. My head troubled me & great deal, too, both with pain and dizziness. If I stopped over at any time I would be so dizzy I could hardly see or keep from falling down. I was troubled somewhat with indigestion at the time, but the nervousness was the greater trouble. If I became a little excited my hands would shake so I could hardly hold anything in them. I employed our best physicians, but not one of them did me any permanent good. I got some and before the first box was used I began to feel that they were doing me good. I kept on taking them according to directions and got from them the only real, permanent benefit I have had from any remedy. It did seem so good to get a night's sleep and to be refreshed by it. I am a firm believer in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I do, and shall, recommend them to my friends. I generally keep a box in the house to take in case I feel a little run down."
