Mrs. J. C. Garret of New York City. Mrs. J. C. Garret, 35 W. 117th street, New York City, writes the following about Peruna: "I have for years suffered with catarrh, aggravated when I took cold, and Peruna cured me. It is a great medicine."—Mrs. J. C. Garret.

Mrs. Frederick Williams of Chicago. Mrs. Frederick Williams, president of the South Side Ladies' Aid Society, of Chicago, Ill., writes the following words of praise for Peruna from 675 Cuyler avenue, Chicago, Ill.

"Four bottles of Peruna completely cured me of catarrh of the head of several years' standing, and if my husband feels badly, or either of us catch cold, we at once take Peruna."—Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Lillian Smith of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Lillian Smith, 1238 Hancock street, Brooklyn, New York, writes: "I have used Peruna for a very bad case of catarrh of the head with the best results, as I am entirely cured, having spent very large amounts of money on doctors and medicine without any profit."—Mrs. Lillian Smith.

Mrs. C. Didion of New York. Mrs. C. Didion, 2078 Eighth avenue, New York, says:

"I have used Peruna for a very bad case of catarrh of the head, thanks to Peruna. "The full feeling and terrible noise in the head has disappeared. "My trouble began with a cold in the head; my nose ran for a day continually and I would awake with a terrible headache in the morning. "The doctor consulted gave me something to relieve the pain, but it left my head stopped up."—Mrs. C. Didion.

Mrs. Theophile Schmitt of Illinois. Mrs. Theophile Schmitt, wife of the secretary of the German consulate, writes the following letter to Dr. Hartman in regard to Peruna:

5417 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill. Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—I suffered this winter with a severe attack of la grippe, and having repeatedly heard of the value of Peruna in such cases, I thought I would try it. I used it faithfully, and began to feel a change for the better the second day, and in the course of a week I was very much improved. After using three bottles I not only found the la grippe had disappeared, but my general health was much better. I am satisfied that Peruna is a wonderful family remedy and gladly endorse it. Yours, Mrs. Theophile Schmitt.

Mrs. Emma Holmes of Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Emma Holmes, of 216 Chestnut street Station A, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have been convinced, long ago that there is no medicine equal to Peruna. I think Peruna the best and most invigorating medicine, and it certainly does full justice to what it is claimed to do. If only more women would try it they would be convinced."—Mrs. Emma Holmes.

Mrs. Clara Makemer of Illinois. Mrs. Clara Makemer, housekeeper for the Florence Crittenden Anchorage Mission, writes from 302 Chestnut street, Chicago, Ill., as follows: "After repeated use of Peruna and carefully noting the results, I can only speak of its medicinal value in the highest terms. I have also used it in cases of female irregularities and weak nerves common to the sex, and have found it most satisfactory. Peruna deserves the confidence of all."—Clara Makemer.

Mrs. Worrell of Massachusetts. Mrs. R. E. Worrell, 100 Orleans street, Boston, Mass., writes: "I was troubled for five years with catarrh and it costs me a great deal of money for doctors, until I read in the papers about Peruna. I am now on the second bottle and am entirely well."—Mrs. R. E. Worrell.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood of Washington. Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the eminent barrister of Washington, D. C., has the following to say of Peruna: "I have used your Peruna both for myself and my mother, Mrs. Hanna J. Bennett, now in her 88th year, and I find it an invaluable remedy for cold, catarrh, hay fever and kindred diseases; also a good tonic for feeble and old people."—Mrs. Belva Lockwood.

Mattie B. Curtis of Boston, Mass. Mattie B. Curtis, secretary Legion of Loyal Women, Boston, Mass., writes: "I suffered for over a year with general weakness and debility, manifested especially in severe headache and hoarseness. I was advised to try Peruna. I have taken four bottles and feel entirely free from these troubles."—Mattie B. Curtis.

Mrs. M. C. Cooper of England. Mrs. M. C. Cooper, of the Royal Academy of Arts of London, England, now residing in Washington, D. C., is one of the greatest living sculptors and painters of the world. She says: "I take pleasure in recommending Peruna for catarrh and la grippe. I have suffered for months and after the use of one bottle of Peruna I am entirely well."—Mrs. M. C. Cooper.

