

CATTLE BRING GOOD PRICES

Shorthorn Sale at South Omaha Proves to Be Successful Venture.

STOCK FROM HERDS OF IOWA BREEDERS

Demonstration of the Fact that There is a Demand for Good Cattle—Practical Results Are Better Than Fancy Fads.

The sale of Shorthorn cattle held at the stock yard pavilion yesterday afternoon was one of the successful ones of the season and demonstrated the fact that good cattle will bring their value under the auctioneer's hammer, regardless of the so-called popular breeding.

The other, and one which is doubly of interest to Nebraska, is that forty-one of the sixty head were bought by Nebraska men. The highest prices of the sale were paid by Nebraska bidders.
