

Famous American Veterans And Soldiers Endorse Peruna

Nothing Helps in Spring Like Peruna

No Other Catarrh Remedy Has Ever Received Such Great Popular Endorsements.

Captain Burtis Recovers.
 Captain J. J. Burtis, captain of Co. A 20th Ohio Volunteers, writes from 524 Lincoln avenue, Chicago, Ill., as follows:
 "I know by experience that Peruna is a wonderful medicine for kidney troubles. I suffered for years with bladder and kidney trouble, nothing helped me except temporarily, but when a friend told me of Peruna I felt at once that I had found something which could cure me. Relief came soon and I was entirely cured in a very short time and have had no trouble since. I keep it in the house and take some occasionally as it prevents my catching cold."—J. J. Burtis.

Major Mars is Strong Again.
 Maj. T. H. Mars, of the First Wisconsin Cavalry regiment, writes from 1425 Dunning street, Chicago, Ill., the following letter:
 "For years I suffered with catarrh of the kidneys contracted in the army. Medicine did not help me any until a comrade who had been helped by Peruna advised me to try it. I bought some at once and soon found blessed relief. I kept taking it for four months and am now well and strong and feel better than I have done for the past twenty years, thanks to Peruna."—T. H. Mars.

Chaplain Jaycox Finds Relief at Last.
 Hon. D. L. Jaycox, Chaplain of the Grand Army of the Republic, writes from 855 Broadway, Oakland, Cal.:
 "I contracted severe bladder and kidney trouble, spent hundreds of dollars and consulted a host of doctors, but neither did me any good.
 "I bought a bottle of Peruna on the advice of some comrades who had been cured by it; after using it four months my pains are gone and I believe myself to be cured. I feel well and would not be without a bottle in time of need for ten times its cost."—D. L. Jaycox.

Soldier Stegman's Narrow Escape.
 William Stegman of 430 Washington St., Appleton, Wis., writes as follows:
 "Gentlemen: After returning from Cuba I felt my health was considerably broken down. Standing in water for days in the trenches affected my lungs until the doctor said I had quick consumption. My mother advised me to use Peruna, and in three months my lungs were as well as ever.
 "I have arranged to take some Peruna with me to the Philippines, as I consider it indispensable to maintain my health in the unfavorable climate."—William Stegman.

Private Vance Still Improving.
 Mr. John Vance, member of Company I, 71st Ohio Infantry, First Brigade, Second Division, Fourth Army Corps, who lives at Hartford City, Ind., in a letter dated June 7th, 1899, says: "My kidney trouble is much better. I have improved so much that everybody wants to know what medicine I am using. I recommend Peruna to everybody and some have commenced to use it. The folks all say that if Dr. Hartman's medicine cures me it must be great." In a later letter, he says: "I am still improving in health, people call me well now. I am still using your medicine."—John Vance.

Captain Moss Restored to Health.
 Percy W. Moss, late captain Company D, 2nd Arkansas Volunteers writes from Paragould, Arkansas, the following letter to Dr. Hartman:
 "It is with great pleasure that I write you of my success with Peruna. I think it undoubtedly the finest and surest catarrh cure ever prepared and it has taken but two bottles to convince me of this fact.
 "I also find it a very good spring tonic and will readily recommend it at any time."—Percy W. Moss.

Major Mabson's Grateful Cure.
 Major Algernon A. Mabson, of the Tenth Volunteer regiment, stationed at Macon, Ga., in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman from Washington, D. C., has the following to say in regard to Peruna:
 "I think there is no better medicine on earth than your Peruna for catarrh. It has surely cured me. It would take a volume to tell you all the good it has done me. Peruna is the greatest remedy ever prepared, and I think I have tried them all."—A. A. Mabson.

Gen. Yoder's Gratitude for Peruna.
 General S. S. Yoder, ex-Member of Congress from Lima, Ohio, in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, speaks of Peruna as follows:
 "I desire to say that I have found Peruna to be a wonderful remedy. I have only used it for a short time and am thoroughly satisfied in regard to its merits. I cannot find words to express my gratitude for the good results obtained from its use. As a catarrh cure I shall gladly recommend it to all sufferers."—S. S. Yoder.

