He has been most generous with the results of these labors, contributing many valuable things to other libraries. The historical publications of the state are filled with contributions which he has written from time to time. His "History of the Newspaper Press of lowa from 1836 to 1846" is a standard of authority. Another important work was his "History of the Early Schools of Iowa from 1830 to 1839. ROOT GETS IT ON A FOUL Decision is Given Him in His Fight with Kid Carter-Crowd Dissatisfied.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The fight between Jack Root of Chicago and Kid Carter of Brooklyn was a hard contest with an unsatisfactory ending. In the fifteenth round both were fighting strong, with the advantage in Root's favor, when Carter swung a hard left on Root's body. Root went down on his back, his features contorted with pain, his hands clutching his groin. Referee Fred Wand gave the fight to Root, saying Carter struck a foul blow. The foul, if any, was not apparent to the spectators. In the preliminary contest between Tim Callahan of Philadelphia and Joe Bernstein of New York for twenty rounds, the referee gave the decision to Callahan without hesitation. It did not meet with popular approval.
