

WIDE DIFFERENCE IN COST

Interesting Statement of High School Maintenance in Various Cities.

Omaha and Indianapolis Spend Less Per Capita Than the Average City of Like Size—What Superintendent Pearce Says.

At the recent meeting of the National Educational Association Superintendent Greenwood of the Kansas City, Mo., schools submitted to the educational council high school statistics which showed a great difference in the cost per pupil in various cities.

Boston spends $7.90 a year per pupil. San Francisco spends $7 and Providence, R. I., makes an annual outlay of $56.39 per pupil. Indianapolis spends less than other cities of its size, the cost of maintaining a pupil in its high school for one year being $31.10. Omaha spends $45.29 a year per pupil, which is less than the average.

Superintendent Pearce of the Omaha city schools is a member of the educational council and was present when Mr. Greenwood presented the statistics concerning high schools. In discussing the figures Mr. Pearce said:

"The great difference in the cost of maintaining high schools is due chiefly to the number of teachers employed and the salaries paid. In Omaha we allow one teacher to instruct thirty pupils. The number of pupils allowed in one section is limited to twenty in many cities and in some places more than fifteen pupils are permitted in a class."

The statistics submitted by Superintendent Greenwood are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: City, Cost per pupil, 1900-1901. Includes Boston, San Francisco, Providence, R. I., Indianapolis, Chicago, Denver, Detroit, Los Angeles, Milwaukee, New York, New Bedford, New Orleans, Omaha, St. Paul, Springfield, Toledo, Kansas City.

Go Where It's Cool. All of Colorado is cool, but some places in Colorado are cooler than others. In the list of especially attractive Colorado resorts Estes Park, Manitou, Colorado Springs and Glenwood Springs are worthy of note.

They are very accessible—only a night's ride from Omaha to Denver and a few hours more from there to the principal resorts of Colorado. They are cool—at Estes Park, for example, the thermometer rarely rises above 40 degrees. Then there is plenty to do and see—Manitou is one of the gayest of summer resorts.

Best of all, the cost of reaching these resorts is not great. Only $19 to Colorado and return via the Burlington—the shortest line. Good to return till October 31. Tickets, 1402 Farnam street.

Nowhere in the country is there a better equipped or more handsomely furnished ladies' bath institution than The Bathery in The Bee building. Telephone 1716 for appointments.

MULLEN STARTS FOR ALASKA

Receiver of Land Office at Rampart City Leaves Omaha for His Post.

Hon. P. M. Mullen left yesterday afternoon for the Union Pacific for Portland and Seattle, sailing from the latter point next week for St. Michael, whence he will go by boat up the Yukon river to his post of duty at Rampart City, Alaska. Mrs. Mullen will accompany him, but the children will remain at the Omaha home.

Rampart City, at which place Mr. Mullen will become receiver of public moneys in the land office, is one of the most important mining camps in Alaska. Nearly all classes of business are represented there, several general outfitting stores and other forms of merchandising, and the usual number of saloons making up the commercial part of the place. Many miners have made their headquarters there instead of Dawson, owing to the exorbitant prices charged at the latter place. Rich strikes have been made in the vicinity, and general activity marks the progress of the place. Another strong point in favor of Rampart City is that it is located at the head of navigation on the Yukon and is on the line of the projected railroad.

Mr. Mullen has sent by mail to Governor Savage his resignation as a member of the legislature from Douglas county. During his long residence in Omaha he has twice been elected to the legislature, and has otherwise taken an active part in public affairs. He was treasurer of the city republican committee during the last campaign.

ONLY PURE AIR IS ADMITTED Extensive Screens Planned for Federal Building to Keep Out Dust and Germs. As a result of the recent investigation of Inspector Thompson of the Treasury department of the United States, Superintendent Murdock of the federal building and Charles Baxter, engineer, are making changes in the ventilating plant of that building. At the present time the screens through which the air is filtered are so small that to supply the requisite amount of air has to be forced through so rapidly that the impurities are not all removed. The screen space will be enlarged and a number of additional screens installed.

The custodian has received authority to draw plans and specifications for the change in the stamp department and to advertise for bids for the construction of the same. This is taken to mean that the department expects to have the work, including the installation of a vault for the cash and stamps, done in Omaha. Some time ago the custodian made requisition for electric fans to be placed in the offices in the building and the matter was presented through Congressman Mercer. The department yesterday informed him that it was not the policy to place these fans in buildings except in southern latitudes.
