Judiciary Committee of Council Wants to Hear School Board Complaints.

ONLY TWO MEMBERS, HOWEVER, PRESENT

Chairman Hascall Proposes to Force Persons Giving Credence to "Persistent Rumors" to Produce Their Reasons.

Councilmen Hascall and Zimmerman were the only members of the Judiciary committee of the council present yesterday at the council chamber to hear the testimony of the members of the Board of Education on the subject of the secret deflection of lines from the treasury of the board as charged in a recent resolution of that body. Councilman Whitchers was the member of the committee on whom the others wanted to make a working majority, as Councilmen Burley and Mount are out of the city.

There was no occasion for the members warming seats in the chamber, as early in the morning the committee was served with a letter by the secretary of the Board of Education which was in answer to the notice from the city clerk announcing the meeting of the committee.

Full Text of Letter.

The letter was as follows: OMAHA, Aug. 10.—W. H. Elsbourn, Esq., City Clerk: Dear Sir—Relative to your communication, addressed to the Board of Education, of the 8th inst., in the matter of the Judiciary committee of the city council on August 9, to investigate the collection of lines under the city ordinance and within the jurisdiction of the department of public works, together with a copy of resolution of date August 8, pertaining to the same matter, the Board of Education hereby informs you as follows:

1. Referring to the second clause of such resolution, the Board of Education was never notified of the time and place of a meeting of the Board of Education, the committee to inquire into the collection of lines in response to the communication of the Board of Education otherwise.

2. Referring to the third clause of such resolution, it appears that the Board of Education has not only investigated the matter and failed to find any evidence disclosing irregularities, but made an affirmative finding upon investigation that there was no foundation for the charge of irregularity or illegality and that lines were being legally enforced in accordance with the laws and ordinances.

3. Referring to the premises herein the investigation, upon the initiative of the Board of Education, is terminated by the city council. The Board of Education has not asked the city council to reopen the investigation and does not ask it.

4. The Board of Education, having accepted as final so far as the city council is concerned, declines to appear before the Judiciary committee of such city council in response to a request to appear in connection with an investigation purporting to be made at the request of the Board of Education.

5. While not relative to the position above taken, it is pertinent to suggest that as a matter of public knowledge the Board of Education has, since the city council closed its investigation, requested that a grand jury be convened to investigate the grand matters in controversy and that such request is now pending and undetermined. The mere statement of this fact will at once convey the impropriety of the Board of Education appearing before the city council on a matter in which it has asked the judges of the district court to convene a grand jury to determine.

The Board of Education has proceeded slowly along the lines of what it believes its duty to the public and does not wish to render nugatory its last action by endeavoring to pick up the threads of the city council.

J. F. BURGESS, Secretary.

The clauses referred to in the letter of the Board are to be found in the report of the Judiciary committee made to the council at the conclusion of the former investigation, at which the members of the board failed to appear.

Christie Declines to Sign. Yesterday it developed that the apparent unanimity of the Board of Education in adopting the resolutions calling for the summoning of a grand jury was more apparent than real, for while that resolution was adopted without dissenting votes, W. B. Christie, one of the members of the board, is not in harmony with the action of his fellows in refusing to testify before the council committee. Yesterday he was the only member of the board present and, while there was not a majority of the committee present, he offered to testify as to his knowledge of the question before the board. Asked to make a statement he replied that he knew nothing of the affair; that so far as he knew the city officers were doing their duty, and that he voted at the resolution calling for the grand jury so that he might find out if there were something being illegally done of which he had no knowledge.

Mr. Christie late in the morning went to the office of the secretary of the Board of Education to attend to some other matters and while there the secretary presented the original of the letter written to the committee by his signature. This was the first time he had seen the letter, he stated, and he indignantly refused to sign, saying that if the board had desired to express his sentiments in the matter the members would have consulted him before authorizing the secretary to send the letter to the committee. He further said that the letter did not express his views, as he believed the members of the Board of Education should present themselves before the committee and make public the knowledge they claim to possess.

The original letter to the committee signed by the members of the Board of Education was kept from the observation of the public and a request to the secretary that he give the names of the persons signing was met with an absolute refusal; but he professed to have the signatures of a majority of the members of the board.

Fred Swanson of Ashland Meets Instant Death on the Track.

BEHEADED BY UNION PACIFIC WHEELS

John E. Smith, a Fellow Laborer on the Twenty-Fourth Street Viaduct, Narrowly Escapes the Same Fate.

Fred Swanson of Ashland, who for two weeks has been in Omaha working on the Twenty-fourth street viaduct, was killed a few minutes after 4 o'clock Friday night by being run down by Milwaukee switch engine No. 37 at Twenty-sixth street and Union Pacific tracks. Death was instantaneous. The body, which was horribly mutilated, was taken in charge by Deputy Coroner Alcott and is now at the morgue in the undertaking rooms. An inquest will be held Monday.

In company with two fellow laborers named Oscar Peterson and John E. Smith, Swanson was going home from his work at 8:15 walking south on Twenty-sixth street. Arriving at the intersection of the Union Pacific tracks the trio paused to permit a westbound passenger train to pass and then started across, Swanson a few feet in advance of the others. Their interest had been so absorbed in the passenger train that they had not noticed a switch engine approaching from the west. Swanson was struck by it and knocked down, the trucks passing over his neck and severing his head from his body.

