AT ANOTHER ENCAMPMENT

President Addresses Veterans of California and Nevada.

SHOWN WHERE SHERMAN COURTED

Cabinet Members Visit Monterey and See the House There and the General and His Sweetheart Planted Long Ago.

DEL MONTE, Cal., May 11.—The president and his party enjoyed comparative quiet today. They came here for two days of rest to prepare for the trying program laid out for them next week at San Francisco, and the president and Mrs. McKinley spent the major portion of the day in their rooms at the hotel. This afternoon, immediately after luncheon, the party was driven over to Monterey, two miles from the hotel, and the president made a brief speech. The entire population of this historic old town, the capital of the republic of California, turned out to welcome him and there was the usual profuse display of flowers. The speaker took place at the point where the standard of the republic was first raised in California.

The party then continued the journey to Pacific Grove, a small neighboring town, where the annual encampment of the Department of California and Nevada, Grand Army of the Republic, is being held, and here the president met his old comrades. He was introduced to them by George M. Nett, department commander of California, and although he addressed them at first in a light vein, he was visibly moved as he proceeded and spoke of the perils and sacrifices they had endured together.

It had been the intention of the president to take the famous seventeen-mile drive along the ocean front afterward, but Mrs. McKinley was indisposed and he decided to return to the hotel.

The members of the cabinet, however, enjoyed the long drive through the vast park of 20,000 acres. It is a natural park filled with ancient moss-grown cypresses and live oaks, and abounds in deer and game of all kinds. Along the coast the party saw a herd of seals on the rocks, and Secretary Hitchcock called the attention of the party to a whale about sixty feet long spouting off about a third of a mile. On the return trip a big rookery in Monterey was pointed out by a guide, who said that it grew from a little bush General Sherman and his sweetheart had planted there years ago when he was a lieutenant serving in the Department of the Pacific.

Later the president held an informal reception in the hotel parlors at which the guests of the hotel were present. Tomorrow the party will rest here quietly. The president and Mrs. McKinley will probably attend church in Monterey.

GOVERNOR NASH IN 'FRISCO

He and the Ohio Congressional Delegation Arrive to Await Battleship's Launching.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—George K. Nash, governor of Ohio, and party, arrived here this evening. The party was met at the station by the reception committee of the Ohio Society of California and escorted to the Palace hotel, where an informal reception was given.

ception was had. Tonight Governor Nash attended the theater. The train carrying the Ohio congressional delegation arrived one hour ahead of the governor's train. The visiting congressmen were met by a committee in carriages and taken to a hotel. Governor Nash and party will go to San Jose tomorrow afternoon.

CLASH AMONG OHIO PEOPLE

Gubernatorial Party in California Not Happy in Its Connection with President's Train.

DEL MONTE, Cal., May 11.—The Ohio people who are on their way to San Francisco to see the launching of the battleship Ohio are not having the lovely time they anticipated. The Ohio congressmen and Governor Nash have clashed over a question of precedence and harmony is wanting. The people of California have been very cordial in their reception of the Ohio party, but naturally President McKinley has received the most attention, and Governor Nash and his party, who are traveling on a separate train, have been a little in the background. At Los Angeles it was all McKinley and the Ohio gubernatorial party felt slighted.

The special bearing Governor Nash and the Ohio people arrived here before daybreak and joined the presidential party. The chagrin that the party expressed over its alleged mistreatment at Los Angeles became so intense during the last twenty-four hours and broke out into open revolt at conferences in the Hotel Del Monte. The special cars bearing the Ohio congressmen were attached to the Ohio special at Los Angeles. This seemed to add to the ill feeling of the governor's party, who claimed that they had been an annexed section to the presidential party and now were given third place. The congressmen seemed equally dissatisfied with the new arrangement and it was finally decided that the congressmen would travel hereafter as they had done before reaching Los Angeles.

The cars of the congressmen were accordingly taken out of the Ohio special here and they left for San Francisco at 2 p. m. for San Francisco.

WILL CALL OUT EVERY MAN

Union Leaders in Buffalo Again Demand Removal of All In-lair Lumber.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 11.—Another attempt, made this evening, to arrest booms in the manufacturers and liberal arts buildings at the Pan-American exposition grounds with lumber from non-union mills has again brought on a crisis between the unions and the exposition officials. It was believed when the men who struck yesterday returned to work this morning that the matter had been adjusted. Tonight, however, the millowners whose lumber was removed from the grounds this morning returned with a force of men and began the erection of a booth for which they had a contract with an exhibitor. Word was at once sent to Director General Buchanan, who ordered the work stopped.