Captain Alexander's Restoration.
 Wm. K. Alexander, Captain and Quartermaster, writes the following from Lynchburg, Va.:
 "You cannot imagine how much better I feel since I commenced taking your remedy, Peruna, one week ago. I hardly know how to thank you for this great treatment. I had suffered continuously from the effects of malarial fever before taking Peruna. Should I at any future time have occasion to recommend a treatment of your kind, rest assured that yours will be the one."—Wm. K. Alexander.

Gen. Powell Completely Restored.
 Gen. W. H. Powell, Department Commander of Hecker Post No. 442, Belleville, Ill., writes:
 "Following a severe attack of la grippe in 1896 I have suffered greatly and continuously from a constantly increasing stubborn case of catarrh in the head and stomach. All prescribed remedies failing to yield permanent relief, I was induced to try Peruna, and began its use in August, 1898. In using one bottle I became convinced of its curative qualities, and continued its use to date. All symptoms of catarrh have disappeared, yet I continue its moderate use as a preventive, and an old man's tonic."—W. H. Powell.

Sergt. Taylor was a Friend of Peruna.
 Sergeant Buck Taylor was one of the famous Rough Riders, and is a personal friend of Governor Roosevelt of New York. He accompanied Governor Roosevelt on his great stumping tour through upper New York state. He was promoted through gallantry in the field during the late war.
 The sergeant had the following to say of Peruna: "I think there is no better medicine on earth than Peruna, for catarrh. It has cured me. It would take a volume to tell you of all the good it has done me. Peruna is the best catarrh cure on earth, and I know, for I have tried nearly all of them."—Buck F. Taylor.

Capt. Guse Keeps Well by Peruna.
 Captain Paul R. Guse, Co. C, Thirty-ninth Volunteer Infantry, writes from 409 Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, Ill.:
 "Several times after contracting severe colds I have been quickly relieved by the use of Peruna. I especially recommend it also as the best preventative of colds I know of. By taking a few doses a week it keeps me in a fine healthful condition."—Paul R. Guse.

Veteran Brock a Centenarian.
 Mr. Isaac Brock, born before the United States was formed, saw twenty-two presidents elected. He is a veteran of four wars. Shod a horse when ninety-nine years old. Of Peruna he says:
 "During my long life I have known a great many remedies for coughs, colds, catarrh and diarrhoea. I had always supposed these affections to be different diseases, but on reading Dr. Hartman's book, I found that these affections are the same and that they are properly called catarrh. I had several long seizures with the grip. At first I did not know that Peruna was a remedy for this disease. When I heard that la grippe was epidemic catarrh, I tried Peruna for la grippe and found it to be just the thing.
 "As for Dr. Hartman's remedy, Peruna, I have found it to be the best, if not the only, reliable remedy for these affections. It has been my standby for many years, and I attribute my good health and extreme old age to this remedy."—Isaac Brock.

General Wright Endorses Peruna.
 General Marcus Wright, 1724 Corcoran St., Washington, D. C., a confederate general, who is in charge of getting up the records of the War of the Rebellion, has the following to say in regard to Peruna:
 "I take pleasure in recommending Peruna. It is a remarkable medicine and should be used by persons who are in need of a good tonic and by sufferers from catarrh."—Marcus Wright.

Major General Joseph Wheeler, commanding the cavalry forces in front of Santiago, says:
 "I join with Senators Sullivan, Roush and McEnery in their good opinion of Peruna. It is recommended to me by those who have used it as an excellent tonic and particularly effective as a cure for catarrh."

General W. W. Duffield, general in the Mexican war and general of the Union Army in the late Civil War, in a letter written from "The Cairo," Washington, D. C., says the following of Peruna:
 "I have used Peruna in my family and have found it a valuable medicine, and take pleasure in recommending it to all who suffer from catarrh of the stomach or who require a tonic of efficiency."

General James Longstreet of Gainesville, Ga., writes as follows in regard to Peruna:
 "I join with my comrade, General Wheeler, in testifying to the merits of Peruna, both as a tonic and a catarrh remedy. Peruna enjoys the greatest reputation as a catarrh remedy of any medicine yet devised."

Maj. Hawks Gives Peruna Great Praise
 Major E. S. Hawks writes the following letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., from Washington, D. C.:
 "I take great pleasure in recommending Peruna as an excellent tonic. It has been recommended to me by influential people as an excellent remedy and should be in every man's household. It is particularly effective as a cure for catarrh in all its phases and stages."—E. S. Hawks.

