

PULL THE GRIZZLIES' CLAWS

Rourke's Men Put Well-Played Game to the Credit of Omaha.

ALL DONE IN THE FIRST FOUR INNINGS

Lanzon Heads Off a Run, but Collides with Preston, Disjoints a Finger and Goes Out of the Playing.

DENVER, May 4.—(Special Telegram)—Omaha handed Meredith a bunch of singles, two and three-spots and a homer in the first four innings and took a well-played game from the Grizzlies today.

Graham was very wild at first and after filling the bases in the first inning by bases on balls and a man hit, he threw wild in trying to catch a runner at the plate. Lanzon got the ball in time to stop the second Denverite from scoring, but had a collision with Preston. A finger was disjointed and Lanzon took his place.

The champions could not touch Graham after the fifth and had been steady the score would have been 5 to 0. Score: Omaha, 5; Denver, 0.

WINS THE METROPOLITAN

Mackay's Banastar Beats the Contender a Head in the Biggest Crowd in Year.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The biggest crowd since the season in 1892 was attracted to Mackay's Banastar with the Metropolitan handball at Morris Park today. In a fierce drive he beat Contester a head, while the 3-year-old, Allgreen, was third, a length away. The time, 1:32, was only a trifle better than the feature of the opening day meeting of the Westchester Racing Association. From 10 o'clock until the first race was called crowds poured into the track and by the time the first classic nature of the eastern racing season was run there were fully 25,000 people present. A better day could not have been desired. At the close of the betting Star Bright, owned by W. C. Whitney, was settled upon as the favorite at odds of 4 to 1, while Banastar went to the post at 12 to 1.

The first break was a bad one. Banastar started with a lead of three lengths and got away in good order, and Unmasked took the running and rushed up the back stretch to Helobas close, and made only separating them. Contester was the next in order, while Banastar was in the turn of the withers mile Odum began to make his move on Banastar and he was the first to turn into the stretch Banastar had showed the lot down one by one until he was at the saddle after the flying leaders, and Odum held him there for the final run through the stretch. NEBRASKA UNIVERSITY WINS

Doctors Do Up the Osteopaths at Des Moines by Score of Sixteen to Six.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 4.—(Special Telegram)—Nebraska university defeated another scalp to her belt today by taking the osteopathy students of Still college into camp. The victory was a 16 to 6 score. The doctors were due mostly to the ragged work of Nebraska's infield. It was considerably out of the league until the fifth, when Rhodes and Townsend to third. The fine work began in the first inning. Nebraska handed out three hits during the first three innings. The Rhodes party put the ball over the fence in the first inning. The doctors made a spurt on the start and piled up enough in this half to tie the score. Their runs were due mostly to errors of the scoundrel's infield. The doctors took the lead in the second by adding another to their first. They kept the lead until the fifth, when Captain Rhodes and his braves took a tumble to themselves and that happened was awful to realize. The battle of Omaha was a game affair in comparison. The home rubbers were nearly all out. The doctors made a hit the ball in a fearful manner. Two-baggers and three-sackers were common. Manager, Hester, knew just what he was doing and timed his bats to see who could hit the ball the farthest and run around the bases the fastest. When the procession halted for breath the score man checked up seven more runs to Nebraska's credit. The doctors took Fitcher Jones out and substituted Milliken, their famous southpaw. He kept the score man from scoring any more runs until the ninth, when they revived from their slumbers and administered the same dose of medicine to the doctors. They made the game at that time for Still to end the game at that time. Lincoln had six more runs to go. The doctors made a run in the sixth and another in the ninth. Score:
