giving them a winning lead. Payne did good pitching for Omaha at the start, but in the fifth he went to pieces and gave four hits. Herman, who succeeded him, kept the hits well scattered and not one of the four off him yielded a run. The fielding on both sides was better than the error column indicates, none of the errors being costly and three of the four charged to Omaha were almost excusable. The only star performance of the game was Genins' feat in the third, when he retired the side by taking in three successive flies. AMERICANS' ERRORS ARE FEW

Cup. CHICAGO, July 26.—Illinois, the Chicago Finkel yacht, won the fifth trial race today for the selection of the Canada's cup defender. Detroit was second and Milwaukee and Cadillac were far in the background. Today's trial had been expected to finish the series and be the final victory for either Milwaukee or Cadillac, each of which had won twice. Illinois and Detroit had been counted out of it. Milwaukee and Cadillac were leaders when eighteen miles of the twenty-one had been sailed and there they were pocketed by a calm which arrested the progress of the entire fleet. Finally a fitful breeze sprang up and Illinois, catching it first, came in full two minutes ahead of Detroit, which was nearly three minutes ahead of Milwaukee, which led Cadillac by about three minutes. The yachts were almost four hours in covering the course.

diet of Not Guilty and It Does So.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 26 .- At the opening of court today in the Fosburgh trial Judge Stevens instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty, and this was done, ending the trial.

The jurymen did not leave their seats. The verdict was received with shouts of approval, which the court immediately suppressed. The demonstration, however, was one of the most remarkable that has ever occurred in a court of justice. Judge Stevens, in ordering a verdict of acquittal, said:

A reasonable sifting of the facts seems a constituted by the facts of the f

Judge Stevens then, in a few words, expressed his thanks to the jurymen for their careful consideration of the case during its presentation to them. Young Robert Fosburgh was then discharged from custody and court was adjourned. The great crowd then rushed as one perman, and it was several minutes before the court room was cleared.

One of the features of the brief session of the court this morning was the announcement to the newspaper men of Chief of Police John Nicholson to the effect that the affidavit which had been sent to him yesterday by Chief Titus of New York had arrived in Pittsfield this morning by registered letter, but that the chief had refused to accept it and it would be returned to New York. In explanation of this action Chief Nicholson declared that he felt he had not been treated right by Chief Titus.

He said: "If the New York police want to send anything to me they know how to do it properly, without notifying me by wire twenty-four hours afterward and giving it out themselves to the newspapers." The affidavit in question was made in New York by a woman of the name of Hanaside, or Gray. It was to the effect that Lewis Gray, with whom she had lived. had told her on August 21 last that he and a fellow named Foy "did a trick" at a house in Pittsfield and had shot some one.

Reception to Young Frosburgh.

Immediately after his discharge young Robert Fosburgh, accompanied by the members of his family, went to the Wendell house, where a reception was held and where hundreds of people shook hands with the young man.

As soon as the jury was dismissed the foreman cailed the members together in his private room and for the first time there was a conference as to what the jurors believed. Without exception they declared that they would have returned a verdict of not guilty within fifteen minutes, even had they not been instructed. They acknowledged they would have paid no attention to the exhibits in the case. While Judge Stevens was speaking to the jury the members of the Forsburgh family. realizing what his remarks meant to them, burst into tears, while the defendant sat with buried head, the tears coursing down his cheeks. The wife of the defendant was the only member of the family not in the court room and it was said that she remained at the hotel because of illness. From the court room young Fosburgh went directly to the hotel and passed quickly to his wife's room. She was ill in bed, but the news of her husband's acquittal so strengthened her that she arose and, throwing her arms about his neck, exclaimed: "Thank God! Thank God!"

Mr. Fosburgh spent some time with his wife and went to the lobby of the hotel, where for an hour he received the expressions of good will of his friends. When District Attorney Hammond, who has been the prosecuting officer in the trial. was asked to make a statement he said that he thought it would be improper for him to say anything at this time, except that from the evidence submitted the court was justified in taking the case from the jury.

He thought, however, that Chief of Police

Poor Indeed are those weighed down by mental de-pression. Men rise in this world through buoyant nerve force. The loss of this force daily drags down to failure some of the world's ightest minds. Such a condition is commonly known as Nervous Debility.

When you lose self-confidence and feel your strength, energy and nerve force are slipping away, it is high time you seek sensible aid.

You prefer health and success to misery and failure. Jex-ine Ville have no equal as a nerve restorer. A couple of boxes will dispel that heavy feeling; the unnatural weariness dis-appears and replaces languor with new orce and vigor of body and brain. Six soxes will cure any ordinary case of servous debility. If not, you get your money book $1.00 per hox; 6 for $5.00 maile! in HOME PRODUCT Cook's Imperial EXTRA DRY Deficieus des pocacione des mises.

An Excellent Combination. The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Synur or Figs, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA Fig Syrur Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxa-time, cleausing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevere gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation per-manently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and sub-stance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the idea laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.
