BAR ASSOCIATION FINISHES

Iowa Lawyers Enjoy Cool Breeze of Lake Manawa. J. H. McConlogue Elected President.

Dubuque is Chosen as Next Year's Meeting Place—Papers on "Insanity a Defense" and "Insular Tariff." The seventh annual meeting of the Iowa State Bar Association at Council Bluffs was brought to a close last evening by a trip to Lake Manawa, where the visiting lawyers were the guests of the Council Bluffs bar and where the change from the sweltering heat of the opera house to the cool breezes of the lake was a pleasing finale to a most successful meeting.

The election of officers held at the morning session resulted as follows: President, J. H. McConlogue, Mason City; vice president, R. M. Haines, Grinnell; secretary, Sam S. Wright, Tipton; treasurer, George F. Henry, Des Moines.

At the close of Judge McPherson's address E. M. Carr read a technical, but interesting paper on "Insanity as a Defense to Crime." Among other things he said:

It is the reason of man which makes him accountable for his actions and his deplorable neglect of his duties. The act of the body without the concurrence of the mind is not a criminal act. These general ideas are clear and easily understood, but their application to some cases becomes a most difficult problem.

It is probable the question will be taken to the supreme court as early as a case as possible.

ADJUTANT BYERS LEAVES

Says Des Moines Will Be Represented at Council Bluffs Encampment.

ACCOMMODATING BURNED-OUT POOR. Grading Has Been Commenced on Endora Trolley Line—Miners of the Klondike Quit—Deserter Arrested at Ottumwa.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, July 17.—(Special.)—Adjutant General Byers left this evening for Dubuque to attend the encampment of the Forty-ninth and fiftieth regiments of the Iowa National guard next week.

He set at rest the story that Des Moines would not be represented at all at the Council Bluffs encampment in August, the statement having been made a number of times that Troop A will be mustered out before the encampment.

The troop, which is the only one in the guard, has not prospered of late and there is a prospect that after the encampment it may go the way of the Des Moines companies of the guard, but the membership has been recruited up to the troop will go to the encampment at Council Bluffs. The members are showing renewed interest and may be able to put the troop in excellent condition.

General Byers received word this morning that the requisition for equipment for the Iowa signal corps cannot be filled at present by the government, so that it will be impossible for the guard signal corps to be equipped in time for the state encampment.

Care for Burlington Insane. Owing to the burning of the buildings on the Des Moines county farm near Burlington, including the insane asylum, a large number of papers and insane were left homeless and today the State Board of Control authorized Superintendent Applegate to receive twenty of the insane there. There were thirty-seven insane persons in the asylum at the time of the fire and more than eighty inmates of all kinds and all were gotten out without harm.

About fifty teams are at work grading on the line of the street railway extension to Endora from Des Moines. Only two miles of the right of way is yet to be secured and it is expected that will be closed up this week.

Gravestone Quickly Settled. One hundred and fifty miners and fifty "day" men employed at the Norwood mine, formerly known as the "Klondike" mine, have today resumed work at the scales were placed in proper condition.

Their action was taken when the checkweighman employed by them informed them that the scales were out of order and were giving the miners much the worst of it, they having to mine considerably over a ton of coal in order to receive pay for a ton.

The state mine inspector was summoned and he reported that the scales were underweight something like ten pounds to the ton. He ordered the scales repaired and the work was accordingly done. By that time, however, the miners had left for their homes and all work was called off until tomorrow morning.

Arrest of a Deserter. Frank McClellan, charged with desertion from the United States army, was arrested at Ottumwa and brought to Des Moines yesterday. He had been enlisted in Ottumwa last March and was with the command at Fort Leavenworth. When arrested he claimed he had ten days' leave of absence, but could not show papers for it and he will be returned to Fort Leavenworth.

Storms' Case Not Ended. Another effort is being made to get Storms, the Burlington bend, out of prison. He is serving a life sentence for the murder of Mrs. Rathbun and her daughter. The crime was a horrible one. Storms, after his arrest, made a full confession of the affair and upon his confession, which he afterward retracted, he was convicted for the murder brought to the supreme court here on appeal on the ground that the confession was secured by undue influence, but the supreme court refused to order a new trial.

Was a Rehearing. A voluminous motion has just been filed in the supreme court by the attorneys in the Aiston case from Jefferson county asking a rehearing of the case. The attorneys filing the motion and argument are Rollin J. Wilson of Keokuk, who is to be chairman of the republican state convention, and Missouri A. McCall, an ex-greelman, and in their argument they make a severe arraignment of the supreme court, accusing the court of having failed to consider the evidence, having been guilty of legislation and intimating that the court was in the hands of a few.

It was owned by George Mackey, A. D. Caldwell and C. K. Calkins and rented by Fremont Creamery company. The loss is $2,000; no insurance. The origin of the fire is uncertain, but it was probably due to spontaneous combustion in the straw of the ice house.

Kittredge Resigns Position and Says He Will Work Wholly for the People.

SIoux Falls, S. D., July 17.—(Special.)—A. B. Kittredge, who was last week appointed by Governor Herrell to the vacancy in the United States senate caused by the death of Senator Kyle, has returned from a trip to St. Paul and Chicago, where he went for the purpose of resigning the local trusteeship of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads.

"Yes, it is true," said he, "that I have resigned my position with both the Milwaukee and Great Northern roads. Since receiving the appointment from Governor Herrell I have considered the matter carefully and quite made up my mind that to continue as attorney for the railroads while acting as senator would not be fair, either to the people of the state or to the roads. Either position is such that one who occupies it should devote his time and energy to the employment of the people for the roads should rightfully be expected to give his first attention to their interests and should I do that I should not be able to give that devotion to the interests of the people of the state which the duty of senator requires. The attorney's resignation from the governor I have determined to give my time and energy I possess to the interests of the people of South Dakota and consequently have severed my connection with the various corporations which employ me as an attorney heretofore. I shall, of course, complete any litigation which I have begun for them, but I shall take no new business and when the present suits are concluded I shall cease to be their attorney."

He said that the employees of the Wabash have no grievances that he is aware of. According to Mr. Ramsey, the committee here represents only a small number of Wabash conductors and brakemen and he does not know what their alleged grievances are.
