Roosevelt Points the Way to Success for American People.

COLORADO A SAMPLE OF WONDROUS WEST

"More and More as the Years Go By This Republic Will Find Its Guidance in the Thought and Action of the West."

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 3.—The principal feature of the Colorado...

On his arrival in the morning Colonel Roosevelt was welcomed by Governor Orman and staff, veterans, Rough Riders, school children and many others.

Roosevelt's Speech.

Mr. Roosevelt spoke as follows: This anniversary, which marks the completion of a century of statehood, is of interest not only to her, but to the entire nation.

It is a law of our intellectual development that the great and most important truths, when once we have become thoroughly familiar with them, often become so familiar that they fall from our minds.

Purely American Development.

It is nowadays that these people seem so natural that it is only by mental wrench that we conceive of any other possible.

Steady Westward Growth.

More extraordinary still, even after independence was achieved and a firm government accomplished under the wonder document, the constitution adopted in 1787.

New States as Tents are Pitched.

The mental attitude of all these good people need not surprise anybody. There was nothing in that country which was either the task before this country or the way in which that task was to be done.

It vanished entirely. Our greatest statesmen have always been those who believed in the nation, and in the power of our people to spread until they should become the mightiest among the peoples of the world.

Insoluble to Europe.

Under any governmental system which was known to Europe the problem offered by the westward thrust, across a vast and unpopulated continent, of a race as ours would have been insoluble.

Foundations of the West.

When the modern world entered upon the marvelous era of expansion which began with the discoveries of Columbus the nations were able to devise no new plan.

Great Typical Work.

You, the men of Colorado, and above all, the elder among those whom I am now addressing, have done a great typical work of our people.

Foundations of Good Citizenship.

To be a good husband or good wife, a good neighbor and friend, to be hardworking and upright in business and social relations, to bring many healthy children.

Foundations of Good Citizenship.

To be a good husband or good wife, a good neighbor and friend, to be hardworking and upright in business and social relations, to bring many healthy children.

Just Pride in the Past.

We have then a right to be proud today in a spirit of just pride in the past. But when we pay homage to the hardy grim resolute men who with incredible toil and risk laid down the foundations of the civilization we inherit, let us steadily remember that the only homage that counts is the homage of deeds, not merely of words.

Roosevelt Rough Riders.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Aug. 2.—The Roosevelt Rough Riders' association, which is having its reunion here, elected these officers, tonight: Captain Frederick Mueller of Santa Fe, N. M., president; Lieutenant Dave Leahy of Raton, N. M., first vice president; Quartermaster Sergeant King Henry of Winslow, Ariz., second vice president; Captain W. E. Darnes of Cerrillos, N. M., secretary and treasurer.

Attended the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. Through long suffering from dyspepsia, he writes, "my wife was greatly annoyed by the latest, from Malaya Hogan's column of pugilism in the Chicago Record-Herald."

inability to hold its own in the rough warfare against his surroundings. We live in a better time. Let us see to it that what we take advantage of every gentler and more amiable day we do not squander.

Hard Work a Blessing.

We hold work not as a curse, but as a blessing, and we regard it as a scourful pity, it would be in the highest and most commendable that we should all work hard.

Iron Quality of Manhood.

We need, then, the iron qualities that go with such manhood. We need the positive virtues of courage, of indefatigable will, of power to do without, of endurance, of perseverance through the long days of slow progress or of seeming failure.

CADILLAC IS THE DEFENDER

Detroit Yacht Wins Final Trial from Milwaukee.

WILL SAIL AGAINST INVADER SATURDAY

First Race for Canada's Cup, Now Held by America, is Scheduled for One Week Hence, Weather Permitting.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Cadillac of Detroit has been officially selected to defend the Canada's cup against the Canadian challenger.

The decision was reached by the judges after Cadillac had won another decisive victory over Milwaukee, beating it over a triangular course of twenty-one miles by about eleven minutes with the wind blowing at twenty-five miles from the north and northeast.

A new jib and centerboard were carried by Milwaukee, but the change of rigging did not carry it to victory.
