MUCH TIME SPENT AT COUNTRY CLUB

Revival of the saturday Evening Hops and a Number of Dinner Parties the Fenture of the Week Out There.

The Country club is once more the theme with the smart set and for the last week has been the scene of the majority of their operations as well. Even if the rain did interfere with the formal opening last Saturday, it was only a formality after all, and to those fortunate enough to be there before the storm commenced it seemed more like a continuation of last summer's pet diversion, the Saturday night hop. In reality, it was just that, and so immensely enjoyable did it prove that it has been decided to re-establish that institution. As Saturday afternoon usually attracts the largest crowd, arrangement has been made to serve dinner after the game to those who care to remain for the evening or the parties that come out from the city for dinner and the hop. At the first indication of fair weather last week, or even of a few hours suspension of the rain, there was a general start "out Benson way." At first the condition of the women at cards on Friday afternoon in ground made the game impossible, but there honor of her guests, Mrs. N. O. Lawton and were a score of other interesting features Mrs. Cogswell of Cedar Rapids and Mrs. C. and as many new golf suits, especially the E. Rausier of Independence, In. Six-handed red jackets, to be inspected, and as the early afternoon gatherings are largely composed of women, that was sufficient

Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons brought out large parties of golfers, dinners light refreshments were served, in which being served to about fifty yesterday evening. Mrs. A. L. Reed and Miss McShane each entertained dinner parties of eight, Mrs. Guiou, Mr. J. L. Paxton, Mr. G. H. Farmer, Mr. Fairfield and Mr. G. R. Voss being among the others that entertained

The hop in the evening was largely attended, proving the more enjoyable for its lack of formality.
