From other sources it was learned, how-ever, that the deal was practically closed and that the offer of the steel combination to buy in Colorado Fuel at a price not far from 170 was accepted.

The culmination of the transaction is regarded with great satisfaction by John W. Gates and his assistants, who have been largely instrumental in the deal.

BUFFALO, June 18.—John G. Milburn, attorney for Roland B. Molineux, resumed before the court of appeals today his argument for an appeal on the conviction of his client for the murder of Katherina J. Adams in New York in December, 1898. It is probable the argument will eccupy all of today's session of the court and possibly it may not be finished until tomorrow.
