STEER IS DRIVEN TO DEATH. Thomas Shay Held on the Charge of Malicious Killing. Thomas Shay was yesterday afternoon bound over to the district court by Justice Bryant on a charge of maliciously killing domestic cattle. His bond was fixed at $100 and he was released on the signature of his father being attached.

The cases against Gordon Bowers, Lyman offense and also for cruelty to animals, were dismissed at the request of the state and the prosecuting witness.

These four boys were charged with hav ing driven to death a yearling steer belonging to James R. Ellsworth, which was running near Sixteenth avenue and Thirteenth street last week. The boys set up the defense that they understood that the steer was astray and they wanted to take it up. After chasing it for some time the boys succeeded in putting a rope around the animal's neck, but it was so exhausted it died about an hour later.

The case against Shay was heard before Justice Bryant yesterday afternoon and a number of witnesses for the state told of the affair. When the hearing was concluded and the boy had been bound over at the suggestion of the state, the justice discharged the other boys, telling them that if there is any more chasing of cattle charged against them they will be prose cuted to the full extent of the law.

W. W. COLE'S SUIT FOR SALARY. client's bid was the lowest for the public Case of Suburban Motor Company to Reach Jury Today. The hearing of the case of W. W. Cole against the Suburban Motor company was concluded in the district court yesterday and the case will go to the jury this morning after Judge Wheeler has given his instructions.

Cole seeks to recover $1,638.81 due on salary and for some improvements made while he was manager of lake Manawa. Some improvement with the contract with Cole at wages of $50 a courts in other places. When his remark week was admitted by the defense. It was was challenged by Attorney McCabe the also admitted that Cole had been discharged alderman stated that he believed th against the salary claim was that Cole had not made diligent efforts to secure employment after his discharge and so was not entitled to the full amount for the term of his contract. The company also disputed the value of the improvements made. An amended and substitute petition was filed in the district court vesterday in the case of Joseph Scott against Isaac Ballard, L. Oliver Zorns and J. W. Pinnell, the plaintiff asking for $1,000 damages for false imprisonment on behalf of his father, V. H. Scott, and a like amount on his own account. He alleged that his father assigned his claim to him. The petition sets up that on October 23. 1899, while on a train enroute to St. Joseph, Mo., he with his father, V. H. Scott, was arrested at Pacific Junction by Ballard and Zorns at the instance of Pinnell and that no information or complaint was ever character and his reputation. The case of H. L. Tinley, administrator, against the Omaha & Council Bluffs Ratiway and Bridge company, has been moving along on the district court calendar and made the special order for Friday, owing to the enforced absence of the company's attorney. This is the suit brought against the company for the killing of the Stein child on Broadway last June.

In consequence of this change a rearrangement of the other cases set for this week was necessary and the calendar now stands as follows: Tuesday, Martin against Baker; Wednesday, Northwall against Mc-Kesson et al.; Thursday, Wolfson against Allen Bros.; Friday, Tinley, administrator, against Omaha & Council Bluffs Raftway and Bridge company.

An amended petition has been filed in the ase of Mrs. J. A. Lett against the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company, to correct the designation of directions in the original petition.

PAVING AND UNION LABEL

Familiar Topics Are Again Discussed by the Conneil Bluffs Aldermen.

Brick paving in general, especially the work on the streets in the Fourth ward. ordered at the meeting of the council a week ago, was discussed at the meeting last night. Aldermen McDonald and pany and will go as soon as possible to Lougee attempted to convince the council Richmond, Va., to take a similar position that a mistake had been made in orderthat a mistake had been made in ordering those streets paved with brick, but the W. B. Tarkington, thirteen years master majority was against them. The clerk was instructed to see that the minutes read that the paving was ordered on petition.

The contention of Aldermen McDonald and Lougee was that the majority claimed for brick on those streets was not a fair one, in that many agents had signed for people there is enough paving on band at present and remarks were made to the effect that That Mr. Dimmock has had this offer un- the work is not progressing rapidly on contracts let last year.

The city clerk was authorized to sign the petition for the paving of Sixth street with brick, on behalf of the city for the Baylis park frontage.

Contest Over Union Label. The requirement that the union label be placed on all city printing matter furwhose bid was rejected a week ago because they do not use the label.

Harlan McCabe, representing the firm, addressed the council at length, asserting that | the strikers. such a requirement is unconstitutional in that it involves the expenditure of an unconstruction in St. Louis, is largely his necessary amount of money and discriminates against all men who do not belong to a certain society which has no life in the yes of the law. He maintained that his printing and unless some proof of his incompetency be shown the council had no right to reject it.

A whispered consultation among the aldermen was punctuated with the reading of the ordinance. None of the city fathers appeared disposed to start any movement against the label. Alderman Boyer made the statement that the rule is merely one of the specifications governing the submission of bids and that ion had been carried to the highest court in the state of Indiana. The matter then went over without action, the attorney asserting that if given a week he would prove that no court in the land had upheld the ordinance

The city attorney was asked to prepare an opinion as to the city's right to alter the contract for the paving of Bluff street and Fifth avenue by the substitution of brick and sand base for the concrete. Dr. Woodbury presented a request for this change and Contractor Wickham stated that he had no objections.

Bills in Smallpox Case. The bills for the supplies furnished Rev. Henry DeLong while he was under smallpox quarantine were ordered paid through F. T. True, the purchasing agent, and the city attorney was authorized to institute proceedings for the collection of the amount, $50.49. The county board refused

o pay these bills on the ground that the patient has property. J. W. Squire & Co.'s bill in the sum of $30.50 for furnishing the names of the owners of seventy-four pieces of property on South Main street was referred to the OLD HIGH SCHOOL IS RETAINED Rooms to Be Opened There to Accommodate the Overflow.

The old High school building is not to e abandoned. The school board decided last night that two or more rooms shall be opened there for the overflow from the Pierce street, Washington avenue and Bloomer schools. The preparations are to be made for this before the next term of school.

The board also decided to make use of the old furniture in equipping the new High school building. Member Swaine for the building committee reported that 500 seats will be required for the new building. He also stated that this number of seats can be secured in the old building, which if re-dressed at a cost not to exceed 20 cents each will serve. The committee was instructed to have the seats prepared for the new building. A number of smaller seats in the old building, which can be used in the Sixth and Seventh grades, was included in the order. No provision was made for the seating of the auditorium, which will require 541 seats.

Mr. McGee of the firm of Pusey & Mc-Gee was named as appraisor for certain properties which the board is to self. He is to act in place of Chris Straub, formerly appointed, who is out of the city.

The contract for the slate blackboards for the new High school was awarded last night to the Dayton Slate and Easel company of Dayton, O., their price being 24% cents a square yard. They furnished their own specifications, the board adopting them in preference to those fernished to the bidders. The other bids ranged from 26% to 30 cents.