Miss Maggie Becker of Appleton, Wis. Miss Maggie Becker of 655 Lake street, Appleton, Wis., writes as follows in regard to Peruna: "It is with pleasure I recommend Peruna as a splendid tonic to any overtaxed person. I have also found a relief in cases of severe headache and pain in the chest caused by colds. We are never without it at home and outside it is a household blessing."—Maggie Becker.

Miss Dade Stegeman of Illinois. Miss Dade Stegeman, superintendent of the Chicago North Side Woman's Club, writes as follows about Peruna from No. 19 Lowell Place, Chicago, Ill.: "Peruna has often been used by members of our club in cases of stomach trouble and general debility—also recently in cases of la grippe, and always with the most beneficial results. I think a great deal of Peruna—often recommended it to my friends, and am glad to say all who have tried it speak a good word for it."—Dade Stegeman.

Miss Evelyn Morse of Minnesota. Miss Evelyn Morse, of 631 Adams street, Minneapolis, Minn., says: "I suffered for nearly three years with catarrh of the stomach. A friend advised me to try Peruna. After using it I cured me entirely of all my symptoms."—Evelyn Morse.

Miss Hanna of Washington. Miss Nellie Hanna, niece of Senator Mark A. Hanna, writes the following letter from 1321 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C.: "I used your Peruna as a tonic, and I take pleasure in recommending it to all sufferers. I have also used it for dyspepsia with very best results."—Miss Nellie Hanna.

Miss Rose Cullen of Montana. Miss Rose Cullen, President of the Young Woman's Club, Butte, Montana, writes: "While finishing school I became very nervous and exhausted from over-study. I was weak and sick, and could neither eat, sleep, nor enjoy life. A couple bottles of Peruna put new life in me."—Rose Cullen.

Miss Alvina Groth of Wisconsin. Miss Alvina Groth, 850 College avenue, Appleton, Wis., writes: "Peruna is a fine medicine to take any time of the year, but I find it particularly helpful to withstand the wearing effects of excessive heat and summer colds. I have now used it off and on for about two years."—Miss Alvina Groth.

Miss Anna Wells, M. D., of Illinois. Dr. Anna Wells, writing from the Park Gate Hotel, Chicago, Ill., says: "A nervous shock received by my daughter two years ago prostrated her. All the consultations and advice of brother physicians have done no good until Peruna was advised. "She can now eat heartily of solids—she had not been living, but dying on liquids; menstruation, easy and comfortable; had suffered from dysmenorrhoea and ovaritis."—Anna Wells, M. D.

Mrs. W. B. Krause of Wisconsin. Mrs. W. B. Krause of Port Washington, Wis., in a recent letter to Dr. S. B. Hartman, says: "Your Peruna has cured my catarrh and suffering which I had in my back, and bearing-down pains. I am very thankful for Peruna, as it has cured me where other medicines have failed. I will always speak a good word for Peruna."—Mrs. W. B. Krause.

Miss Florence Allan of Illinois. Miss Florence Allan, a beautiful Chicago girl, writes the following from 75 Walton Place: "As a tonic for a worn-out system, Peruna stands at the head in my estimation. Its effects are truly wonderful in rejuvenating the entire system. I keep it on hand all the time and never have that 'tired feeling' as a few doses always makes me feel like a different woman."—Florence Allan.

Mrs. G. Briggs of Minnesota. Mrs. G. Briggs, Treasurer and Conductor of the William Downs Relief Corps, No. 43, of the W. R. C. of the State of Minnesota, writes the following from 2419 Central avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.: "My health was completely broken down from over-work. My appetite was lost, my sleep fitful and I found no relief from the prescriptions of doctors. On the advice of friends I tried Peruna and before finishing the second bottle I was completely restored."—Mrs. G. Briggs.

Miss Bertha Fischer of Wisconsin. Miss Bertha Fischer, a popular young woman of Appleton, Wis., writes of Peruna as follows: "I have found Peruna a wonderful remedy for catarrh of the respiratory organs which I had for several months, and which nothing else I tried seemed to cure. I have taken a couple of doses since each week during the winter and I find it keeps me from contracting any colds, and my general health has been unusually good this entire winter, due, I firmly believe, to the health-giving qualities of your wonderful remedy."—Miss Bertha Fischer.

