

LINCOLN'S HAPPY FOURTH

Fifteen Thousand People Flock to Park for Sports

RAIN HURRIES END OF THE FUN

Asylum Has a Lawn Fete and Pentecostary Plenty of Cool Drinks—Cochran Divorce Case Heard

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 4.—(Special.)—For twelve years Lincoln, like other cities of its size, has done nothing in the way of an organized Fourth of July celebration. Today 15,000 people attended the races and other attractions at Lincoln park. There were many picnics and family parties in the various parts of the city. A large number of the members of the fraternal orders gathered at the state farm. The citizens of Havocok did their best to exhibit their loyalty and patriotism and a large crowd witnessed the attractions which they offered.

The Burlington band of Plattsmouth arrived in the city early this morning. Soon after a similar organization from McCook came in to assist in the merry-making. After parading the streets, the two bands spent the remainder of the day at Lincoln park. Two balloon ascensions, an automobile race and various athletic events were billed besides the horse races.

About 5 o'clock the events were interrupted by a generous rainfall, which was not predicted by the weather department. The crowd hurried to the street car line and waited in the downpour until cars reached the scene from the city. The Lincoln Traffic company rushed all extra cars to the scene of dampness and most of the visitors reached the city without getting anything like a thorough soaking.

Lawn Fete at Asylum

At the asylum the inmates were forcibly reminded that it was a national holiday. All the officials and attendants, under the direction of Superintendent J. L. Greene, worked faithfully to show all a merry time. A lawn fete was the attraction for the afternoon. There were ice cream, cake and lemonade for all. In some cases cigars were allowed the male patients. This was followed by something more substantial in the way of eating in the dining hall. Then came music, and after that the enjoyment of the day was concluded by a magnificent display of fireworks set off from a stand which had been erected for the occasion on the lawn.

Cool Drink at Penitentiary

Every effort was made to cause the convicts at the penitentiary to reverse the anniversary of American independence. Contractor R. W. Grant treated all the men who have been working under him to a liberal supply of fruit, cake and ice cream. Those actively engaged in the service of the state fared likewise and were served with all the lemonade they could drink, in addition to several luxuries in the way of sodas. All day the convicts were confined in the cell house, the freedom of the prison yard having been curtailed after the recent attempt to set fire to the penitentiary. All work was suspended and the prisoners were given a chance to rest and keep cool. Lemonade was served in five large barrels and to this cooling beverage the prisoners had free access all day long.

Cochran Divorce Case

Briefs have once more been filed in supreme court in the case of Warren Cochran against L. L. Lethia Cochran. This case was appealed to the supreme tribunal from the district court of Douglas county and has been handled only in the courts for seventeen years. The suit was begun in May, 1884. Warren Cochran began divorce proceedings against his wife and all the proceedings from that day to this have been in equity.

The final decision of the courts was that Warren Cochran had deserted his wife and it was decreed that alimony to the amount of $6,000 should be forthcoming. In 1894, the decision of the supreme court removed the last legal barrier from the execution of judgment and the sheriff of Douglas county was ordered to levy on the property of Warren Cochran. The writ of execution was returned unsatisfied. The property of the former husband was now in the possession of the son, Elmer G. Cochran.

The attorneys for Mrs. Cochran then brought action to have the transfer of the property set aside, alleging an attempt to defraud Mrs. Cochran and evade the payment of alimony directed by the court. The decisions resulted in favor of Mrs. Cochran and now the case comes to the supreme court for a second review on appeal of Warren Cochran.

The attorneys for the defendant in error declare that the sole purpose of the suit is to deprive the former wife of Warren Cochran from her alimony by the tedious delays of justice. They assert that there is no reason why the case should be longer retained in the courts and ask the judges to put an end to the dilatory tactics of the appellants.

MOFFATT'S ARM FAILS HIM

Chicago Fighter Suffers Accident in Gardner Fight that Probably Ends Ring Career

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—The fight between Jack Moffatt of Chicago and George Gardner of Lowell, Mass., this afternoon came to an abrupt end in the third round, when for the third time Moffatt's left arm failed. The fight up to the third round was a close one, but Moffatt was knocked down by a right swing on the jaw and Jack took the count. He got up strong, however, and immediately landed a hard left on Gardner's face. They fought fast throughout the first round, Gardner doing the most work at long range, while Moffatt showed the better of clinching and in-fighting.

In the second round Moffatt opened with a hard left on the face followed by a clinch. When they were separated by the referee Gardner rushed Moffatt to the ropes, landing left and right on the face. A clinch followed and both men fought hard on the body. Gardner jabbed his left in Moffatt's face twice and Jack replied with a right to the head. Gardner had the most forcing in this round, his long right enabling him to land his left on Moffatt's face frequently. Moffatt, however, fought in close and ducked many of Gardner's blows. The honors in this round were about even.

At the beginning of the third round Moffatt's arm failed for the third time and a hard left which hit his left shoulder out of his hands. He dropped to one knee, his arms hanging limp at his side. Gardner went to the ropes and immediately declared himself the winner and called for a doctor. Two physicians responded and Moffatt, suffering from a severe strain of his right arm, refused to continue. He said that he did not feel as if he was entitled to the purse under the circumstances and volunteered to share it equally with Moffatt.

At the beginning of the fight to Moffatt would undoubtedly win his ring career. Twice before in contests Moffatt has thrown his right arm and both men fought hard each time to put him in condition. In training for his fight with Gardner today he had stood the test of a long and hard fight and it is a great pity that he should be out of the ring.

The fights today were held in an open arena in the center of the base ball grounds in the city of San Francisco. The weather was perfect and about 5,000 spectators attended.

The preliminary between Al Neill and Charles Thurston, two local middleweights, closed the limit of twenty twelve fights.
