They do not regard Mr. Cummins as in any sense a democrat, but he did run on an independent ticket once in this county and was elected to the legislature by democratic votes, and the democrats of this part of the state have always had a kindly feeling the state had a kindly feeling for him. And then he has made such a determined fight against those elements in the republican party which are most obnoxious to democrats that the democrats feel he crats of the state could be got to vote for Cummins for governor. Colonel Eiboeck. the veteran democratic editor and quite influential among the Germans, declares he is in favor of the democrats not making any campaign against Cummins. He was head of the electoral ticket last year. He says that he has received personal assurances from a great many democrats in Des Moines that they will vote for Cummins no matter what the democrats do. and probably will until the end of the chaption could be expected from that party. They were to declare that the republican party was so completely under the control of the railroads and other corporations that it would be impossible to expect any relief from the burdens of unequal taxation but by turning to the democrats. The nomination of Cummins, Herriott, Weaver and Brown put a big hole in that theory. Both Cummins and Herriott are pledged to the principle of equality in taxation and fairness to all interests.