Miss Annie Wyandotte of Missouri. Miss Annie Wyandotte, of Kansas City, Mo., dramatic soprano, writes Dr. Hartman the following letter: "Peruna has been my salvation. It has given me back a beautiful voice—a gift of God; it has brought me once more to my old profession. I can talk now, and sing, where before I could scarcely whisper. Peruna restored my health and voice."—Miss Annie Wyandotte.

Miss Mary J. Kennedy of Chicago, Ill. Miss Mary J. Kennedy, manager of the Armour & Co.'s exhibit, Trans-Mississippi Exposition, Omaha, writes the following from 842 W. 42d St., Chicago, Ill.: "I found the continual change of diet incidental to eight years' traveling upset my digestive system. I decided to try Peruna and soon found myself well repaid. I have used it for three months and feel rejuvenated."—M. J. Kennedy.

Mrs. Della Friedle of Ohio. Mrs. J. Friedle, 30 Harper street, Cleveland, O., writes: "Peruna has cured me of catarrh and rheumatism. I thank Peruna and no other medicine for my present good health."—Mrs. Della Friedle.

Miss Julia Marlowe of New York. Miss Julia Marlowe, the clever actress of New York City, has the following to say in a recent letter to the Peruna Medicine Company: "I am glad to write my endorsement of the great remedy, Peruna, as a nerve tonic. I do so most heartily."—Julia Marlowe.

Miss Alvina Groth of Wisconsin. Miss Alvina Groth, 850 College avenue, Appleton, Wis., writes: "Peruna is a fine medicine to take any time of the year, but I find it particularly helpful to withstand the wearing effects of excessive heat and summer colds. Miss Blanche Myers of Kansas City. Miss Blanche Myers, 3120 Penn street, Kansas City, Mo., has the following to say of Peruna: "During each of the past four seasons I have caught a severe cold when suddenly chilled after an evening party, and catarrh for several weeks would be the result. One bottle of Peruna cured me and I shall not dread colds any more as I did."—Blanche Myers.

Mrs. A. S. Tippie of Minnesota. Mrs. A. S. Tippie, 148 Linden avenue, Minneapolis, Minn., writes as follows: "Last winter in taking a journey in very severe weather I caught a cold which settled on my lungs, developing a severe case of catarrh of the respiratory organs. My family physician gave me only temporary relief, when my son advised me to try Peruna. I sent for a bottle and in two days the cough had nearly disappeared and within a week I felt better than ever."—Mrs. A. S. Tippie.

Mrs. Anna Wells, M. D., of Illinois. Dr. Anna Wells, writing from the Park Gate Hotel, Chicago, Ill., says: "A nervous shock received by my daughter two years ago prostrated her. All the consultations and advice of brother physicians have done no good until Peruna was advised. Mrs. Mary Shanks of Marshall, Okla. Mrs. Mary Shanks of Marshall, Okla., writes: "Peruna is the best medicine on earth. It has cured me of catarrh that I have had for seven years and I only took six bottles. When I wrote you for advice I had frontal headache, stringy mucus in the throat, my stomach bloated often, and bowels irregular. Now I am cured."—Mrs. Mary Shanks.

Miss Anna Carsten of Clayton, Ill. Miss Anna Carsten of Clayton, Ill., writes the following letter in regard to Peruna: "Your Peruna did me so much good I believe I should have been dead if this time had I not used it. I am feeling so well now. I have not taken any medicine for four or five months."—Miss Anna Carsten.

Mrs. Katherine of North Dakota. Mrs. J. L. Katherine of Boston, North Dakota, writes: "Having made up my mind to try Peruna for my health I got a bottle and after using it I was so well pleased that I purchased three more. I was suffering with catarrh of the head and throat and was in pain from head to foot, but improved materially by the use of Peruna."—Mrs. J. L. Katherine.

