Raging at Newport is Through Water Averaging Foot Deep.

FINISH IS NEARLY A SWIMMING MATCH

Homestretch Like a Lake, but All Horses Knew Their Feet Except Two Which Ducked Their Riders.

CINCINNATI, April 25.—A new and novel record was established at the Newport track today that will go down in racing history as the only one of the kind. Six races were run over a track averaging a foot of water and in some places deeper. It was accomplished without serious accident to horse or rider. When the patrons of the track arrived on the grounds they were surprised to find the homestretch for about seventy yards completely inundated and also part of the back stretch covered with water. The horses and the jockeys were completely drenched in the water during the day and thousands cheered the riders as they rode through the water. The first race, five furlongs, selling; Fairy Bell won, flying third second. Time: 1:27. Second race, eleven-sixteenths of a mile, selling; Maggie W. won, Fairy Day second. Time: 1:14. Third race, handicap, one mile and a sixteenth; Castine won, Donna Seay second. Time: 1:59. Fourth race, one mile, selling; Sarah Gamp won, Eou second. Time: 1:32. Fifth race, six furlongs; Montana Pioneer won, Follow second. Time: 1:23. Sixth race, six furlongs, selling; Maxeta won, Julius Werner second. Time: 1:24.

ASK FOR AUTOPSY ON SMITH

Roberts and Officials of National Sporting Club Held on Charge of Manslaughter. LONDON, April 25.—Nat Smith, brother of Billy Smith, and to a representative of the Associated Press tonight. The National Sporting club is determined, it is possible to secure an autopsy, for we are sure that it is certain that my brother was given something to drink at the end of the eighth round and after that he was utterly unconscious. He had the right wrist on the ring and stagger about the ring and fell unconscious. He never got up again. It is a difficult matter to prove as everybody has been interested in hushing up the scandal, but I shall have my say at the inquest.

PROGRESS ON THE SHAMROCK

Outfitting is to End Saturday if Weather Continues Fair. Copyright, 1901, by Press Publishing Co. LONDON, April 25.—New York World Cablegram Special Telegram.—The Shamrock special correspondent at Glasgow telegraphs that the workmen made good progress today with the chugging, ending rigging and deck fittings. If the weather continues fair, the outfitting will be completed by Saturday and the yacht will be floated to the designer's marks ready and in time to start on her voyage to the west coast of America. The yacht is not in its marks yet, after a whole season's sailing. Lipton has deferred coming north in consequence of the delay, until tomorrow.
