Election of Senators is the Paramount Topic in Omaha.

Announcement Creates Much Commen Everywhere and Little Else but Senatorial Situation Talked About-General Opinion.

The Bee was first to announce the senatorial news.

An extra edition was in the hands of newsboys in a remarkable short time after fact, the story was sent to The Bee linotype operators sheet by sheet as rapidly as it could be taken by long distance telephone. The reporter at the Lincoln end of the phone sent his bulleting while the making of the two senators was in progress, so that by the time the names of Millard and Dietrich were announced officially in the state transferred into type in The Bee office. It was a record-breaking feat of rapid and accurate newspaper work, clearly distancing all competition.

Everybody Talks.

On the streets, in stores, in offices, in shops, in nomes-in fact, everywhere, the promise. breaking of the deadlock was the paramount topic of gossip. Some of the expressions of opinion relative to the situation are as Judge D. M. Vinsonhaler-I think Edward Rosewater was entitled to one of the senatorial positions as a reward for his great service to the republican party of the state and because he was the best qualified man for the place, and I am disappointed on that account. However, the election of Mr. Millard and Governor Dietrich will meet with general approval. They are both good men their new positions. Judge W. W. Slabaugh-So its Millard and Dietrich, is it? Well, that's surely a surprise. Nobody will doubt their republicanism-that's certain. They are excellent representatives of the business element and they will know how to serve the state well in congress.

Harte is Satisfied.

County Commissioner A. C. Harte-There is satisfaction in knowing that if we can't have Mr. Rosewater in the senate we are to have another good Omaha man there. Mr. Millard is a man of wide experience and great ability and he will make a first-rate I have known him for the past twelve the long term. The other three men gave short time he has been at the head of the state government, has shown that he is qualified for the higher office to which he has been promoted.

L. N. Gonden-Business men generally will be satisfied with the result. We wanted Mr. Rosewater, but the substitution of Mr. Millard is probably the best that could be made. Mr. Millard is no uncertain quantity; he has been a prominent public man for years and his superior ability for any public service has long since been acknowledged. H G. Streight-I have been hoping for Mr. Rosewater's election, but it seems that we can't always have what our hearts desire. Millard and Dietrich are business men, rather than politicians. They will fill the high offices to which they have been

J. E. Utt-As a compromise it is very satisfactory. That is all I have to say F. E. Sanborn-Under the existing conditions J. H. Millard is the best man who

I have a high opinion of Mr. Millard's ability. Although I do not know Governor Dietrich the name of the sergeant engraved on the personally, I believe him to be an able man and one worthy of the honor conferred upon him. The legislators were wise in breaking the deadlock. Nebraskans were tired of the delay and would have been disgusted if the legislature had adjourned without making a choice.

I don't know Mr. Dietrich personally, my entire acquaintance with him being in a general way during the campaign.
