Full Text of the Letter.

MONDAY, Aug. 5, 1961.

Mr. Andrew Nelson:
Sir—I write to you to let you know that we are a gang of twelve, the Paterson (N. J.) anarchists, that have been sent to Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs to work up money.

Omaha, South Omaha work up money.

There are over 1,000 men belonging to our society in New Jersey and they are raising $100,000,000 and take their families and live. Nebraska is to furnish $1,500,000 of this money. Last night at a meeting in Council Bluffs of our twelve men we decided to ask you for some money. At first some wanted to demand $1,000, but after a vote it was cut down to $350.

you for some money. At that some wanted to demand $1,000, but after a vote it was cut down to $350.

Deliver this money to us tonight or we will dynamite your saloon. Then we will dynamite you or your wife.

No use trying to dodge this, for you can't do it. If you show this letter to the police or a newspaper or try to have us arrested we will blow you to hell, but be a good fellow and we will never bother you again.

Tonight (Monday) take ten $20 bills, ten $10 bills and ten $5 bills, which will make $350, and wrap it up in some brown paper and take it into the back part of the Midland hotel, which is called the annex, and go into the gents' water closet in the middle place and put the roll of money and this letter under the seat. Put this letter, envelope and all, in the package. Do this at 9 o clock this night or suffer the consequences.

Not a man of our gang has ever been arrested. If you squeal to the police or show this to a living soul but yourself and your wife all the police in Omaha could not keep you from being blowed up to the skys.

After you leave this money go along and tend to your business. One of our men stopping at the hotel as a common traveler will get the money for us. Do not try to harm us and all will be well with you. Do us dirt and hell will catch you. But you can get off easy if you have sense enough to do it. can get off easy if you have sense enough to do it.

Tonight $350 or more trouble than you TWELVE NEW JERSEY DYNAMITERS.

Recalls Wolter Case.

This case has some points in common who was alleged to have written a threatening letter to United States Senator Kearns of Utab. From the Wolter case it ter is not an offense under the federal offense under the state law.

Wolter, who was arrested for mailing a showers which saved the corn crop. Twenty letter to Senator Kearns threatening the bushels to the acre will be between 60 and death or abduction of his children unless 70 per cent of an average crop for Custer a certain sum of money was paid. Wolter was indicted under the federal statute providing punishment for using the mails not in quite as good condition." the purpose of fraud. In several states persons had been convicted for similar offenses under the same act and in the district of Nebraska one man had been sentenced after pleading guilty to a similar offense after indictment under the same law, but the attorneys for Wolter raised the point that the act did not contemplate punishment of persons who mailed threatening letters where those letters were under seal. The contention of the attorneys for the defendant was sustained and Wolter discharged.

JOHN R. HAYS NOT CONCERNED Not Connected with Norfolk Raffic. but Unjustly Mentioned in

Prospective Prosecution.

The name of John R. Hays of Norfolk was inadvertently connected with the prospective presecutions of certain citizens of that town for using the mails to advertise a lottery, in connection with the attempt to raffle the Auditorium building at Norfolk.

As the statement was made by an officer of the government who was supposed to be fully cognizant of the condition of affairs it was used without question, and the name of Mr. Hays was among those mentioned to the reporter. The fact is that Mr. Hays' name does not appear in connection with the circulars sent out except as a former partner of one of the men who was connected with the scheme and Mr. Hays himself had nothing to do with it.

There were other prominent citizens of Norfolk connected with the enterprise besides those mentioned in the article, but those were the only persons mentioned by the person who reported the matter to The

An invitation has been issued to the grocers of South Omaha and Council Bluffs to participate in the picnic and the invitation has been populists and silver republicans, but the pretty generally accepted. Special motor trains will bring the South Omaha and Council Bluffs people, transferring them to the depot in time to catch the trains. While the retailers are at the head of the movement, the wholesalers and commission men have taken a hand and have let their clerks off on that day. Even the market gardeners will stay at home or accompany the excursion. In fact, there will be no market upon that day.

Relative to the enjoyment of Arlington The Elkhorn road will land the picnic party right at the grounds and will furnish extra ears to haul the eatables and drinkables. At the grounds there will be sports of all kinds, including base ball, boating, racing and everything else necessary for a day of enjoyment.

George Munro, president of the association, is enthusiastic over the picnic and says that it will excell anything ever before attempted in this or any other city.

MONEY REDUCED TO ASHES

Fire in a Webster Street Residence Plays More Than the Usual Amount of Havoc.

The frame dwelling at 2204 Webster street, property of Mrs. Margaret Knight, was damaged by fire at 9 yesterday morning to the extent of $400. The blaze was caused by overheating a kitchen stove in an attempt to burn a lot of old letters and other rubbish. Mrs. Alice Davis, a tenant, was getting ready to start on a tour throughout the west and was burning the trash in her trunks preparatory to packing them. ## Krug Park.

Chamber's celestial choir, singing sacred music in connection with the production of the "Passion Play," is the most talked about and magnetic feature at the popular Krug park this week. The choir is composed of twenty-two voices, ten boys and twelve girls, whose education and experience has fitted them for the rendition of religious music and as they appear in surplices, rendering the "Holy City," "Just Behind the Times" and "Nearer, My God to Thee" during the ascension scene, it s, indeed, an impressive spectacle.