MACHINISTS WANT A RAISE

Union Votes to Make Demand of National Metal Association, Affecting 3,500 Men.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Eight hundred members of the Machinists' union tonight voted to demand of the National Metal Manufacturers' association an increase of salary of 12 1/2 per cent on the existing scale of wages. The new scale is to become effective on May 20, on which date the law of the machinists making nine hours a day's work is to go into operation throughout the country.

The decision reached tonight affects 2,500 men in and around Chicago. There is no likelihood of a strike, because of an agreement of the men with the bosses which makes arbitration compulsory.

Voters Employers' Liability Bill. ALBANY, N. Y., May 11.—Governor Odell has vetoed the employers' liability bill. He says the measure is not in the interest of labor and is too drastically in favor of the corporations.

MAYOR AS A PEACEMAKER

Maybury of Detroit Fixes It Up Between Andrews and the Public.

MAKES A SPEECH FROM BAWDEN'S WAGON

Appropriates the Single Taxers' Own Rostrum Long Enough to Announce What Police Director Had Decided On.

DETROIT, May 11.—Mayor Maybury and Director of Police Frank Andrews held a conference today, which resulted in a peaceful solution of the matters which have been disturbing the public mind here since Mr. Andrews became the head of the police department. Mr. Andrews agreed that he would take no action relative to the suppression of the speech on the campus by single tax orators or others without consulting the mayor. The mayor announced he would make a speech on the campus tonight. As a result, about 7,000 people gathered there to hear him. There were no police present and there was no disorder. Mr. Maybury addressed the crowd from Tom Bawden's single tax wagon and urged the people to make no demonstration such as was witnessed last night. He said it was not the intention of the authorities to restrict free speech. He said he was sure the people of Detroit were orderly and law-abiding, and that they would do as he wished. The crowd gave him several hearty cheers and gradually dispersed before the single taxer, who followed Maybury, had time to return to his apartment.

STILL CLAIM POSSESSION

Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Maintain that They Control the Northern Pacific.

NEW YORK, May 11.—A representative of the Harriman syndicate made the following statement today: "In spite of all that may be said and printed to the contrary, we stand on our assertion of the last few days that we believe possession of Northern Pacific railroad is now held by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. We may take some time to prove this, and it is even possible that some legal trick may be devised to wrest control from us. At this time, however, there is no doubt in our minds that we are in power. As far as the Burlington deal goes, that is only indirectly involved in the Northern Pacific controversy, and we believe it will go through in due time."

The Commercial Advertiser prints the following interview with James J. Hill: "Mr. Hill is the trouble between the Northern and the Union Pacific settled," asked a reporter.

"There is no question of trouble. I myself never had any doubt that in the end we should come out all right. And this trouble was not fomented by me. I did not speculate myself in a single share, and the shares of the Great Northern and of the Northern Pacific which I have today I shall keep, if I can, until I doomsday. The troubles which have been caused by this 'dispute' on the papers, it has been fomented by the papers themselves. When we who are concerned can get together and talk matters over, the differences will not be so great as they appear. They will not be impossible of settlement. But, look at the ruin that has been done."

Mr. Hill paused and turned half around. When he turned back there were tears in his eyes.

"I have received lots of letters," he said, "from friends of mine—men and women—who are not rich and are comparatively poor. They know that I was interested personally and largely in my properties and they had faith in them and in me. Now they are completely ruined and simply because they have been caught in the vortex of a gamble. Yet they bought their shares in good faith."

"Mr. Hill," asked the reporter, "do you not think that the community of interests, principle or idea is having a pretty severe trial just now?"

"Well, yes—that I cannot talk about now. I feel too much grieved over the situation. This very morning I got a letter from the wife of a friend of mine, telling me of the losses to her family. I repeat that this trouble has not been of my making and no one regrets it more than I do."

"Will the trouble end soon?"

"Yes, if common sense prevails, yes."

Mr. Hill told a reporter of a news bureau that there was no truth in reports circulated to the effect that he and J. P. Morgan desired to secure control of the Union Pacific. "There is nothing in that story," said Mr. Hill.

Postal Wins Right of Way

SALT LAKE, Utah, May 11.—The state supreme court has rendered a decision in favor of the Postal Telegraph company in its suit for a right-of-way over the line of the Oregon Short Line railroad from Salt Lake northward to the Idaho-Utah state line. Nominal damages in the sum of $100 are awarded to the railroad company. Similar suits are now pending on appeal in the Idaho and Montana federal courts.

L. F. Loree to Be President

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—The Evening Telegraph today prints the following: L. F. Loree, fourth vice president of the Pennsylvania company, and general manager of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, is to be named within the next few days as president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. J. C. Stuart, general superintendent of the road, is expected to succeed Loree.