Mrs. Jennie Robb-Maher of Kansas. Mrs. Jennie Robb-Maher, attorney-at-law and president of the Equal Suffrage Association of Kansas City, Kan., writes thus of Peruna: "Some of my friends have suffered with chronic catarrh and Peruna cured them. The treasurer of our association, Miss Hattie Reichenecker, is using it for catarrh of the stomach and by her physician's advice is taking it with the very best results. "I know by personal experience of its value. I endorse it."—Mrs. Robb-Maher.

Miss Emma Herziger of Wisconsin. Miss Emma Herziger of Neenah, Wis., says: "Last year my system was completely run down and our family physician suggested that I take a journey to recuperate. "My sister-in-law then told me to try Peruna, first telling me how it had helped her. I did so, and found three bottles as good as three weeks' vacation. "I shall always speak well of Peruna."—Emma Herziger.

Mrs. J. L. Katherine of North Dakota. Mrs. J. L. Katherine of Boston, North Dakota, writes: "Having made up my mind to try Peruna for my health I got a bottle and after using it I was so well pleased that I purchased three more. Miss Frances M. Anderson of Washington. Miss Frances M. Anderson, Corresponding Secretary of the Higher Educational League, writes from the Astoria, Wash., D. C., the following: "About two months ago I was taken very ill with la grippe and was obliged to go to bed. I took three bottles of Peruna with very beneficial results and was able to leave my bed in a week."—Frances M. Anderson.

Mrs. Mary Goerbing of Wisconsin. Mrs. Mary Goerbing of Medford, Wis., says: "I take great pleasure in acknowledging the curative powers of Peruna. As a nerve tonic, a gentle stimulant to a sluggish system, and as an appetizer and restorer of lost strength and vitality of worn-out women, it is very superior."—Miss Mary Goerbing.

Miss Angie Reinert of Minnesota. Miss Angie Reinert, Inner Guard "Daughters of Herman," No. 14, in a recent letter from No. 2 Fifth street, Minneapolis, Minn., says: "A couple of years ago I was supposed to be dying with consumption. I did not think I would live through another winter. "I read of the cures of Peruna and I made up my mind to try it. The first bottle helped my appetite. I kept on, determined to give it a good trial and before the second month had passed my lungs began to heal. I am glad to say I am as strong as ever."—Angie Reinert.

Mrs. Sextus Ross of Marshall, Ill. Mrs. Sextus Ross of Marshall, Ill., writes: "For several years I was troubled very badly with catarrh of the head, having headache almost constantly. The discharge from the catarrh, which made my breath very bad, kept dropping in my throat. I took Peruna and have never felt better in my life."—Mrs. Sextus Ross.

Mrs. M. A. Allison of Chicago. Mrs. M. A. Allison of 759 Sheffield avenue, Chicago, Ill., is the assistant matron of the People's Hospital. She has the following to say of Peruna: "I have had frequent opportunities to observe the wonderful curative effects of Peruna, especially on persons suffering with a congested condition of the head, lungs and stomach, generally called catarrh."—Mrs. M. A. Allison.

Mrs. Arthur L. Hamilton of Ohio. Mrs. Arthur L. Hamilton, wife of Colonel Hamilton of the Seventh regiment, O. V. I., writes from 259 Goodale street, Columbus, Ohio, the following: "I can bear testimony as to the merits of Peruna. I have been taking it for some time and as a result better health than I have for some years. I attribute the change to Peruna and recommend the remedy to every woman, believing it to be especially beneficial to them."—Mrs. Arthur L. Hamilton.

Mrs. Fleaharty of Illinois. Mrs. Anna B. Fleaharty writes from 401 Sixty-seventh street, W. Chicago, Ill.: "My health failed me a few years ago, and I seemed to lose health and spirit. "One of my neighbors advised me to try Peruna. A bottle was immediately secured and a great change took place in my daughter's, as well as my own health. Our appetites improved very greatly, the digestion seemed much helped, and restful sleep soon improved us, so that we seemed like new women. "I would not be without Peruna for ten times its cost, and cannot speak in too high terms of its value as medicine of wonderful curative properties."—Mrs. Anna B. Fleaharty.

Mrs. Mary Shanks of Marshall, Okla. Mrs. Mary Shanks of Marshall, Okla., writes: "Peruna is the best medicine on earth.
