GOOD CARE FOR THE SOLDIER

Quartermaster General Goes to the Orient to Aid Tommy Atkins.

POSTS IN PHILIPPINES TO BE INSPECTED

General Ludington, Formerly Stationed Here, Passes to Visit Omaha Friends—Other Voyagers on the Grant.

General M. I. Ludington, quartermaster general of the United States army, was in the city Sunday on his way to San Francisco, whence he will sail for the Philippine islands July 16 on the transport Grant. General Ludington was a resident of Omaha for seven years, between 1875 and 1882, during which time he was quartermaster of the Department of the Platte. He says that he considers Omaha as his home and takes all possible opportunities to visit it. While in the city he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hull.

General Ludington, on his trip to the Philippines, will be accompanied by his wife and quite a number of the officers of the quartermaster's department, who are going to stations in the Orient. Among them are Colonel F. H. Hathaway, who is assigned to the Philippines, and Captain Baxter, who goes from St. Louis to Nyngana, Japan, where he will have charge of the quartermaster's depot.

In making the trip to the Orient the Grant will proceed direct to Manila without stop, avoiding the Hawaiian islands on account of the presence of the bubonic plague in all of the ports of those islands. Arriving at Manila General Ludington will inspect the quartermaster's depot at that place and then proceed to the headquarters of the various departments in the division, making special investigation into possible improvements in the present system of storage and preservation of quartermaster's stores.

Tour of Japan.

After spending thirty days on Luzon and the neighboring islands, General Ludington and party will go to Hong Kong and Shanghai, where the general will examine the local offices and arrangements for receiving and forwarding supplies in his department. From Shanghai he will go to Kobe and Nyngana, Japan, on a tour of inspection, returning to the United States in time to arrive in Washington in October.

On his return General Ludington will spend a few days in Omaha, enroute to Washington.

IOWA'S FIELDS ARE GREEN

Abundant Rains Transform Hawkeye State into Garden—Railroad Grades Are Reduced.

D. M. Owen of Norfolk, Neb., the contractor who is constructing the new line of the Burlington railroad near Villisca, Ia., is in the city on his way from Wyoming to Iowa. Mr. Owen has spent several days in the west investigating crop and stock conditions. He says that the hay crop will be one of the largest in the history of the state and that cattle and sheepmen are in better shape than ever before. Rains have been opportune and adequate in all parts of the state and the pasture is excellent.

NEW PARTY IS A FACTOR

Recent Revolt in Missouri Democratic Ranks is Causing Consternation Among Leaders.

According to the opinion of politicians of the state of Missouri, the coming wealth of bourbonism is liable to turn its back upon its traditions and be numbered with the states which will endorse the policy of the national administration at the elections next year. The sentiment is not only expressed by republican and independent politicians, but in private conversation the leaders of democracy admit the probability of the loss of the state to the democrats.

John Hughes of Tarkio, Mo., who is in the city, says: "The recent agitation which resulted in a meeting of the disaffected at Kansas City, under the leadership of Lee Meriwether of St. Louis and J. H. Cook of Carthage, was looked upon with anxiety by the democratic leaders until last week, when it was given a prominence by ex-Governor Stone which causes the democrats to tremble. All parties have admitted that there is much disaffection in the ranks of the party, but no one believed that the disaffected could be brought together against the regular organization until last Sunday, when Mr. Stone, in an open letter published in the Joplin Globe, which is considered his personal organ and of which many thousands of copies were distributed in the state, advised all democrats to hold aloof from the third party movement. In his appeal he admitted the existence of the evils charged by the malcontents who were responsible for the Kansas City meeting.

"This appeal, having the effect of a boomerang. Hundreds of democrats who would have nothing to do with the movement, believing that it could not succeed, are now openly championing the cause, the efforts of the state democratic machine to capture the city of St. Louis, in which they have been partially successful, are being denounced by democrats who have always been loyal. There are 20,000 populists in the state, 15,000 of whom voted the democratic ticket in 1900. Almost a man they are in line for the new movement. As the third party stands for municipal ownership it is believed that it will pull at least 5,000 socialist votes, which in St. Louis have been cast for the democratic ticket as a protest against the public city administration of former years. The democratic leaders admit that with this condition existing their party is in a minority of at least 5,000, with the probability of a republican plurality of about 3,000 at the next election, unless conditions change."

LECTURES ON JOHN HUS

Rev. Jar. Dobias Reviews the Life of the Great Protestant Leader.

A large audience gathered at the new Bohemian Turner hall last night to honor the memory of John Hus, one of the leaders of Protestantism in Europe. Hus has been considered the Slavonian Luther and among the people of his race his memory is revered.

The principal feature of the evening was a lecture on the life of Hus by Rev. Jar. Dobias, who spoke in the Bohemian language. The lecture was illustrated by stereopticon views of Bohemia, the scene of the life and work of the subject of the address. Musical numbers were given by Prof. William Fransee, Miss T. and A. Fransee, and choruses of men and children.

The proceeds of the lecture will be used to furnish the Bohemian free library and reading room at Fifteenth and Hickory streets.

SAFARI AT SOUTH OMAHA

Sabbath Calm Succeds Busy Saturday at Street Fair.

WEDNESDAY SET APART FOR GOVERNOR

Council Meets to Fix Tax Levy for Coming Year—Valuation Considerably Less in Proportion to that Established at Lincoln.

