Declines the Honor.

Announcement is made that Colonel J. S. Tam of this city, who has been urged as the democratic candidate for governor this year, declines to permit the use of his name in that connection. This leaves the field clear for ex-Mayor Phillips of Ottumwa, who seems to be the only democrat in the state anxious to make the sacrifice.

Party Votes Itself Dead.

The action of the state central committee of the populist party in deciding that the party is too dead to do any good or any harm in Iowa is remarked as one of the strangest things which has recently happened in lowa. The committee met-two or three members, at least-and issued the following remarkable statement:

following remarkable statement: After discussing the political situation it was decided in view of the platform as forecasted by the democratic state central committee favoring municipal ownership of public utilities and other pressing reforms, not to call a state convention provided the platform of that party shall prove satis-factory to our people. It was the convic-tion of the committee forcibly expressed that it is the duty of every true populist, Jeffersonian democrat and Lincoln repub-lican, to attend the democratic caucuases and state convention and help secure such a platform as they can endorse and work for.
