Maud Combs, a 16-year-old miss of Pacific Junction, became the wife of Delber Huey, 19 years old, a week ago Saturday the marriage being performed by a justice of the peace at Glenwood. The parent of the youthful bride interposed after the ceremony had been performed and the honeymoon has been ruthlessly interrupted The young wife is at the home of he parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Combs. a Pacific Junction, where, it is alleged, sh is being detained against her will. Applieation for a writ of habeas corpus directed against her parents was brough yesterday in the superior court of this cit; on behalf of the young woman and the hearing will be this afternoon by Judg

In the application for the writ it is recited that Mrs. Huey, shortly after the was induced by her mother to return wit her for the sole purpose of stopping ove the night and, relying upon this promis and with the consent of her husband, the youthful bride returned with her parent Continuing the recital of her troubles, the young woman alleges that once she was home she was not permitted to leave again and that her parents refused to let her husband visit or even see her.

It is understood that the parents of the young woman intend to take steps to have the marriage anulled, on the grounds that their daughter is under age and that false statement was made at the time the license was issued. The mother of the young man has been arrested, charged with making a false affidavit as to the girl's did so she did it unknowingly, being unable to secure the marriage license he took his mother with him, he being under age. Mrs. Huey was requested to sign a statement, which she did, believing, it is said, that she was simply signifying her willingness to the marriage of her son. It is alleged. however, that the statement she signed was as to the young woman being of age.

POTTAWATTAMIE A SURPRISE

Complete Returns of Assessors Show Good Gain in Valuation.

TOTAL IS ALREADY OVER TEN MILLIONS

With Railroad, Express and Electric Companies Added It Will Approximate Fourteen Millions-Comparisons in All Towns.

Complete returns by the assessors of the pated, a good increase in the taxable valuation of Pottawattamie county for 1901 as compared with 1899 and 1900. The returns of the assessors, including those for Council Bluffs and other towns throughout the county, show a taxable valuation of $10,878,635. These figures do not include telegraph and telephone companies, which are determined by the state board.

In 1899, when the last previous assessment of real estate was made, the total taxable valuation of the county was $12,835,614, made up as follows: W. H. Ramsey, the farmer who caused a disturbance in a Broadway restaurant Sunday evening, was fined $5 and costs in police court yesterday.

A special meeting of the Woman's auxiliary of Grace Episcopai church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 at the residence of Mrs. Atkins.

Returned by the assessors, being assessment of real estate and personal property, $9,773,773; railroad valuation, $1,424,-335; added by equalization, $1,637,506. BIDS FOR PAVING GO BACK.

City Council Decides Not to Open Any of Them. Attorney Paul Aylesworth, to whom the matter was referred, having reported that the petitions were insufficient, the city council last night decided to return unopened all bids received for the paving with vitrified brick of Sixth street from avenue from Pearl street to Eighth street, structed when returning the bids to notify the bidders of the reasons for such action on part of the council.

In his report Attorney Aylesworth, who was assisted in the investigation of the petition by City Engineer Etnyre, showed that on the petition for paving of Fifth avenue with a total frontage of 2,282 feet, signatures alone of owners of 120 feet were not subject to criticism. On Willow avenue sixty-nine feet of the total frontage of 817 feet appeared to bear the proper signature of the rightful owners. On Sixth street the frontage is 2,449 feet and of this only 517 feet was correctly represented on while the other signatures were open to subject to more or less criticism. Action on the resolution last introduced. calling for the paving of Tenth avenue, Third street, Worth street, Fairview avenue, south half of Park avenue, Third avenue. Fourth avenue and Vine street, was deferred until the next meeting. Several other matters connected with this batch of paving were also laid over, including number of protests.

The resolution introduced by the Federal Labor union, providing that eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers employed by the city and fixing their wages at $1.50 a day was adopted. A petition for the removal of the light tower on Fourth street and Broadway from a number of business men on the grounds condition and a menace to the public safety, was read, also a protest against its removal from other business men in the vicinity, who desired its retention. City Electrician Bradley explained the reasons why the tower cannot be adequately guyed so as to insure its absolute safety, and he recommended that it be taken down. J. est against its removal. (From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, June 3 .- (Special.) - The fifty-eighth annual communication of the grand lodge of Iowa, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, is in session at Davenport, the first business session to be held tomorrow morning. The holding of the grand lodge of Masons the same week as the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will detract somewhat from both, but the lodge session will be well attended. What is conspicuous with regard they may be for all the property offered. to the grand lodge meeting this year is the absence for the first time in the history of showing clear title and will make deets the grand lodge of the venerable secretary. Theodore S. Parvin, who is ill at his home in Cedar Rapids and does not expect to ever attend another session of the grand lodge. For forty-eight years he has been a prominent figure at every grand lodge meeting. The report which he makes as grand secretary will probably be his last. were taken to Perry today for preliminary trial. They acknowledged guilt and told of the case. They gave the names of John Slavin of Denver and George McKay of Chicago. Slavin says he did the shooting and says it was in self-defense, their story differing materially from that told by others who saw the affair at Perry. Friday night At the funeral sermon over the body of the murdered man, Rev. Roy Caldwell, pastor of the Christian church, delivered a startling sermon, charging the death to the use of whisky and declaring that the persons who sold the whisky and the city officials who permit its sale were equally guilty of murder.

The state executive council held a special meeting this morning and took steps toward ascertaining the value of lands in the state and the assessment on real estate in order that intelligent action may be taken when the council meets next month as a board of equalization. The secretary of the council will send a letter to all the county auditors of Iowa asking for a statement of lands transferred March 1, 1871, 1881, 1891 and 1901. After considerable discussion it was agreed that this was the best way of getting at the situation and ascertaining how the values of land had changed and what changes have been made in assessments The claim has been strongly made in the last two years that real estate is assessed out of all proportion to comparison with railroads. In preparing to act as a board of equalization this year the council will get as much information on the subject as possible in order that it may be possible to say whether this is true or not. A statement of the transfers made on a given day ten years instead of every year is called for instead of a statement for each year, as that would involve such a large amount of detail work and the other will show what is desired just as readily. The aim is to find out how the value of land has increased since 1871 and whether assessments have increased proportionately. There are some who hold that in view of the increase in the value of land the assessments on real estate have not risen out of all proportion to railroad assessmente.