It was quiet in street fair circles yesterday. After the strenuous life of Saturday and Sunday, some time for the performers in the show, the board of managers and others to recuperate. Throughout the day the crowd was small and there was little, if anything, doing on the Midway until late in the evening. No features were advertised, except the concert given by Bond's band in the amphitheater at 8 o'clock last night. The program of the concert as printed was carried out and the music was excellent.

There will be rough riding and horse roping at the arena at 7 o'clock this evening. This will be the first of the evening shows at the amphitheater and it is expected that there will be a large attendance. The usual "bull fight" will be one of the attractions.

Mayor Kelly, who is in charge of the advertising department of the fair, says that there will be something doing on Tuesday. Wednesday is governor's day and it is expected that Governor Savage, his staff and a party of friends will be entertained at the South Omaha club. After viewing the fair the distinguished party will visit the arena and witness a performance given by Mexicans and southern bulls.

During the concert given by Bond's band at the amphitheater last night President Cheek of the Street Fair association announced that notwithstanding the illness of Ralph Dunbar the carnival queen would be crowned in the amphitheater at 8:30 o'clock tonight. Miss Zelia Kenworthy will be the queen. On Tuesday afternoon the queen and her retinue will participate in the flower parade.

Mayor Kelly explains. In connection with an item printed in The Bee of yesterday regarding the carrying on of open gambling and the granting of permits to alleged "graters" Mayor Kelly has this to say:

"I take exception to the statements made in The Bee on Sunday morning. When the matter of free shows was first called to my attention by the Street Fair association and other parties assurance was given at the time that any complaints properly filed and sworn to, would receive the prompt attention of the police department. Further, I said that if such complaints were made and arrests followed every effort would be made to convict violators of the law. It has been urged that the police make arrests of parties conducting free shows in buildings without first obtaining warrants. To do this would put the department in a position where discrimination was shown, or else materially affect some of the street fair shows. I am informed that several times in connection with the street fair and if the police department is to invade private property and make wholesale arrests it necessarily becomes its duty to suppress many features now being operated by the street fair. I consider that a great deal of this talk coming from members of the association is being done for political purposes and to become its duty for the purpose of covering their sanction of lawlessness at the expense of the administration."

Writes Forged Checks. Yesterday afternoon Deputy Sheriff J. D. McBride of Plattsmouth telephoned Chief Mitchell a description of a man who is wanted for passing a forged check on M. L. Johnson, a butcher. The check called for $150 and was signed "Louis Opsett."

The person passing the forged check is about 35 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs 170 pounds and has dark hair. He was well dressed and well appearing. Deputy Sheriff McBride visited Omaha and South Omaha last night looking for his man.

Special Council Meeting. Mayor Kelly stated yesterday that he expects to issue a call today for a special meeting of the council to be held tonight for the transaction of general business. There is the levy ordinance to pass and, according to City Attorney Lambert this document must be approved by the mayor and council July 10, in the first instance, says Mr. Lambert, there must be an ordinance estimating the expenses of the city prior to the passage of the levy ordinance. For instance the maximum allowed by law for the general fund is $38,000. It might be possible, Mr. Kelly says, to get along with less than this amount and therefore an ordinance estimating the city's expenses is needed. If a meeting is held the business before the council will be rushed through in order to allow the members to visit the street fair.

Assessed Valuations. When the papers of yesterday printed the assessed valuation as returned by the tax commissioner of Lincoln there was considerable comment. The valuation of Lincoln as given by the city tax commissioner is $20,000,000. Lincoln has according to the last census a population of 40,138. South Omaha with a population of 28,000, five packing houses and 177 acres of stock yards is assessed at only $2,500,000 by the tax commissioner. While there is no prospect now of the council changing the assessed valuation as returned by the Board of Review the prevailing opinion is that the total valuation ought to have been not less than $5,000,000.

Magic City Gossip. Howard Markeson of Weston, Ia., is here visiting relatives.

Mrs. C. A. Adams of Lincoln is in the city visiting friends.

E. J. Towel of the Omaha Packing company has returned from a trip to Kansas City.

E. J. Gustafson, deputy city treasurer, has returned from a short vacation spent in Lincoln.

Bishop McCabe occupied the pulpit at the First Methodist Episcopal church yesterday forenoon.

Miss Bertha Clark will give a recital at the First Methodist Episcopal church on Tuesday evening.

Miss Susie Moran, Twenty-fifth and J streets, has gone to the Pacific coast to spend the summer.

Only a few hundred dollars in bonded debt will have to be looked after by the city authorities on August 1.

Members of the South Omaha club are making preparations to entertain Governor Savage and his staff on Wednesday.

Mrs. David Anderson leaves on Tuesday for Ogden and Salt Lake City, where she will visit friends and relatives for a few weeks.

Mike Kelly, who is employed in the hair fields over the Omaha Packing company's plant, reports that he was robbed of $2 Saturday night by a pickpocket.

Excursion Tickets to New York. Commencing July 1 the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railway will sell reduced rate tickets Chicago to New York and return, $60 for stop at Pan-American exposition. Low rate Buffalo tickets are also now on sale. Eight trains daily. Send 4 cents in stamps for printed matter and full information. F. M. Byron, G. W. A., Chicago; M. S. Giles, T. P. A., Chicago.
