LAXITY IN CRIMINAL LAWS

George Van Houten Reads Paper Before State Institution Convention.

RESOLUTION IN MEMORY OF DR. HOYT

Big Picnic at Madrid Spurred by Storm -Palmer College Has Promise of Big Endowment -Millipax Breaks out Anew.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, June 19.—(Special.)—The closing session of the quarterly conference of the superintendents of state institutions considered two papers by persons not connected with the institutions. Secretary George Van Houten of the state agricultural department read a paper on the duty of the state and the rights of individuals in the application of laws to prevent crime, the failures in justice and the progress which had been made in putting a stop to crime and criminal tendencies.

He favored segregation of all those classes likely to reproduce the undesirable elements. No other state in the world but a complete stop to beggary in every form, though the beggars might be lame or blind. The state has a right to demand the education of children and it should be made a crime for parents to neglect the education of their children.

The following resolutions with regard to the late superintendent of the hospital at Mt. Pleasant were adopted by the board of directors of the hospital at their meeting held last evening at the National guard returned last evening from Council Bluffs, where he awarded the contracts for supplies to be used at the annual encampment of the Fifty-first and Fifty-second regiments August 14 to 21 inclusive.