WISE HOTEL MAN

Wife Put Him Right.

All hotel men, as a rule, are healthy, but once in a while they are subject to stomach trouble like the ordinary mortal, and it is interesting to know what they do to provide themselves with proper food. In the case of Mr. McKee of the Wheeler House, Howard, S. D., he finally got down to Grape-Nuts Food alone, and lived on it for a little over six months. He speaks of some wheat foods and other cereals that he could not digest, but Grape-Nuts is predigested and easy for the weakest kind of a stomach, so that he got well on it.

He writes at length, giving a description of his years of sickness and his final cure by food. He says he had become completely discouraged, as he could not retain any food and digest it. Finally his wife heard of Grape-Nuts Food and urged him to eat some of it and nothing else.

"I quickly began to gain in flesh and my skin took on another color. I stuck to Grape-Nuts and nothing else for over six months. I gained twenty-five pounds, began to sleep naturally, and have gotten quite well."

"After a while I began to eat plain food again and felt no distress. The Grape-Nuts regulated my bowels and cured me of the old headache."

The makers do not advise the use of Grape-Nuts Food alone, except in extreme cases like this. It is better, as a rule, to make the breakfast of three or four heaping teaspoonsful of Grape-Nuts with some good rich cream, and to eat a little cooked fruit and some Postum Food Coffee. At midday have a little meal and some vegetables, and at night have the same meal as the breakfast. This sort of a diet will cure stomach and nervous troubles in 90 cases out of 100.

CHILDREN BURY THEMSELVES

Are Caught in a Wreck of Their Own Innocent Making.

ONE KILLED AND SEVEN OTHERS HURT

Chop Away Supports of Dilapidated Building in Chicago and Get Caught and Crushed by the Beams.

CHICAGO, May 11.—In their eagerness to procure firewood from a dilapidated two-story-and-basement frame structure in the rear of 62 Larrabee street, a number of children living in the neighborhood chopped the supports from beneath the rotted structure today. In the crash that followed one was instantly killed and seven others were carried with him beneath the debris. In all about fifteen children were caught beneath the falling walls. The dead: SAMUEL MARCECA, 7 years old. The injured: Paul Klaus, 14 years old; injured about the chest, head and shoulders. Barbara Ehrhardt, 12 years old; fracture of left leg and bruises about body. John Jurren, slightly bruised. G. Murphy, slightly bruised. John Naalen, 9 years old; contusion of the right leg. Will Penusky, 8 years old; fracture of the right leg.

It is believed all the injured will recover.

KUHN DOESN'T BACK DOWN

Member of Kuhn-Loeb Company Reasserts Positively Their Control of Northern Pacific.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Otto H. Kuhn of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. was asked today if he had any reply to make to the strictures of Mr. Hill. He replied: "No, I have nothing to say on the subject whatever."

"Does the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. still maintain that it has control of the Northern Pacific?" was asked.

"We reassert our assertion with positiveness that we have control of the Northern Pacific," replied Mr. Kuhn.

UNITED BRETHREN CELEBRATE

Centennial at Frederick Observes Their Church's Centennial.

FREDERICK, Md., May 11.—Today's session of the quadrennial conference of the United Brethren Church in Christ was presided over by Bishop J. S. Mills of Denver, Colorado.

Resolutions having in view the establishment of a home for the aged, a home for the orphan and a hospital for the afflicted members of the church were introduced and referred to the committees.

Rev. W. J. Shurey, business manager of the society, in his report showed that the debt, which was $20,000 four years ago, was $35,463 last March, a decrease of $18,963. The total receipts during the quadrennial were $139,570, and the total expenditures $125,943. The total assets on March 31 were $178,670, and the total indebtedness $32,442. Since closing this report a donation of $5,000 has been received from an anonymous friend, practically reducing the debt to $20,463.

This afternoon's session was devoted to centennial exercises, commemorating the anniversary of the church's birthday and a pilgrimage to the Peter Kemp farm, three miles west of Frederick, where the first conference was held. Two hundred and twenty delegates and alternates visited the scene of their early history, where a long praise service was held.

