The executive committee of the Iowa State Firemen's association has decided that the next meeting will be held in Marshalltown, August 27-30 next. Marshalltown will donate $2,000 for cash prizes and pay about $1,000 in expenses of the meeting. The program has not yet been prepared. In view of the failure of the tournament at Carroll, owing to continued wet weather, it is expected there will be a larger attendance than usual at the state tourna ment.

Fails to Use the Stamps.

J. L. Simcoke, a druggist of Adel, was brought to the city today and arraigned before a United States commissioner on a charge of having sold proprietary medicines without affixing the required revenue stamps. The information shows that he secured boxes of a certain medicine which had been used and refilled them with preparation of his own make and that he did not put on new revenue stamps. The offense was committed last fall, but efforts had been made to hush the matter up and not until today were the warrants served.

Converts an Evangelist.

Last winter Charles R. Scoville, a traveling evangelist, spent several months working in Des Moines Christian churches and had remarkable success securing converts, his list here running up to considerably more than 1,000. Now it is announced that while he was persuading others he was won over by a Des Moines young woman. At a dinner party in his honor today the announcement was made of his engagement to Miss Loraine L. Delmege of this city. They will be married in September and Mr. Scoville is to go to Honolulu to carry 55,037,536 on evangelistic work,
