Just to what extent the United States will require practical evidence of this fact is not definitely known, but the officials here think that York retired today from active business. Such steps should be taken by the Cubans as will demonstrate their ability to maintain order and peace, so that the interests of all the people, native and foreign, shall be adequately protected. An effective police force and other measures necessary to the preservation of good order and sanitation are de med as essential preregulaites in the formation of the new government. The mere physical question of the withdrawal of the American militia from the island can be accomplished without much delay.
