paper profits are growing like mushrooms, the desire to use one's surplus funds in such ventures is very strong; but when the bubble is pricked and the collapse has come and the profits and principal both are gone, the poor victims of stock manipulation wish they had put their money into something safe and sure.

The world possesses only one investment—REAL ESTATE—that can and does with-stand panics, that cannot be wrested from the owner at the whim or will of speculative pools, and which is always a sure safeguard against "the rainy day," A word to the wise is sufficient. J. S. K.

We submit the following for your con-sideration this week:

OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

A conductor who runs into Fulton, Ky., recently collected on his train a ticket from Cincinnati to Fulton which had been sold on December 21, 1892. The old man who presented it for passage said that just after he bought it he had heard of a wreck on the road and was afraid to get on the train. He never summoned up courage enough to use the ticket until last week.

At an auction book sale in New York a few days ago a volume described as "a vellow-dog-eared book, which an untutored eye might expect to find moldering in any old book store." was knocked down to the purchaser at $820. It was a copy of the first edition of "Paradise Lost," published in 1607. Milton sold the manuscript at £5, or £25, for the first 1,300 copies and five years later, in 1631, his widow sold all rights in the book for $40.

The fire losses in April in this country and Canada were light as compared with last year, the total being $11,300,000, as against $25,700,000 in 1900. The total heavy loss last year was occasioned by a most destructive configuration in Ottawa, which consumed property to the extent of $12,-000,000. Since January 1 the loss by fire is estimated at $56,900,000, or nearly $10,000,000 less than in the same period of last year.

Living representatives of four generations of one family are not very uncommon in the United States, but living representatives of four generations who all have the same birthday antiversary are surely not frequently met with. This is said to be true of the family of Mrs. Edith Ford, who resides on a farm near Greensburg, Ind. She is the great-grandmother, was born in Scott county, Kentucky, and is now 26 years old. Her husband died about ten years ago. Her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Strawback, is 56 years old, the next representative of the family is 36 years old. Their birthdays all fall on July 3.
