FLORENCE BARTLETT, RETTA DOOLITTLE

They Are Only Sixteen, but Seem to Have Serious Love Affairs-Mother is Injured While Prosecuting Search.

The police force of this city is actively engaged searching for two young girls who have disappeared from their homes and whose anxious parents have sought the assistance of the authorities in trying to find them. The missing girls are Florence Bartlett, who lived with her parents on Little Benton street, and Retta Doolittle, Ind., on his way home.

Sol McMullen, a creditor of the banking firm of Officer & Pusey, filed fourteen claims against the Thomas Officer estate yesterday. The claims aggregate 16,000.

Shepard Would Be Treasurer.

William M. Shepard announced yesterday that he was a candidate for the republican nomination for county treasurer. His name had been mentioned earlier in the campaign in connection with this nomination, but later it was understood he had withdrawn from the race. Recent developments, however, have induced him to become a candidate and it is said that he has recently completed a canvass of the country districts, which has induced him to have his name brought before the convention in opposition to William Arnd, the present incumbent, who is out for a re-nomination. W. M. Shepard held the office of county recorder until succeeded by the present incumbent, E. E. Smith. Three years ago he was a candidate for the nomination for county auditor.

Husband and Wife.

Where a husband, fearing that alimony would be decreed against him in a divorce suit, conveyed land on the understanding that the grantee would sell the land for his benefit, or reconvey it when he desired, a recovery of the land by the husband would not be denied because of the intent with which it was conveyed, it not appearing that any alimony was decreed. 63 S. W. Rep (Tex.) 125.

Defendant, a laboring man, gave his wages to his wife and allowed her to collect the rents of his property and pay the taxes, and to frequently obtain loans on the credit of his wages. The wife had no separate estate, or income, or means of making money and obtained a loan from plaintiff, which she promised to pay out of defendant's wages.
