HOUGHTON, Mich., May 10.-The passenger steamer Bon Voyage caught fire in Women's Fine Jersey Ribbed Umbrella Lake Superior tonight and was beached Drawers-lace trimmed, white only- near the Portage ship canal. A telephone message from Red Ridge, the village nearest the spot where the steamer was put Suits-Low neck, steeveless, umbrella on the shore, says that five passengers, all style, wide knees, trimmed with lace, women, were drowned in getting from the phy, the petitioner. Messrs. Critchfield boat to the shore. The rest of the passengers, all of them men, and the crew escaped in safety to the beach. The persons drowned were five members of the Altman family of Laurium. They included the grandmother, mother and the latter's three daughters. One daughter was grant a license, consequently it has been rescued.

The burning steamer was first sighted at 9 o'clock. It was then several miles out from the shore and was headed for the beach. The steamer was burning flercely, but was apparently in control of the crew. The steamer struck the bottom nearly a mile from land, owing to the shoal water. Observers from a distance failed to see the lifeboats lowered, but they must have been used to aid the passengers and crew who escaped. The steamer is now seen to be wrapped in fire from bow to stern and will probably be a total loss. The Bon Voyage was owned by Singer's White Line Transportation company of Duluth and is 153 feet long by thirty feet beam.

From over the sands of Nebraska and lowa the subjects of the tiger claws and the wearers of the fez traveled Friday until they arrived at the oasis of Omaha and in the temple of Tangiers they found welcome at the hands of those who acknowledge allegiance to the sway of the Mystic Shrine. With the travelers from afar came many neophytes, asking for enlightenment and guidance on the road across the desert. They were served, for last night was held the first ceremonial session of Tangler temple of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, of the present century,

There was a business session earlier in the day and at 8 o'clock the work of guid. ing the weary travelers along the trackless paths of the desert to the eternal and sweet fountains of Zem-Zem began. There were forty-one strangers in the caravan and each one of them was of that inquiring turn of mind which delights the wearers of the fez and tiger claws. The work continued until midnight, when the entire party sa down to a feast in the banquet hall of the Masonic temple.

Here the viands from every casis were mingled with the waters from the celebrated fountain which sparkle and foam and the tired and enlightened travelers partook of refreshments, both gastronomic and vocal. There was no set program for the toasts, the responses being made at the suggestion of the toastmaster at first, and as the merriment increased there came a question whether the toastmaster was to call upon the speaker or the speaker was to announce that his time had come to talk. The waters of Zem-Zem made prophets and seers, orators and noets from material which would be considered unavailable under ordinary circumstances, and with 100 self-confessed famous after-dinner speakers present at one banquet there is no necessity for astonishment at the fact that the fountain ran dry before the Bedouins were Mood's Sarsaparilla Promises to Cure and Keeps the Promise.

"I have been taking Hood's Sarsaprilla in the spring for that tired feeling and find it a good medicine."-Sue E. Taylor, Beloit, Ohio.

"I was tired all the time, had no appetite, my stomach was sore and I had a great deal of headache. The doctor said I must quit work and it was thought I could not live long. Friends advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking one bottle I was a great deal better and after taking four I was feeling as well as ever. Now, at the age of 60 years, I do all my work and I thank Hood's Sarsaparilla for my good health."-Mrs. J. W. Custer, McFarland, Wis.
