INVESTIGATES DISGUISED AS WORKING MAN

Is Convinced That New Tomb at Springfield Lucks Absolute Safety and Will tusist Upon Immediate Improvement.

CHICAGO, June 6. - The Inter Ocean will tomorrow print a story saying that the recent reinterment of the remains of Abraham Lincoln at Springfield, III., has been done in such a manner as to leave them in a measure at the mercy of body snatchers and that steps are to be taken at once, at the instance of Robert T. Lincolu, to have the body placed as in the former monument, under a huge block of cement, where it will be out of the reach of any attempt at molestation. Mr. Lincoln some time ago gained the idea that the remains of his father were not properly secured against possible desecration by body snatchers and determined to make an investigation on his own account. He went to Springfield in the disguise of a working man and spent much time in and around the new monument. He came to the conclusion that the present location of the body left it in a measure at the mercy of anybody who should desire to carry it away, particularly, as there is no watchman around the monument at night He will take steps at once to have the matter remedied and have the body placed so that it will hereafter be secure from any interference whatever.

The haste in the matter is for the purpose of saving the city interest. The outstanding bonds which the new issue is to redeem still draw 6 per cent interest, while the proposed issue draws only 41/2 per cent. This reduction in interest of 114 per cent will save the city $750 a year, or $7,500 for the ten years which the bonds will run. If the ordinance goes through today, as is expected, the histories will be completed and turned over to G. W. Hoobler, the purchaser, on Saturday. The sale will then be virtually completed. A premium of $313 has been offered the city for these bonds by Mr. Hoobler and this will pay for the lithographing of the bonds, the preparation of the histories and all other expenses. The city will not be to any expense whatever in taking up the old bonds and issuing new ones on account of the premium. When Councilman Johnston first sug gested that this issue be placed on the market at 41/2 per cent other members of the cuncil thought that a sale could not be effected. But it was and consequently Johnston is jubilant over the fact. In af fairs of this kind his judgment is considered first class. Now when the next issue of general indebtedness bonds comes along which is not far distant, Johnston proposes to put twenty-year 4 per cent bonds on the market. He says that he is confident that a sale at this figure can be made. If this can be done the saving in interest to the ity will be enormous, as in past years one third of the entire levy has been used to pay interest on outstanding obligations.

Must Vacate Alley.

The Board of Education is up against an other hard proposition. This time it is not a question of erecting buildings, but one of removing buildings from property to which the district holds no title. When the West Side school building was purchased ground fronting on U street extending 150 feet east from the west corner This property has a depth of 130 feet. As the ground to the south looked pretty good to the board the fence surrounding the school building was moved south fifteen feet so as to take in the alley, which is supposed to extend from Thirty-first to Thirty-second street on the south side of the school grounds. Education Superintendent Gordon of the city schools has the following to say concerning teachers' salaries:

The teachers' salaries are recognized as being too low and it is extremely desirable that this consition of things be remedied if possible. While we are concations we have not made a corresponding increase in remuneration. We all recognize the difficuty under which the Board of Education is laboring with reference to income. The teachers have recognized this and with a commendable spirit have accepted the situation as it is; nevertheless the maintenance of efficiency in school work requires that teachers shall receive proper compensation for their labors, would, therefore, urge upon the board a careful consideration of the question of salaries with a view to making such in at the Christian church on Sunday the crease as the funds at your disposal will
