The Iowa Official Register, an official publication by the secretary of state, has just been issued. It was delayed this year because of the muddle of the Titus amendment, which prevented compliation of the statistics until a late date. The book contains a fine portrait of ex-Governor Larrabee as a frontispiece. It contains the or-ganic low of the state, the acts of admission, historical matter relating to the state and the constitution; the state, county and district officials; maps and charts; the political platforms and tickets and the official returns of the last election. The Register has come to be recognized as an invaluable publication in lowa. Looking for Pythian Headquarters,

It is expected that at the next meeting of the grand lodge of Knights of Pythias, to be held in Cedar Rapids soon, permanent headquarters for the order will be established in lowa. The consideration of this several Sundays since Rev. Mr. Waddell matter has been before the Pythiaus in this state for several years and a committee will be appointed by the grand chancellor to make a report. There is complaint that when the sessions of the grand lodge are held in some city on the border of the state the expense for travel is much greater grand lodge is growing rapidly and the matter of expense is important. The committee to be appointed will undoubtedly recommend that the headquarters be permanently established in some central city ings be all held at a central point and not be sent about the state, where the towns town, Cedar Rapids, Des Moines, Fort be closed.
