Possibility of Hessian Fly Damages is Influeptial in Wheat Strength.

CORN MARKET RATHER QUIET, BUT STEADY

Bulk of Oats Business is in Exchang ing May for July at Even Figures-Provisions Rule Dull.

CHICAGO, April 11 -- The possibilities of fly damage was influential in the wheat market today and May closed rather quiet and corn closed a shade-oats %c and provisions 2%07%c-improved.

The government report having shown about what had been expected of it was of less influence in the wheat market than the little addendum to it which showed the the little addendum to it which showed the possibilities of future damage from Hessian fy. Lower cables and the bearishness of the report itself caused heavy selling at the start. May being sold from 195c to 90% or compared with yesterday's close at 70% of the report itself caused heavy selling at the start. May being sold from 195c to 90% or compared with yesterday's close at 70% of the report itself caused heavy selling at the start. May being sold from 195c to 90% or compared with yesterday's close at 70% of the posterior of the first hear start shipping demand, succeeded in a scellent shipping demand, succeeded in a scellent shipping demand. Succeeded in the start and added by light receipts and an excellent shipping demand. Succeeded in a scale. The market during the first hour dimbed to 7c, around which it ruled stendy for a time. Later beavy cleatances and reports of damage from insects in Missour raused a small reaction, but the close was strong. It higher at 70% 70% of the being wheat a Frimary receipts were 45.000 bushels, nearly all of it being wheat. Primary receipts were 45.000 bushels, compared with 465.00 bushels has year. Local receipts were 35 cars, none of contract grade, while Minneapolis and Duluth reported 210 cars, against 250 last were and 252 a year ago. Exporters reported to focal dealers, was changing operations it gradually narrowed, being staff over to July. The July distend of the wheat strength, were the sustaining but for at the close. Wet weather high state offerings as well as sympathy with the wheat strength, were the sustaining but for at the close. We weather high state offerings as well as sympathy with the wheat strength were the sustaining but for a single up at 18% for the test. The fully bay. The July bay well with the wheat strength were the sustaining but for all the close. We weather high state offerings as well as sympathy with the wheat strength were the sustaining but for a single up at 18% for the test. The bulk of humineas was here the full crowd, as oppowed to t possibilities of future damage from Hessian cent break, was prominent in the July buy-ing. Oats were quiet but steady, in sympathy with wheat. The buik of business was in changing May into July at about even money. The cash demand was good. May sold between 25% c and 25% c and closed % c higher at 25% c. Receits were 165 cars. Provisions were duit. The opening was irregular, but the tone of the market be-came stronger later on a good cush de-mand. May pork sold between $15.75% and $14.50 and closed 7% c higher at $14.6. May lard between $8.20 and $5.25, closing 2% fric-up at $5.25%, and May ribs between $5.36 and $1.17%.