The centennial exercises in the city opera house was presided over by Rev. George Miller, D. D., of Carlisle, Ia., and the following program was rendered: Scripture reading, Rev. N. D. Stratton, Grand Rapids, Mich.; prayer, Rev. W. S. Nashinger, A. M., Chambersburg, Pa.; "The Heroism of Our Fathers," by Bishop J. W. Hunt, Dayton, O.; "The Church an Agency for the Spiritual Regeneration of Men," Rev. R. J. White, A. M., Buffalo, N. Y.; "The Concentration of Our Church Forces," Rev. W. C. Schuchman, D. D., H. A. Thompson, D. D.; "The History and Development of Education in Our Church," Bishop L. B. Keppart, D. D.; "The Imperative Need of a Cultural Ministry," G. A. Funder, D. D.; "The Problem of Our Missions," Rev. T. J. Sanborn, D. D.; "Bother, Sinner, of West Africa," Rev. J. C. Taylor, D. D.; "The Church and the World," Rev. J. C. Taylor, D. D.

The entire conference will go to Baltimore Tuesday, where the culminating exercises of the centennial will be held at Otterbein church.

During the service the four bishops of the denomination, Rev. J. W. Hunt, West Virginia, Rev. J. C. Taylor, West Africa, Rev. J. C. Taylor, West Africa, and Rev. J. C. Taylor, West Africa, will assemble at the tomb of Otterbein in the front part of the old church and hold a consecration meeting.

The church is 115 years old. Dr. Otterbein, its founder and first pastor, died in 1813.

The Centennial Memorial church, a handsome new brick edifice erected in honor of the occasion, will be dedicated tomorrow with imposing ceremonies, participated in by all the bishops and delegates.

WANT ALL INDIANA'S GAS

Deitrich Syndicate and American Glass Company Have a Little Absorption Scheme.

ANDERSON, Ind., May 11.—It is asserted here today that the Deitrich syndicate and the American Window Glass company have formed a pool to absorb all of the large natural gas companies of Indiana.

The syndicate controls the principal source of gas supply for several cities in the gas belt surrounding the Deitrich gas field. The company has for six months in the year more gas than it can use in its thirty factories in Indiana.

The reported scheme now is to connect all lines of the gas company and the glass are available to increase the supply at some weak points in the gas belt. Similar control rates for residences in various cities. The sale of the Northern Anderson Land and Gas company today to the American Window Glass company gives the syndicate and the gas company sole control of two-thirds of the gas consumed in and around this city. Some details are reported under way at Marion, Muncie, Elwood, Hartford City and Kokomo.

MOLINE COMPANY IS WILLING

Opposer of the Plowmakers' Combine Gives New York Capitalists a Chance to Buy.

MOLINE, Ill., May 11.—The Moline Plow company, owning the second largest plow factory in the world, has given an option to New York capitalists to buy the company within the limit of sixty days which will bring this concern into the $50,000,000 plow combine and make sure of its success. The company employs 1,000 men and the option is for upward of $5,000,000. The company has opposed the trust, but will sell rather than fight it.

C. H. Deere, president of Deere & Co., stated for the presidency of the combine, says that the stock panic has not affected the plan of the trust as feared, and he now contemplates the organization of the new company. No other farm implements but plows and related lines will be made by the combine, of which Moline will probably be the chief manufacturing point.

INVESTIGATE STEAMER FIRE

Inspectors Want to Know Losses Suffered in Destruction of the Bon Voyage.

HOUGHTON, Mich., May 11.—United States inspectors, York and Gooding of Marquette are holding an inquiry into the loss of the steamer Bon Voyage. The bodies of Mrs. Leah Sharp, aged 58; Mrs. B. Altman, her daughter, and Mary Altman were recovered today. Two bodies are still missing. Hattie Altman, aged 16, is the only child of the family, and she has graduated from the Duluth (Minn.) High school this year.

Families supplied. The Child Saving institute found homes for seven children during the last week. It now has on record 1,200 children, of whom girls, with ages ranging from 1 to 12 years,

CUTS WEATHERFORD TWICE

Charles A. Brown, Colored, Gets Even with Man Who Resented Insulting Remarks.

A gash in his right hip, three inches long and quite deep, and another of similar size in his left shoulder, are wounds that "Bud" Weatherford of Tenth and Nicholas streets received at 1:30 this morning from Charles A. Brown, colored, whom he had knocked down in the street at Fourteenth and Nicholas.

Weatherford says Brown made insulting remarks about Mrs. Weatherford as she and her husband passed him on their way home. Weatherford, after warning the colored man, whom he knew, forcibly resented the abuse. When Brown regained his feet he took quiet revenge with his knife, and when Mrs. Weatherford attempted to assist her husband he, too, Weatherford says, was struck and injured.

Emergency Officer Baldwin and Patrolman Ryan arrested Brown after beating him into submission, and he is now held, charged with cutting with intent to kill.

Weatherford was attended by Police Surgeon Ames, the wounds being not serious, but extremely painful.
