To the Verge of Ruin. "As to obtaining contributions from the Transvaal, Sir David Barbour's reports are not encouraging at present. I think the house will see that the war has brought the country to the verge of ruin."

In a brief peroration he said: "If you defeat our proposal you will relieve us of an almost insupportable burden."

Best Since Gladstone. "Nothing so bold and statesmanlike," says the Morning Post, "has been attempted since Mr. Gladstone's days."

Cost of Killing a Boer. Liberal Figures from Budget Statement that it is One Thousand Pounds.

LONDON, April 19.—On the whole the statement of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, which was listened to by J. P. Morgan, among others, from the distinguished strangers' gallery, appears to have been fairly well received.

Follows the Standard Oil. Indications of Future Policy of the Great Steel Combination.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The Iron Age today says: "By many in the iron trade the announcement of the low prices for ore is now interpreted as proof of the fact that Standard Oil principles are to guide the management of the United States Steel corporation."

Most Opposition to Coal Duty. The coal duty, however, seems to be destined to exert the keenest opposition.

Mr. Abram, radical member for Glamorgan-shire, who is president of the Welsh miners' federation, said yesterday in the course of an interview that he was extremely surprised at the proposal of such a tax, adding: "The ultimate result will probably be the closing down of scores of Welsh collieries and the throwing of thousands out of employment."

No Grip, Pain. Or discomfort, no irritation of the insensate, but gentle, prompt, thorough, healthful cleansing, when you take Hood's Pills.

DELEGATES TO MEXICAN EXPOSITION. NEW YORK, April 18.—Prof. Cyrus Northrup, president of the University of Minnesota, having declined the appointment as a delegate to the Pan-American exposition to be held in the city of Mexico next October, the president today offered the position to John Barrett, formerly minister to Nam.

THE SITUATION IN HARD PITTLERS WORDS. "I am not so much interested in the power," said "I ask for no favors and I expect none. I come to tell the nation the truth and the whole truth. It is necessary for the salvation of the nation that I should do so."