Smith had a narrow escape from sharing his companion's fate. The engine passed on, the crew apparently unaware of what had happened. During his residence in the city Swanson had been boarding at 2013 Dorcas street. He leaves in Ashland a widow and several small children.

In response to a telegram received from the widow the body will be shipped to Ashland today.

CAPTAIN A. W. PERRY RETURNS

Shows Effects of Philippine Campaign, but Expects Temperate Zone to Restore His Health.

Captain A. W. Perry, formerly stationed in this city, who is now on his way from the Philippine Islands to Fort Ethan Allen, where he will be stationed with the Eleventh cavalry, is stopping at the Omaha Club recuperating from the effects of his campaign in the tropics.

The captain would hardly be recognized by his former acquaintances, as from an erect and sprightly officer weighing 155 pounds he has become a convalescent from illness, weighing 105 pounds, and has permitted a beard streaked with gray to cover his face. The captain is feeling in excellent spirits and will only require a sufficient long stay in the temperate zone to bring him back to his former vigor.

Captain Perry was among those who first went to the Philippines connected with the quartermaster's department. He remained there until June, when he left Manila for the United States.

Speaking of the conditions on the islands he said he did not believe the rumored policy concentrating the troops in the larger towns was the proper one for the islands, as small bodies of soldiers scattered over the country would have a greater moral effect on the inhabitants, who, for all the superior arms and munitions, are far from becoming loyal subjects of the United States. "One reason for the condition is their experience of many hundred years under Spanish rule, during which they only received lenient treatment. They are too weak to support a strong government, and they look upon the leniency of the United States as a symptom of weakness. The presence of only a small body of troops has a tendency to dispel this illusion."

Formerly an Omaha Man W. Lyle Dickey, Ice King of Kansas Capital, is Well Remembered in This City.

W. Lyle Dickey, manager of the People's Ice Company, who was fined $200 by the police judge of the Kansas capital for violating an anti-trust ordinance, was for several years a prominent citizen of Omaha. While here he was a man of affairs in various directions, being engaged in commercial pursuits and investments in sundry enterprises. He was also well known socially.

During the recent hot spell Mr. Dickey's cognomen has been a "name to conjure with" in Topeka, being so closely associated with the commercial success and the alleged fact that his company was a trust; that it was organized for the express purpose of killing competition and that but for its existence ice could be had at living prices. The newspapers printed editorials, quoting statistics and the congested luxury cost nearly twice as much in Topeka as in other cities of the same class.

Finally a complaint was filed against Mr. Dickey and the case came to trial in police court. Nearly all the witnesses who were called in connection refused to testify. From such evidence as was adduced, however, the judge concluded that Dickey was guilty and assessed a fine of $200. An appeal was at once taken to the

WOMEN RUN OVER A MAN

Pearl Miller and Mrs. Witt Cause Severe Injury to Dan Anderson.

Dan Anderson, a dweller on the Iowa bottoms at the east end of the Douglas street bridge, is believed to be internally injured as a result of being run over by a buggy at Sixteenth and Nicholas streets last evening. Anderson was unable to get to the city when Pearl Miller and Mrs. Witt, better known as Mrs. "Shanty" Groves, came driving down the street at a furious rate. He was knocked down and rendered unconscious for several hours. The injured man was taken to the Clarkson hospital, where an examination failed to disclose any external injuries, but he is probably hurt internally.

The women were arrested early this morning by Sergeant Whalen. They were booked for fast and reckless driving and being drunk and disorderly, but a more serious charge will be placed against them if Anderson's injuries prove severe.

Constitutional Convention Reduces Electoral Bill's Requirements as to Number of Petitioners.

HAVANA, Aug. 10.—The constitutional convention at today's session went forward rapidly with the electoral bill, sixty-one articles out of a total of 180 having now been approved.

The principal change in the original text is in the number of voters required in order to propose a candidate for election. After considerable discussion it was decided that in the province of Havana a candidate for the office of representative, governor, provincial legislator, senatorial elector or presidential elector must be proposed by no fewer than 500 voters; in the provinces of Santiago and Santa Clara by at least 300; in the province of Matanzas by 200 and in the provinces of Puerto Principe and Pinar del Rio 100. According to the original project 1,500 were to be required in the province of Havana, while the numbers for the other provinces were in the same ratio as finally adopted.

The change was proposed by Senor Sanguilly, who contended that to leave the project as it stood originally would place the nomination of candidates entirely in the hands of political parties, which would mean that cliques would rule the elections, as independent candidates would not be able to collect so many voters to propose them, owing to their not having organizations.

Marshall of Monmouth Gives Up Alleged Murderer Charged with Robbery in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 10.—Sheriff Turnbull of Warren county and Bruner of McDonough county and Assistant State's Attorney Clenden of Warren county called on Governor Yates today in regard to the proposed prosecution of Thomas Halliday, city marshal of Monmouth, who arrested Harry Simmington, wanted in McDonough county for larceny, and also in Colorado, where he is charged with attempted murder and for whose apprehension there was a reward of $500.

Governor Yates being notified of the matter decided that the prisoner should be turned over to the McDonough county authorities, but Marshal Halliday took the prisoner in a buggy to Burlington, Ia., where he turned him over to the city authorities, who in turn handed him over to a messenger from Colorado, who, it is presumed, paid Halliday the reward offered by the Colorado authorities.