Major Liddell Uses Peruna at Home.
 Major J. M. Liddell, major of the Fifth Immunes, recently ordered to the Philippines and well known in Mississippi, has used Peruna in his family for years. He gives his opinion of this great catarrh remedy from several years' constant observation and personal use. He says:
 "I have used Peruna for years and I know of no better medicine on the market. It is a grand tonic and should be used in every household. As a cure for catarrh I know of nothing better."—J. M. Liddell.

Colonel Joyce Cured by Peruna.
 Colonel John A. Joyce, well known throughout the country as the "Soldiers' Poet," is an ardent friend to Peruna. He speaks of it in the following terms in a recent letter from Washington, D. C.:
 "Gentlemen—I think there is no better medicine sold than your remedies for catarrh. They have cured me. It would take a volume to tell you the good they have done me. Peruna is the best remedy on earth for catarrh and I think I have tried nearly all of them."—John A. Joyce.

Captain Yarnell Benefited by Peruna.
 Captain M. G. Yarnell, post commander Wm. Downs post No. 68, G. A. R., writes from 2322 Lincoln street, N. E., Washington, D. C., as follows concerning Peruna as a catarrh cure. He says:
 "Your medicine, Peruna, I believe to be the best medicine for catarrh on the market. I have taken only a small amount and can see very beneficial results. I shall continue its use and recommend it to my friends and comrades for all catarrhal affections."—W. G. Yarnell.

Paymaster Collier Recommends Peruna.
 One of the most responsible positions in the practical management of the United States navy is the paymaster's office. Only men of great executive and clerical ability can fill such a position. Such a man is the Hon. William A. Collier, assistant paymaster of the United States navy. In a recent letter of his to Dr. Hartman, he says:
 "I have taken Peruna and take pleasure in recommending it to those needing a first-class tonic, feeling assured that it will do all that is claimed for it."—M. A. Collier.

Major Longstreet Finds Peruna Excellent.
 Major Robert L. Longstreet, who served in the late war with Spain, is the son of the great ex-confederate general. Major Longstreet was mustered out in June and he is now in Washington trying to get rid of the pernicious malarial fever which he contracted in Cuba. He found Peruna of benefit on his return to the United States and says the following in regard to the great catarrh cure and tonic:
 "I have taken Peruna as a tonic on my return from Cuban climate and find it excellent."—Robert L. Longstreet.

Colonel Hamilton Used Peruna in Spanish War.
 Colonel A. L. Hamilton, late colonel commanding the 7th O. V. I., writes the following letter to Dr. Hartman:
 "I wish to say that my command used your Peruna very freely during our service in the Spanish-American war, and will say this, that if the War department records are consulted you will find that the casualties in my regiment were less than any other regiment of the Second Army Corps while at Camp Alger, Meado and Bushnell. The total deaths in my regiment during the seven months' service was seven out of a total number of 1,400. I, of course, can't help but think that Peruna was a great benefit to my command."—A. L. Hamilton.

Major Armes Restored by Peruna.
 Major George Armes, U. S. A., retired, of Washington, D. C., has one of the most interesting and romantic histories, which, briefly stated, is as follows: At the age of 17 he was wounded while guiding a union raid. At 18 he was congratulated publicly by Lincoln, and at 20 was made brevet major for gallantry. At 22 he stepped a horde of Indians. At 23 was breveted lieutenant colonel. At the age of 25 he became a victim of official persecution. At the age of 50 he was a millionaire through his success in the real estate business in the city of Washington, D. C. At the age of 55 he heads an expedition to the Transvaal. In a recent letter written to The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio, he says:
 "Peruna cured me of indigestion and biliousness and I continued to take it and have found it an excellent tonic."—George Armes.

Colonel Livingston Endorses Peruna.
 Col. L. I. Livingston, Washington, D. C., the leading democratic member for the south, is on the industrial commission and is the leading democratic member of the committee on appropriations in the House of Representatives, says:
 "I take pleasure in joining with General Wheeler, Congressman Brewer and others in recommending Peruna as an excellent tonic and a catarrh cure."—L. I. Livingston, Atlanta, Ga.
