STREET CAR CREW IS LOST

Conductor and Motorman Fall Asleep and a Relief Expedition is Sent After Them.

Por two hours early yesterday morning motor car No. 76, with its crew, was lost. At the beginning of the summer of 1900 It left the Harney street car barn at 12:15, the galoon men were paying 15 cents a weathound, and from then on until 2 o'clock hundred for their ice, in the middle of the nothing was heard from it. The fereman summer the price was raised to 25 cents of the car barn worked all the usual means and this summer another advance to 30 of communicating with his crews, but cents has been made.
